RAIN PADRE SUCCUMBS

Death Summons Father Ricard

Beloved Astronomer Dies in University Infirmary After Long Illness

Sunspot Theory of Weather Forecasting Won Him World Fame

SANTA CLARA, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—Jerome Sixtus Ricard, Jesuit priest, familiarly and affectionately known as the "Padre of the Rains," died quietly in the university infirmary at 9:15 p.m., succumbing at last to age and a weakening heart that had kept him bedridden for the greatest portion of the time since last January.

Father Gorgen, Brother Anthony and Father Ricard's nurse were at the bedside when the end came to the widely known weather forecaster, astronomer and meteorologist.

Death had been expected. After fighting it off in a calm but indomitable fashion for ten months, Father Ricard suffered a distinct relapse ten days ago which brought a prediction from his attending physicians, Drs. P. C. Gerlach and Frank P. Rose, that the aged priest never again would get out of bed.

Father Ricard may have seen this. After spending nine months in a sanitarium of San Jose, he began a persistent campaign of pleading to be taken back to the university campus, where he could be as close as possible to the instruments over which he had devoted the later years of his life and which meant so much to him. Finally, his insistence prevailed. He was moved to the Santa Clara University Infirmary.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN

He would have been 81 years of age next month.

For the last forty-eight hours he had been in a state of semicoma.

For a period of approximately [illegible] years Father Ricard grew in public conception from a comparatively unknown Jesuit priest to a personage whose name and pronouncements attracted international attention. When the sunspot theory of weather forecasting began to bring him renown which spread beyond the borders of California to the limits of the United States and beyond the seas, it brought him also a great deal of [illegible] everywhere dividing those believing in his astronomical and meteorological developments from those ranging from mild skepticism to outright denial of merit. Naturally, these differences of opinion resulted in open criticism and [illegible] satire. Father Ricard [illegible] always with a measure of patient tolerance [illegible] he struck back.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Dec. 8. [To the Editor of The Times:] We all have what we refer to as the saddest sight we ever saw. Well, mine is this: A cheering section, all organized to cheer, and then nothing comes to cheer over. It ain't so bad for an individual to have your favorite lose and not be able to holler. You feel bad, but you kinder can keep your grief to yourself, but when you are sent somewhere en masse for nothing else only to holler, and then you can't—why, that is what you would call organized grief. Your wretchedness is so promiscuous. You are even dressed and seated, just to draw attention to your wretchedness. Brothers, it must be ——.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

NAVAL BILL PRESENTED

Program Goes to Congress

Administration Seeks Outlay of $134,635,000 for Construction

Measure First Step Toward Building Up Fleet to Treaty Limits

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—The first administration naval construction program laid before Congress since President Hoover entered the White House calls for an outlay of $134,635,000 beginning in the next fiscal year.

It is the first step toward building up the fleet in accordance with the London naval treaty. Authorization is needed for only seven of the eighteen vessels to be constructed.

Secretary Adams presented the program to the House Naval Committee today behind closed doors. Immediately thereafter Chairman Britten introduced the administration measure and announced hearings will begin Wednesday.

The measure calls for seven ships to be built at a cost of $82,635,000, 165 airplanes for an air-

Tear Gas Routs Strike Pickets

DANVILLE (Va.) Dec. 8. (AP)—Police today used tear bombs to break up mass picketing at the gates of the Riverside cotton mills, whose union employees are on strike. No one was injured.

National Guard troops on duty at the Dan River mills in the neighboring village of Schoolfield were called upon to disperse crowds. This was done without disorder.

Police later arrested thirty-five men after the strikers, dispersed by the tear gas, began to work their way back to the mill gates.

BOMB RIPS DORMITORY

Sixty Filipinos' Lives Periled

Two Probably Fatally Hurt and Others Injured at Imperial

Outrage Charged to Whites in Lettuce Packing Labor War

IMPERIAL, Dec. 8. (AP)—Two Filipino lettuce packers were probably fatally injured and two others were hurt tonight in the explosion of a bomb in an abandoned livery stable which served sixty of the workers as a dormitory.

The explosion occurred shortly after 8 p.m. It wrecked the lower part of the old stable and broke windows in downtown Imperial.

Deputy Sheriff Gillette, one of the first investigators to arrive on the scene, said apparently some one had thrown the bomb through a window. Splinters of steel were found lodged in the roof and the floor was demolished. Most of the Filipinos slept in the loft, the four injured directly over the spot where the bomb exploded.

Gillette said the bombing apparently was the work of disgruntled white laborers. He said many minor disturbances had been reported and that several arrests had been made during the past week as the result of desultory fighting between Filipinos and whites in lettuce fields.

The four injured men were not identified. Those who lived in the old stable and were uninjured ran away after the blast. Only a few were found. They were unable to give the names of the injured men, all of whom were unconscious. At first it was believed one Filipino was killed outright.

The Filipinos were unable to give any reason for the bombing. They said there was no trouble among those living in the stable and no one had threatened them.

Several thousand Filipinos have come to Imperial Valley during the last three weeks to work in the lettuce harvest. Most of the disturbances have occurred at El Centro, Holtville and Brawley. The bombing was the first indication of ill feeling here. Most of the fights have grown out of the belief that the Filipinos had been courting white girls.

Japan Census Shows Empire Has 90,000,000

TOKIO, Dec. 8. (AP)—Official figures of the national census taken last October as announced today give Japan a population of 64,477,000, of which 4,017,000 represents gain during the last five years. The density of population is 169 persons per square kilometer, representing an annual increase of 1.5 per cent.

Twenty-eight cities reported population exceeding 100,000. Osaka led with 2,453,000 and Tokio followed with 2,070,000. Nagoya had 907,000, Kobe, 787,000; Kyoto, 765,000, and Yokohama, 620,000.

Official figures for the colonies are yet unavailable, but are expected to give the Japanese Empire a total of about 90,000,000 inhabitants.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—Smithsonian Institution today added to its historical aeronautical collection the craft in which Capt. Frank M. Hawks made the first transcontinental glider flight from Los Angeles to New York and in which he has covered more than 4000 miles, a world mileage record for motorless craft. The glider was turned over to the museum at formal ceremonies at Bolling Field, while represenatives of the Smithsonian, Federal departments and the Army and Navy looked on. The program, which included the last flight in the famous craft, was broadcast on a network of the National Broadcasting Company.

SHIP BLAST KILLS TWELVE

Repercussion of Sunken Guncotton Cargo Explosion Sets Off Powder on Salvage Boat

LORIENT (France) Dec. 8. (AP)—Tons of guncotton submerged since the World War in the sunken hulk of the cargo boat Florence, suddenly flared and exploded yesterday, shattering the Italian salvage ship Artiglio, which was removing the wreck. Twelve of the Artiglio's crew, including the captain, Bertelotto Giacomo, lost their lives.

The remaining seven of the crew, all injured, were rushed to hospitals at Belle Isle. The bodies of two divers, incased in their armored suits, were recovered from the wreckage.

The explosion occurred off the Island of Houat, on the west coast of Brittany not far from where the liner Egypt went down in 1922 with $5,000,000 in gold ingots aboard. For more than a year the crew of the Artiglio had been trying to recover the sunken treasure of the Egypt, but so far, because of bad weather conditions and erratic tides, had not been successful.

The loss of the Artiglio may mean that the salvage work will be taken over by an American company. Commodore Sloan Danenhower of Bridgeport, Ct., said he had offered to place the Simon Lake submarine Defender at the disposal of the Sorima company of Genoa, which owned the Artiglio. The Defender is said to be equipped with new devices making use of helium gas, permitting its crew to work aboard without any inconvenience at depths as great as 500 feet.

The Artiglio had been temporarily engaged by the French government to remove the hulks of a number of cargo ships sunk during the war in the dangerous waters off the Brittany coast. Most of these vessels were packed with high explosives and munitions intended for the Allied armies and long have been considered serious dangers to shipping.

Divers from the Artiglio had placed a charge of explosives in the hull of the Florence and the salvage vessel was standing off at a distance of nearly 1000 yards, eyewitnesses reported, when the charge was exploded.

The Artiglio also carried a heavy cargo of explosives and it is assumed the repercussion from the blast in the Florence set this off.

A signalman on Hoedic Island, near by, first heard the noise of the explosion and then saw a spout of water rise nearly 1000 feet. It was followed by a column of smoke and bits of wreckage began dropping into the sea.

WAR TALK DISCOUNTED BY KELLOGG

Ex-Secretary of State on Arrival in Norway Tells Faith in Europe

OSLO (Norway) Dec. 8. (AP)—Frank B. Kellogg, former American Secretary of State, who arrived here today to receive the Nobel Peace Prize for 1929, doesn't take much stock in all the talk about a new war in Europe.

About other subjects which reporters tried to introduce into the conversation, including prohibition, Mr. Kellogg was uncommunicative, but he opened up on war talk.

"I don't believe in any new European war," he said. "There are many problems in Europe, many of which have already been solved and others of which will be solved."

He declined to take any credit for the Kellogg peace pact, saying it was Foreign Minister Briand of France who proposed the original plan which resulted in the pact.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Twenty-eight years ago today, Oliver Wendell Holmes became an associate justice of the Supreme Court.

He celebrated the anniversary by delivering without notes one of two decisions handed down by the court.

Carrying his ninety years well, Justice Holmes was congratulated by his colleagues before the session began, but otherwise the day passed unmarked.

DRUG ADDICTS' HOPE BORN

Cornell Scientists Have Formula Which Appears to Restore Nerves to Normal, Conquering Habit

ITHACA (N. Y.) Dec. 8. (AP)—A drug offering hope for curing drug habits is in the making at Cornell University. The bare fact that such a compound has been "hit upon" in the chemistry department was disclosed today, but without further details.

It is not ready for use upon human beings, being still in the laboratory experimental stage under trial upon animals. Its authors, Dr. Wilder D. Bancroft and Dr. G. H. Richter, said details are not ready for publication.

The principles wherein their attack on drug habits differ from other attempts recently were published in the proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences.

They are based upon a discovery by Dr. Richter that anesthetics and blows which produce unconsciousness and alcohol and stimulating drugs all cause a thickening and whitening of nerve cells. Unconsciousness depends upon the degree of thickening, and consciousness returns when the cells revert to their normal, water-clear appearance.

When stimulating drugs are used, after a time the cells do not revert completely to normal. Bancroft and Richter think that this increasing trace of coagulation in cells is a source of irritation in the nerves, an irritation that shows as a craving for more of the drug.

Scientifically stated the thickening is a coagulation of the colloids in a cell, and the reversion to normal water-like appearance is called "peptizing."

In the National Academy report Bancroft and Richter said that a compound which would peptize the colloids without harming other parts of the cell or body should furnish relief to drug addicts.

The first news of progress came in a statement that "in the light of laboratory experiments, not yet ready for publication, we seem to have hit on something which promises favorable results."

DEMPSEY'S WIFE PLAYS SAMARITAN

Estelle Taylor Gives Bail for Stepfather on Her Trip to Sick Grandparent

NORRISTOWN (Pa.) Dec. 8.—Estelle Taylor, film actress, in private life Mrs. Jack Dempsey, came here today and posted $2000 bail to obtain her stepfather's release from jail.

Her foster parent, Harry J. Boylan of Wilmington, Del., had waived a hearing earlier in the day on a charge of illegal possession and transportation of liquor and was committed to the County Jail.

Miss Taylor, who had been called to Wilmington from Los Angeles because of the illness of her grandfather, C. C. Barrett, came to Norristown when a telephone message informed her of her stepfather's plight.

After his release both returned to Wilmington. Boylan was arrested Sunday night, police asserting they found a bottle of liquor in his automobile.

Alice and Dolly Bury Hatchet at Social Function

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Far from harboring resentment on the question of social precedence, Mrs. Gann and Mrs. Longworth called each other by first names when they met at the last White House reception.

"Hello Dolly," was the way Mrs. Longworth greeted Vice-President Curtis's sister and official hostess. Mrs. Gann replied, "Hello Alice" to the wife of Speaker Longworth.

Friends of both, also attending President and Mrs. Hoover's reception for the Diplomatic Corps Thursday night, watched the two clasp hands and concluded any differences there might have been between them are no more.

REFERENDUM MOVE HIT

Drys Condemn Vote Scheme

McBride Predicts Defeat of G.O.P. With Leanings Toward Liquor

National Poll Believed Not in Real Interests of Prohibition

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—By a unanimous standing vote more than a hundred dry leaders, gathered in an executive session of the National Temperance Council, tonight condemned any move toward a national referendum on prohibition.

Earlier the leaders had listened to a forecast of a prohibition "battle royal" in the 1932 party conventions and a prediction of defeat for the Republican party if its candidate showed any wet leanings. It was given them behind closed doors by F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

NIGHT MEETING HELD

After arguing for more than two hours as to the wording of their anti-referendum resolution during the afternoon, the council made short work of it at the previously unscheduled night meeting. The resolution said, in part:

"Having won the Eighteenth Amendment, there is no occasion for the dry forces to join in any movement by referendum or other process for its repeal.

"Believing as we do in the Eighteenth Amendment and the laws pursuant thereto as the best governmental policy yet devised for dealing with the liquor problem, we are definitely and unequivocally opposed to the submission of any referendum which would weaken or repeal in whole or in part Amendment Eighteen, or to any national referendum thereon as contrary to the American principle of representative government."

SPLIT DENIED

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Board of Temperance, who has advocated a referendum if the wet forces would agree upon a single alternative to place before the people, was not present at the night session.

He said at his office he would place his proposal before the annual meeting of the board of managers of the temperance board tomorrow, and that action probably would be taken upon it. He added this was not necessarily a split with other dry forces on the subject, but merely a difference in the types of strategy they favored.

WETS ALSO MEET

Meanwhile, President Hoover's law-enforcement commission put in a full day of deliberation as to what it shall report about the dry law, and in still another quarter of the capital a small group of wet advocates, met in a "national constitutional convention," listened to an assault upon prohibition and a prediction this country cannot "endure half-wet and half-dry."

The name of Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant Attorney-General in charge of prohibition, and now counsel for a grape concentrate concern, was inserted into the discussions of the dry leaders in the form of a motion inviting her to address them. The council, however, declined to consider the proposal and the motion was tabled.

SOLID FRONT NECESSARY

In his discussion of the political situation as it concerns prohibition, McBride asserted there was "an absolute necessity" for the drys to rally into a solid front, presenting "even a better detailed organization than we had in securing prohibition." The prohibition issue in the 1932 Presidential campaign, he said, "will be on trial."

Earlier, Bishop H. M. DuBois of the Southern Methodist Church, a resident of Nashville, predicted if the Democratic party again nominated a wet candidate in 1932 the South would react virtually as it did in 1928.

BISHOP GETS SUMMONS

Manning Called by Lindsey

Denverite Pleads Not Guilty When Taken Into Court; Slander Suit Hinted

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—Bishop William T. Manning of the Episcopal diocese of New York was subpoenaed late today as a witness for former Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver who yesterday was ejected from the bishop's church—the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The bishop merely bowed as a process server handed him the subpoena. The service took place in the rectory adjoining the cathedral where Lindsey, in the presence of 3500 morning worshipers yesterday, shouted his demands for a chance to reply to Bishop Manning's pulpit excoriation of his views on companionate marriage.

CASE CONTINUED

Arraigned today, Lindsey pleaded not guilty and his case was continued until Friday. The technical charge is disorderly conduct.

Policeman William F. Hays, one of the plain-clothes men who rescued Lindsey from a crowd of angry parishioners which struck and kicked him and threw him out of the cathedral when he attempted to speak at the Sunday morning service, appeared as the complaining witness after Bishop Manning had refused to sign a complaint.

He was unable to understand why Magistrate Dreyer granted a continuance.

"Everybody saw him jump up and shout at the bishop," the officer objected. "It's plain what he did and I don't see why the case can't go on."

Arthur Garfield Hays, attorney for Lindsey, said he will raise the question that a man with sufficient provocation has the right to speak out in church, and will subpoena Bishop Manning to show there was sufficient provocation in the bishop's attack on Lindsey's character contained in his sermon.

SUIT MAY BE FILED

Lindsey admitted the possibility of a slander suit against Bishop Manning, and said if such a course is decided on he will retain Attorney Samuel Untermyer.

Untermyer issued a statement upholding the right of Bishop Manning to criticise Lindsey's book on companionate marriage, but declared: "If, however, as I understand, the true story of the Colorado persecution of Judge Lindsey had been communicated to Bishop Manning, he had no right to broadcast from his pulpit a personal attack and then to deny Judge Lindsey the right to answer it then and there."

Lindsey exhibited a telegram signed by T. Perceval Gerson, founder of the Hollywood Bowl, and Owen Moore, screen actor, saying, "we and the rest of your many admirers are solidly behind you in your righteous protest against stupid bigotry."

George Creel, war time Director of Public Information, was in the courtroom with Lindsey and assured the former judge he is eager to help him.

KATHLEEN NORRIS DENOUNCES LINDSEY

PALO ALTO, Dec. 8. (AP)—Kathleen Norris, novelist, today strongly criticized Ben B. Lindsey, companionate marriage advocate, and in a talk before a Parent-Teacher Congress characterized the former Denver judge as "not fit to be allowed to speak in any American city."

Lindsey, she said, would make marriage a matter of sex alone, "instead of the tried and trusted and temperate thing that lasts."

The former jurist, she added, with one hand would give to girls "perfect freedom in their sexual relations," and with the other would give them "the more dangerous gift of knowledge of birth control."

She said Lindsey has become so warped in his viewpoint by his contact with delinquency that he

QUEEN FIGHTS FOG PERIL

Elizabeth, in Belgian Valley of Death, Takes Reins in Hand to Expose Cause of Fatalities

[Copyright, 1930, by the Chicago Tribune]

LIEGE (Belgium) Feb. 8. (Exclusive)—How Queen Elizabeth is fighting a lone and impassioned battle against the inertia of the Belgian government in the "poison valley mystery" was revealed today by Prof. Ernest Malvoz of Liege, who frankly declared:

"The physicians are wrong in saying that the 'pea-soup' fog alone caused the Meuse Valley tragedy."

Going to the very limit of her right as a constitutional sovereign, Queen Elizabeth organized a scientific-medical committee today to investigate the cause of the fog deaths. The Queen is thus openly defying the latest official medical report to the Department of the Interior stating this morning that the deaths were "solely due to the fog."

After the Queen's courageous intervention, this medical report is worth no more than a scrap of paper.

Queen Elizabeth won the first round of her battle late tonight when Prime Minister Henri Jaspar and the Ministers of Labor and the Interior agreed to receive tomorrow morning the physicians who make up the Queen's scientific investigation commission. They also will hear from mining engineers and government inspectors who gathered evidence in the stricken region.

An urgent telegram from the League of Nations asking a scientific explanation of the fog mystery also helped to stir the government to action.

Two members of the commission tomorrow will deny that war gases caused the deaths, and will point out that the deaths occurred only in parts of the valley where the chemical and zinc plants are located.

Friday night the official press reported that the Engis factories were not working. Saturday it was revealed that the zinc, chemical and fertiliser plants at Engis were going full blast. On Saturday morning government Health Inspector La

"FIXED-UP" AFFIDAVIT IS REPUDIATED BY WOMAN

Estelle Smith Sticks to Original Identification of Billings; Older's Methods Scored

This is the seventh of a series of articles presenting an exhaustive analysis of the State Supreme Court's recent hearing of new evidence in the Mooney-Billings cases, resulting in a denial of Billings's plea for a pardon recommendation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—After twelve years of "work" by Fremont Older on Estelle Smith, one of the vital witnesses in the Mooney-Billings case, as was described yesterday, Older's paper, the Call, finally published in 1929 an affidavit signed by Miss Smith in which she apparently made a complete recantation of her identification of Billings as the man whom she saw with a suit case at 721 Market street on the day of the Preparedness Parade bombing in 1916. Up to that time the only fruits of Older's hundreds of interviews with her and the gifts, money, dinners and other attentions showered upon her had been two newspaper articles—one in 1917 in which Older charged that the Mooney-Billings prosecution had "suggestionized" Miss Smith (!) and the 1920 statement in which she was represented as saying that she "might have been mistaken" in her identification—a statement the highly equivocal character of which has already been described.

The 1929 affidavit was shown to have been of a piece with the rest. According to Older's testimony to the Supreme Court, Miss Smith came to his office voluntarily and declared that there were no Mooney-Billings cases at all and never had been—that they were a myth. Further, according to Older, she wanted to make a statement but, being unable to write it herself, dictated it to a stenographer. When it appeared in the Call over her signature it was, in effect, a complete denial of her previous testimony damaging to Billings and admitting, in substance, that she was a morphine addict and not mentally responsible at the time. Naturally this was exploited as a tremendous victory for the defense.

REAFFIRMS TESTIMONY

But when Estelle Smith appeared, of her own volition, as a witness before the Supreme Court at its recent hearing she upset the applecart by reverting to her original identification of Billings at the time and place mentioned and on this she could not be shaken. This led to a long series of questions as to the exact circumstances surrounding her 1929 "recantation," of which significant excerpts follow:

Question: Did you compose it (the affidavit) yourself?

Answer: No, sir.

Q.: Who composed it?

A.: Well, it was fixed up in the Call.

Asked why she made it, she said it was so that "Mr. Older could get the Governor to consider the application, because I always believed I was responsible—my testimony—that put this man away."

Q.: Who told you that?

A. Mr. Older has told me that at all times, too.

Q.: How could you be reasoned out of a thing that you actually saw or believed you saw?

A.: The whole thing coming up—people coming to you and saying: "It depends on you to give this man a chance" and "everybody can be mistaken on some thing some time; none of us are infallible," and, that continually told you, you might then say: "Yes, I will give him a chance; I could be mistaken."

Q.: And that was the result of a good many conferences and a great deal of talk between you and Mr. Older?

A.: Fourteen years.

Q.: Well, he had a good deal of influence over you, did he?

A.: I believe Mr. Older.

Q.: In the making of the affidavit he had a good deal of influence?

A.: Oh, yes; I wouldn't have made it if it hadn't been for Mr. Older.

And again:

Q.: Did Mr. Older tell you that you had been mistaken in your identification?

A.: He has always said I was mistaken.

Q.: You believed him, did you?

A.: After twelve or thirteen or fourteen years I would believe almost anything; it is a constant worry on my mind.

"TOOK A CHANCE"

Asked to explain the conflict between her testimony to the Supreme Court and the statements in her 1929 affidavit, she said:

"After being what I would say a friend of Mr. Older's for years, he has often wondered and made me wonder if I could be mistaken and rather because of me that this man could not get his case before the Governor, or was it because of me and my testimony that he was going to be there all his life and if I could do anything that would be the cause of having this hearing and giving him a chance, I took the chance . . . When Mr. Older tells me positively that I am mistaken and that I have at all times been mistaken; that there could be another man just like this man, and for me to give him a chance. I give him a chance."

Chief Justice Waste and Justice Langdon made a more or less successful effort to get from Miss Smith a statement as to what parts of her 1929 affidavit were true and what were false, with particular reference to a declaration in the affidavit which read: "Had I been normal I never would have identified this man as Warren K. Billings." She explained that she had had her tonsils removed and that the attending physician had given her some tablets to take which contained a percentage of morphine. The affidavit indicates that she was a victim of the drug habit. This Miss Smith flatly denied, adding: "When I was told that I could have been under the influence of that medicine, I said, if I was that way, I would not have identified him."

"I want to say to you," she continued, addressing the court, "that afterward I had occasion to learn that I had signed a statement that I had taken these tablets and wasn't mentally responsible." She added that she went to a doctor and was assured that every prescription of the kind had a certain amount of drug in it, and not to worry about it. "It never hurt me, anyhow," she concluded. She denied she had ever been a drug addict.

Asked about a sentence in the affidavit which read: "It (the identification) was done through fear of the District Attorney, Fickert, who had told me if I changed my testimony he would send me to San Quentin," she replied:

"I may have; not in that way, I do not think . . . I had never seen that (the affidavit) put up in statement form only when Mr. Older said: 'Will you sign that for me?' and I took fourteen years, about, to gain confidence enough and friendship enough for me to sign anything."

OMISSIONS CHARGED

Dealing with some of the matters which she charged were omitted from the affidavit, the transcript shows the following:

Q.: (by Justice Curtis)—Did you suppose, when you signed that affidavit, that there was a sentence in there to the effect that Mr. Billings had told you, when he was in your office with that suit case, that it had simply acid in it?

A.: Yes, sir, I expected it to be in that statement; and Mr. Older's taking me to the Hall of Justice—that happened there—and I believed the whole thing to be in that statement, not just part of it.

(This refers to Miss Smith's testimony that Billings told her he was carrying acid, which, he added later, he was using to spray on automobiles to aid the striking union painters. Why it was not included in the affidavit as "fixed up in the Call" appears obvious.)

When the time came to sign the affidavit, Miss Smith testified, she was taken to the office of a notary in the Call Building and there a Call reporter said to her: "We want you to sign that for us now." She said, according to her testimony: "Is that just what I said?" and he replied: "Absolutely; Mr. Older would not have it any other way." She said it was not even read to her but that she signed it because she had complete confidence in Older and in what Older told her. There was much more testimony along the same line, the general purport of which was to substantiate the girl's statement that the affidavit had been "fixed up in the Call" to suit the purposes of the Billings supporters.

Older came in for some rather sharp questioning about this affidavit, the wording of which was, in places, rather significant. For example:

Q.: When Estelle Smith succumbed to your influences what did you do? Did you notify the Chicago Federation? (The Chicago Federation of Labor, which Older testified was supplying him with money for his work on behalf of Billings.)

A.: No; put it in the paper; printed her statement.

And again:

Q.: How do you account for Estelle Smith getting out from under your thumb and coming up here of her own free will and accord and giving a denial of what is in this affidavit that you took?

A.: How can I account for it?

Q.: Yes, sir, how do you account for it? Every few minutes she would cast glances over there at you and protest her friendship for you—I do not know whether you signaled her back or not but evidently you enjoyed it—and how do you account for her coming here, anyhow?

A.: I would have to have some information—I do not know anything about it. I did not see her until after she had testified.

Q.: If somebody suggestionized her (referring to the Call's 1917 charges) and then you suggestionized her, somebody else must have suggestionized her to get her back here; is that your idea?

A.: I have not formed any opinion about it; all I know is that she was here.

Q.: You realize that it is the province of this court to weigh her testimony?

A.: Yes, sir.

Q.: And we are trying to find out what kind of weight to give it?

A.: Yes.

Q.: And apparently you know her better than anybody else in this record knows her, and which story shall we believe—just tell us—Estelle on the witness stand, Estelle before the grand jury, Estelle in your office or Estelle here the other day?

A.: Well, Estelle makes the affidavit; I believe that.

Elsewhere Older declared that he would believe Billings innocent even if he himself confessed guilt. Evidently Older believes what he wants to believe. The Supreme Court not only disagreed with him but held that the schemes used to get the affidavit "savored strongly of subornation of perjury."

In the next article will be described some of Older's "work" on the remaining witnesses.

"PADRE OF RAINS" LONG LIFE ENDS

DEATH TAKES FATHER RICARD

Ten Months Illness Ends Notable Career

Would Have Been 81 Years of Age Next Month

University for half a century, the thirty years in which the sun-spot theory blossomed and grew made both him and the university famous.

At first, of course, not much attention was paid to the forecasts he made based upon sun spots. But it got so that farmers began to be guided by his predictions and to look forward to them.

Learned astronomers disagreed with him, and stoutly Father Ricard defended his theories. In recent years, every month his forecasts were distributed in California at least as wdiely as the government's.

A remarkable tribute was paid in 1921 when 7000 persons visited Santa Clara Mission to celebrate his golden jubilee in the Jesuit order. Old graduates of the college, friends, civic and clerical leaders united to do him honor.

NATIVE OF FRANCE

State-wide contributions were made a few years later to build a new observatory for him and to equip it. Knights of Columbus in all parts of California contributed to the fund.

Father Ricard was a native of Plaisians, France, where he was born on January 21, 1850. There he attended public school, and at 16 began to study Latin and Greek under Abbe Espouillier. There followed two years spent in the apostolic school of the Jesuit College at Avignon. After traveling in Africa and Italy in 1869, the young Frenchman entered the apostolic school at Turin, Italy, and June 1, 1871, the Jesuit novitiate at Monaco.

In 1872 he came to California with Fathers Giacobbi, Coltolli and Chiappa. Ending his novitiate on June 1, 1873, he took vows of the order. The year 1874 was marked by a review of rhetorical studies directed by Fathers Traverso and Leonard, and the period 1874-1877, by study of philosophy under Father Pollano. From 1877 to 1880 Father Ricard taught grammar and higher mathematics at Santa Clara and then spent three years teaching mathematics at St. Ignatius College in San Francisco. There followed theological study at Woodstock College in Maryland. In 1886 he was ordained at Woodstock by Cardinal Gibbons.

From 1891 to 1917, a period of twenty-six years, Father Ricard was professor of ethics, mathematics, political economy and history at Santa Clara. From 1917 on his work was in the observatory. He was elected a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science on December 31, 1917. He was a member of astronomical societies in France, Belgium and Mexico, of the Siesmographical Society of America and the Meteorological Society of America.

His sun-spot theory grew from his study of astronomy and he became convinced accurate weather forecasts were possible from the sun spots. At first he began with forecasts for ten days, then for considerably longer periods.

THEORY EXPLAINED

In general, Father Ricard's principle was that sun spots are produced by planets in line with the sun and these sunspots make the atmospheric high and low pressure areas which govern storms.

He assumed the "sun is the principal source of terrestial energy and heat is its active agency." When a sun spot reached a point three days from the western rim of the sun it was his view a storm of some kind would appear on the Pacific Coast. Rain or snow might not result, but there would be an atmospheric disturbance of sufficient strength to be noticed.

Basing his further observance on the twenty-seven-day period of rotation of the sun and its position, and that of the sun spot with reference to the central meridans and with knowledge of the position of the various plants utilized also, Father Ricard was able to make his calculations. He wrote numerous articles for magazines and newspapers on his theory.

QUEEN FIGHTS NEW FOG PERIL

Comble insisted that no children were stricken. An hour later reporters had testimony that many children were affected, though not killed by the poison fog.

"Our Queen, whom the nation reveres as the foremost and bravest war nurse, learned through me on Saturday afternoon at the tuberculosis congress at Brussels, that something was foul about the investigation of the fog deaths," said Prof. Malvoz. "Her Majesty decided at once to spend Sunday in the death valley."

While Queen Elizabeth knelt at the biers of the dead or soothed with kind words the coughing and choking patients in the stricken villages all day Sunday, she heard cries and whispers, loud or low and accusing.

"It is the factories with their poison fumes." The Queen resolved then and there that even against the government, full light would be shed on the tragedy.

ENGLAND TOLD FOG CARRIES NO DISEASE GERMS

LONDON, Dec. 8. (AP)—The mysterious "death fog" of the Meuse Valley of Belgium which last week claimed more than three score human lives was not due to any communicable disease, in the opinion of Belgian health authorities, and they so informed the British Ministry of Health today.

The Belgian statement, which expressed the belief the fog was clearly a matter of local conditions, was in reply to a communication from the British Ministry of Health.

Inhabitants of England became uneasy over fears the intense fog which has shrouded the isle for the last few days might carry the deadly effects of the Meuse fog.

Their anxiety was increased by reports of the death yesterday near Grosmount, Yorkshire, of ten cattle from an unknown malady.

"I have been made the goat by Bishop Manning" he said in opening. "He has decided to attack me and make me black so that even members of his own clergy are made black. He has simply chosen me to vent his spleen."

CONGRESS GETS NAVY PROGRAM

craft carrier, a flying-deck cruiser and a light six-inch-gun cruiser.

The bill asks for 130 airplanes to cost $5,000,000, which would be placed aboard eight-inch-gun cruisers built or building.

Eleven destroyers, including one destroyer leader, are to be built at a cost of $47,000,000. These have been authorized previously.

Adams also told the committee President Hoover desires authority to have modernized the battleships Mississippi, New Mexico and Idaho at a cost of $30,000,000, of which $20,000,000 is desired for beginning the work on two of them in the next fiscal year. The Senate passed a bill today to authorize the modernization.

The committee was advised by the naval Secretary the administration desires a $5,000,000 naval dirigible base on the west coast. The sum of $1,000,000 had been requested, he said, for beginning the second of two giant airships already contracted for.

Britten estimated only $15,000,000 will be needed to initiate the program the next fiscal year.

Secretary Adams said the Navy would like to award contracts for four submarines, ten destroyers and a plane carrier on July 1, 1931, with contracts for the destroyer leader to be let October 1, 1931; the flying-deck cruiser January 1, 1932, and the light cruiser April 11, 1932.

Two vessels would be of experimental character.

The flying-deck cruiser of 10,000 tons would cost $20,780,000, be armed with six-inch guns and carry thirty-six airplanes. The 7500-ton six-inch-gun cruiser will be designed to accommodate six airplanes and cost $16,605,000.

A 13,800-ton aircraft carrier is expected to carry 114 airplanes, and will be a sistership to the vessel under construction at Newport News, Va. It will cost $27,650,000.

The remainder of the program consists of four submarines of 1100 tons each for a total cost of $17,600,000 or $4,400,000 each. Ten of the destroyers are to cost $4,200,000 each with the destroyer leader costing $5,000,000.

Appropriations for the destroyers are to be sought in the annual naval supply bill.

PHONE COMPANY MAPS PROGRAM

Will Expend $40,000,000 on Pacific Coast in 1931

Sum Exceeds Past Year's Outlay by $5,000,000

Development Based on Fundamental Growth

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8. (Exclusive) — Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company will spend approximately $40,000,000 on the Pacific Coast in 1931 for new construction work. Of that amount nearly $30,000,000 will be used in California.

"The $40,000,000 expenditure in 1931 will compare with the average expenditure of $35,000,000 during the past twelve years, a period in which the company has experienced its greatest expansion due to the unusual and progressive growth of the Pacific Coast since the World War," President Pillsbury said.

"During this present period of slackened business conditions we have followed our established policy of going forward with our plans and we will continue to proceed with our construction program consistent with fundamental trends and the future requirements of the service.

"We confidently look forward to the Pacific Coast's return to normal business and we plan to keep ahead of the growing demand for telephone service that will be bound to follow."

LAVAL MOULDS FRENCH CABINET

Senator Tries Feverishly to Gain Premiership

He's Conceded Better Chance Than Barthou Had

Tardieu Accepts Place and Placates Right

PARIS, Dec. 8. (AP)—A newcomer in leading French political roles, Senator Pierre Laval, distinguished lawyer, worked feverishly here tonight to construct a government where an older hand had failed.

Invited today by President Doumergue to form a Cabinet, after the efforts of Senator Louis Barthou had failed, Laval is meeting with difficulties similar to those encountered by his veteran colleague.

The veto of the radical Socialist party against inclusion of any member of the Right in the new combination was renewed and as in Barthou's case apparently was the stiffest obstacle for Laval to negotiate on his way to the Premiership.

Laval, however, a close friend of Aristide Briand and former Premier Tardieu, appears tonight to have better chances of success than Barthou had.

His advantage, it is pointed out by close friends, lies in his decision not to insist upon the entrance to the government of a member of the Right parties as Barthou had done. The Right group advocates religious training in public schools.

Tardieu is said to have arranged with his former adherents in the Right group that they consider him their representative in the Laval Cabinet. Late tonight it was announced he has accepted without reserve the portfolio of Public Works in the Laval government.

DECREE WON AT RENO BY MRS. LOEW

Divorce Divides Leading Theatrical Families but Relations Stay Friendly

RENO, Dec. 8. (AP)—A marriage which united two leading theatrical families was dissolved today when Mrs. Mildred Zukor Loew, daughter of Adolph Zukor, obtained a divorce from Arthur M. Loew, theatrical man and son of the late Marcus Loew. She charged mental cruelty.

The divorce made permanent a separation begun last May. The two separated then on a basis of "mutual respect and affection," which Mrs. Loew said was entered into under the terms of a betrothal agreement. She said she and her husband had agreed to "lay their cards on the table and decide what was best" should unhappiness mar their marriage.

Loew inherited more than $10,000,000 of his father's estate, but what property settlement was made by the pair was not made public. The divorce papers were sealed to conceal the agreement terms.

Custody of the two children was granted to Mrs. Loew. Friendly relations of the parents was demonstrated a month ago when Loew came here by airplane to attend a birthday party given by Mrs. Loew for one of the children. Adolph Zukor, father of Mrs. Loew, was here when the decree was granted and was a host at a party Saturday night.

The couple married in New York, January 6, 1920.

STUDENTS STILL RIOT IN CUBA

Troops Sent to National University as Disorders Continue, Injuring Several

HAVANA, Dec. 8. (AP) — With the student situation still unsolved and clashes with police reported with increasing frequency, not only in Havana but through the island, troops again were stationed at the National University today and precautions against serious disorders were doubled.

Despite conciliatory steps taken by the government students continued their demonstrations. Several were injured in their clash with police and a large number arrested but there was no shooting.

Entreaty of the new Secretary of Education, Carlos Miguel de Cespedes, that students permit classes to be resumed met deaf ears when the Secretary appeared before the student directorate early today.

Chief disturbances were reported in Havana, Matanzas and Cienfuegos.

Havana was quiet this afternoon following an hour of disturbances in which high-school students were the chief participants. Two were injured and several arrested.

Peaches Skims $61,000 Cream Off Stage Tour

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—The golden harvest Mrs. Frances (Peaches) Browning garnered on the vaudeville stage from the public curiosity crop sown in her separation from "Daddy" totaled $61,000 in eleven months, it was revealed today. The information was given in testimony at the trial of the $15,000 suit against her by her former manager, Edgar Allen. Allen claims 25 per cent of the gross.

Peaches took the stand in her own defense and said she had paid Allen all he had coming, $200 a week.

King Carol Asks Reduced Upkeep

BUCHAREST, Dec. 8. (AP)—King Carol today asked Parliament to reduce the government appropriation for upkeep of the royal family by 22 per cent. Parliament greeted the requests with cries of "Hail, Carol I!"

The King's request followed an announcement by Premier Mironescu that the 1931 budget called for a 20 per cent reduction of the salaries of state employees, included in a general lowering of the budget from $214,000,000 to $186,000,000.

SUNNYVALE HAS AIR BASE LEAD

House Committee to Vote on Issue Tomorrow

High Navy Officials Favor Bay Area Location

Camp Kearny Site Held Too Vulnerable in War

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—Unless there is an upset the House Naval Committee will meet Wednesday and vote to place the California naval dirigible base at Sunnyvale, Santa Clara county, in the San Francisco Bay area.

That was the prospect today after Secretary Adams, Assistant Secretary Ingalls in charge of aviation, Admiral Pratt, the chief of naval operations, and Admiral Parsons, chief of the bureau of yards and docks had appeared before the committee to outline the general naval program for next year and give their views particularly on the naval-base controversy.

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

The meeting, held behind closed doors was said to have revealed the entire Navy Department as supporting Sunnyvale as against the rival claims of Camp Kearny at San Diego. The navy general board is still for the southern site but is being overridden in the strong political pull and arguments as to location, not without merit, in favor of the northern field. The testimony of the naval witnesses today was that Camp Kearny would be too vulnerable in event of war. This against the judgment of the general board that this site is preferable "for strategic reasons."

After the meeting Representative Britten of Illinois, chairman of the committee and a native of San Francisco, indirectly quoted the Secretary and other naval officials in saying:

PUSH CONSTRUCTION

"Construction of a naval dirigible base on the Pacific Coast is considered essential by the administration. Efforts will be made to have it constructed during this session of Congress. It will cost approximately $5,000,000. The Sunnyvale site is approved by the chief of naval operations, assistant Secretary for Aviation and chief of the Bureau of yards and docks. They declare that the Camp Kearny base near San Diego would be too vulnerable in time of war and there is too much heavier-than-air activity there now.

"Secretary Adams said that the budget for 1932 carried the approval of $1,000,000 appropriation for beginning construction of the sister ship of the Akron at a cost of $3,500,000."

Britten issued a call for an executive session of the committee on Wednesday morning at which time the plan is to put the matter of a site to a vote. The indications now are that Representative Evans of Glendale will be the sole member holding out for Camp Kearny.

"For four years my strength and vitality declined steadily. I traveled from place to place in search of health but continually grew worse.

"The Sargon Treatment completely restored my health. The way it restored my energy and vitality is nothing short of remarkable. I feel better than for twenty years and attribute my present good health to this great medicine. I regard it as a real triumph of Science."

HEALTH PROTECTION
BETWEEN 20 AND 40

THE turning point in health is 40; the average age when wear and tear of life begins to take its toll unless you've fortified against it.

Thus: "Build health between the ages of 20 and 40" is urgent advice doctors now give. Upon the care taken during this span determines health in later life.

One of the most prevalent ailments doctors advise you to guard against is kidney breakdown. 6 out of 10 men and women past 40 are afflicted. Many without knowledge, because there are no warning symptoms.

Kidneys excrete 75% of poisonous waste from the system, much in too concentrated form. Overburdened, delicate kidney cells break down. Congestion occurs, throwing poisons back into the system. And "self-poisoning" thus causes many serious ills.

Doctors now urge this simple, daily precaution, before and after 40: "Drink 6 glasses of Puritas mineral-free Water."

First—Puritas dilutes poisonous waste, dissolves and washes it away, thus easing the burden of kidneys. Then, because Puritas is mineral-free, it leaves no mineral deposits in kidneys, thus preventing additional difficulties.

Puritas is both mineral-free and impurity-free—thru scientific distillation. It is drinking water in very purest form. Though its taste seems different at first, each drink you'll increasingly enjoy.

Order Puritas today. Telephone WEstmore 0381 and immediate delivery will be made, anywhere in Southern California. An iceless cooler furnished free.

FARMERS' FOOD LOAN OPPOSED

Hyde Says It Approaches Dole System

Funds for Seed and Stock Feed Held Ample

Measures Expected to Be Called Up Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—The administration today launched an attack upon proposals to include food loans in drought relief legislation.

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde issued a statement asserting that loans for human food approach "perilously near the dole system." He approved the granting of loans to drought sufferers for seed, feed for work animals and fertilizer.

The Hyde statement came on the eve of consideration of the drought relief loan bill in Congress. A report from the Senate Committee on Agriculture favoring a $60,000,000 loan fund for food as well as for seed, feed, fertilizer and fuel, was filed with the Senate today by Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, the chairman. A report from the House Committee on Agriculture favoring a $30,000,000 loan fund for the purposes specified other than food was filed simultaneously with the House by Representative Haugen, Republican, Iowa, the committee chairman. A minority report signed by Representative Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana, and others favoring the larger appropriation and food loans also was filed.

MAY COME UP TODAY

Senate leaders hope to call up the McNary bill for consideration in the Senate tomorrow. It is possible that the Haugen bill will be taken up in the House tomorrow immediately after the passage of the $110,000,000 emergency construction fund bill which is to have the right of way.

"I have heretofore expressed approval of the principle of the proposed Federal loans to farmers who have suffered severely from the drought, provided such loans are limited to the purpose of purchasing seed, feed for work animals and fertilizer," said Secretary Hyde. "Loans made for such purposes provide the stricken farmer with the means of starting his agricultural operations anew.

"There are a great many objections to the government making loans for human food. From a national point of view, this latter class of loans approaches perilously near the dole system and would be a move in the wrong direction.

WORK PROVIDED

"Under the relief plans proposed by the administration a very large sum of money will be made available for road work, for rivers and harbors and other purposes in the drought States. The road work especially has been proposed with the object in view of giving the farmers an opportunity to find employment during the winter and thus provide for themselves food and clothing. To include loans for human food in the Federal drought relief bill would remove the occasion for an increase in the highway work in the States.

"The Red Cross has undertaken to take care of all cases of distress. It has organized committees in every county in the drought area and is now engaged in the important work of reliving distress cases. The national chairman of the Red Cross states that his organization is able to carry the burden. I am sure that if their funds are depleted, public response will restore them."

DEMOCRATS ASSAIL EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—A Democratic uprising in the Senate against President Hoover's unemployment program signalized the reporting today by Congressional committees of the first of the emergency measures.

Led by Senator Walsh, Massachusetts, a half-dozen Democrats took the floor to denounce the administration proposals as a "drop in the bucket" and to demand a Democratic program of greater dimensions even at the price of increased income taxes.

DROUGHT BILL UP TODAY

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, Democratic leader, who joined in the pledge of party leaders for co-operation on relief legislation, listened intently. Already he has broken from the Hoover program on drought relief and tomorrow the Senate will take up the $60,000,000 drought bill reported today by Chairman McNary of the Agriculture Committee. The administration urged $25,000,000 for this.

Walsh compared the Hoover administration to "the fiddling by Nero as Rome burned." He proposed the government appropriate $100,000,000 to divide with States the cost of unemployment relief. He also asked a five-day week for government employees.

BONUS CASH URGED

Senator Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, urged his bill to pay World War veterans cash for the face value of their bonus insurance certificates. Senators Caraway, Arkansas; Dill, Washington, and Copeland, New York, joined in the Democratic attack and in support of a party program beyond that recommended by the President.

The House received the $30,000,000 drought relief bill from its Agriculture Committee and prepared to meet the issue of $60,000,000 demanded for this work by Representative Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana.

REPORT DUE

The House Appropriations Committee will report tomorrow the $110,000,000 public works appropriation. Mr. Hoover asked $150,000,000 for this to press construction as a means of aiding employment.

The House will take up the public works measure tomorrow and follow that with the drought relief bill. The end of the week should see both measures almost through Congress.

For the speedy enactment of this legislation, the Republican-Democratic co-operation pledge is holding intact, but after that a dispute seems brewing on political lines over additional legislation.

PUT IN RECORD

Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, put into the Senate record the correspondence between himself and Secretary Mellon regarding cash payments on bonus insurance certificates. The Secretary flatly opposed such action and the Michigan Senator asked reconsideration.

Senator Copeland criticised Secretary Mellon for using past Treasury surpluses for the retirement of the public debt and described as "legalized larceny" the practice of using income-tax payments above the requirements of the government for retiring the debt.

WALSH SHOUTS

Walsh said if increased income taxes were necessary to meet the cost of the expanded program, they should be raised.

"It is folly, it is absurd, it is hypocritical," he shouted, "to talk about relieving unemployment without understanding that it means increased taxes for the rich. Unemployment is war and what war was ever won without increasing taxes. I am sick and tired of the absence in high places of sympathy and understanding for this problem."

Caraway interposed, "Many of those out of work today were those who gave their time to the nation when these rich men were piling up their fortunes."

Walsh advocated if income taxes were raised, the increase be confined to incomes of $20,000 and more.

HAWLEY SEES FIGHT ON TAX INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Any proposal to increase taxes will meet strong opposition, in the opinion of Chairman Hawley of the House Ways and Means Committee, which originates revenue-raising legislation.

"I am against any increase," he said today. "I do not believe it is necessary. Of course, some temporary financing may be necessary to carry us over for a time, but the country is in a sound condition and will make a come back after the winter months."

Hawley said money could be borrowed so cheaply it would be unwise to burden the taxpayers with additional taxes for a temporary period.

FIFTH MINE VICTIM DIES

MADRID (N. M.) Dec. 8. (AP)—Tom Byron, fifth victim of the gas ignition Saturday in the Lamb coal mine here, died last night in an Albuquerque (N. M.) hospital.

SLUMP PASSES, SAYS TEAGUE

Farm Board Member Declares Depression Due to Unjustified Lack of Confidence

BOSTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—C. C. Teague, member of the Federal Farm Board, in an address before the American Farm Bureau Federation today expressed confidence the current business depression "cannot last long."

Teague, reviewing events leading to the economic situation, said "confidence was shaken to such a degree that there has been a general depression far more widespread than the conditions warrant. Confidence plays an important part in the prosperity of the country. Our business structure has never been sounder. The great body of our people are working and at good wages. I am therefore confident that this depression cannot be long; already there are signs of better times."

CURE DOUBTFUL

Commenting on crop surpluses, he said, "in our major crops, such as wheat and cotton, which are grown over such wide areas by so many producers, it is doubtful if there is any cure for depressing surpluses except reduction of production either by voluntary action of producers or forced by low prices."

While admitting that "there is a field for stabilization measures," Teague said the board does not propose to follow such a program as that of Brazil with coffee, which resulted in disaster. "No government agency can bring about successful stabilization over a period of years," Teague said, "unless farmers themselves can make essential readjustments that will support and not defeat the purpose of these measures."

Organization of agricultural producers into effective national marketing organizations is a long-time project, Teague said. He said he believed "as much has been accomplished in a comparatively short length of time as could be reasonably expected."

SURPLUS DENIED

Sam H. Thompson, president of the federation, opposed revision of the Agricultural Marketing Act at this time. Thompson said he believed the present act had all authority to do the fundamental things the farmers want done. He challenged opinion that overproduction is responsible for agriculture's troubles. He declared the cause lies in faulty distribution.

He admitted there is a genuine market surplus of goods that can not be sold with adequate return to the producer but said:

"In terms of human need there is no surplus. In our great cities today are hundreds of thousands of men and women walking the streets idle. On the one hand are millions needing food and without the wherewithal to get it—on the other hand are millions desiring the products of the hungry city workers."

Squealer Slain by Two Gunmen

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—The underworld today wreaked its wrath on Nicholas Luciano, 28 years of age, who turned State's evidence in 1923 and helped send the Diamond brothers and another man to the chair for the murder of two bank messengers during a $43,600 hold-up.

Luciano was eating in a downtown "social and athletic club" when two youths killed him.

FUND FOR FARM AID REQUESTED

Hoover Asks Congress to Provide $150,000,000

Says Amount Included in Deficit Estimate

Letter Does Not Explain Specific Purposes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—An appropriation of $150,000,000 to enable the Farm Board to carry out stabilization and other projects was requested of Congress by President Hoover today.

The Chief Executive said the sum is included in the estimate of expenditures before Congress and does not increase the estimated Treasury deficit.

Already $250,000,000 of the $500,000,000 revolving fund authorized has been appropriated. More than $100,000,000 of this has been expended in efforts to stabilize grain and cotton markets. Most of the remainder has been either loaned or committed for loans to co-operative marketing associations.

It is undecided by the committee whether the estimate will be considered separately or with the first deficiency bill, to be prepared soon.

However, Chairman Wood of the House Appropriations Committee, made it clear its consideration will not be undertaken before the public works program is disposed of by the House.

In his letter President Hoover said "in order that important operations of the board, now in prospect, may be carried through promptly, additional funds are required at this time."

He did not go into detail, but said he concurred in the recommendation of Director Roop of the budget bureau, who wrote:

"The foregoing estimate of appropriations is required to meet needs which could not be foreseen when the budget for 1931 was transmitted to Congress and its approval is recommended."

No official comment was made concerning the operations in prospect.

Low Pressure

Racing captains of Mississippi steamboats, in the 'sixties, threw caution to the winds. Fireboxes were crammed and safety valves held down with extra weights . . . until many a race ended in a disastrous boiler explosion. Prudent travelers, however, preferred to take the "Jacob Strader." For upon its wheelboxes this non-racing boat displayed the motto: LOW PRESSURE!

Throughout 41 years of flawless service, Pacific States Savings has been a financial "Jacob Strader" . . . appealing to savers who wished to travel in safety to their financial destinations.

Today, this time-proved conservatism is evidenced in outstanding factors of liquidity and safety demonstrated by our Statement.

If such protective provisions appeal to your sense of prudence, we invite you to investigate our 6% and 5¼% facilities for savings.

HOUSE LIBERAL TO CALIFORNIA

Appropriations Bill Carries Increased Sums

Boulder Dam, National Parks and Indians Benefit

Saving of Millions on River Project Achieved

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—Under the Interior Department appropriation bill presented to the House today Boulder Dam will be given $15,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, while California's national parks, reclamation projects and Indians will receive more than $1,388,000 for the same period.

The dam item is the largest in the measure, which calls for total appropriations of $68,552,000 for the next fiscal year, $5,640,000 more than the department received for the current year, but $840,700 less than was recommended by the Budget Bureau.

SAVES $2,000,000

While the Bureau of Reclamation originally asked for $17,000,000 with which to carry on the work at Boulder Dam, two unexpected savings made it possible to reduce the estimate on funds needed by $2,000,000.

These two savings were in the building of the spur line from Las Vegas to Boulder Dam by the Union Pacific instead of by the government, and contracting for electric power from the Southern Sierras Power Company instead of installing a government-built power plant at Boulder City while the dam is under construction.

Not only was a saving made on the spur line but by extending the Federally constructed rail line from Boulder City to the dam site three miles and eliminating bad grades, standard-type railroad equipment can be used instead of expensive especially constructed locomotives.

FURTHER ECONOMY

While the government is considering erecting a stand-by power plant at Boulder City it is also negotiating with an Arizona power company to construct a stand-by power line from Kingman, Ariz., for emergency use. If these negotiations are satisfactorily completed the government will be able to chalk up another saving.

California national parks fared well in the appropriation bill. All were given increased funds over last year's. Yosemite Park will receive $429,040 under this measure, an increase of $48,500 over last year and $129,560 over the Budget Bureau's estimate. Sequoia gets $156,900, or $43,000 more than last year's appropriation, while Gen. Grant Park will receive $21,000, an increase of $6000 over last year. Lassen Park is granted $50,300, close to $20,000 over last year's sum.

CALIFORNIA ALLOTMENT

California's two reclamation projects, the Orland and, jointly worked with Arizona, the Yuma, were slated for $39,000 and $285,000, respectively, under the appropriation bill today.

The Indians of California were provided for by appropriations for schools and irrigation projects as well as by a reappropriation of money for their enrollment.

Sherman Institute at Riverside, Cal., the largest school of the Indian Service and the only nonreservation school in the State, received $370,500.

The total allowed the Indian Affairs Bureau to carry on its increased health, care, educational and industrial-training work is $24,432,000, an increase of $2,060,000 over last year's. An additional $3,275,000 was appropriated from tribal funds.

SENATE GIVEN CERTIFIED AIR

New Ventilating System in Upper House Approved by Surgeon-General

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP) Many a man drinks certified milk, but United States Senators are among the few who breathe certified air.

Official approval has been placed upon the Senate atmosphere by Surg.-Gen. Hugh S. Cumming of the Public Health Service.

Tests of the workings of a new ventilation system showed the system was capable of holding desired temperatures throughout the day and maintaining desired moisture content.

INDIAN AID ON DROUGHT TO BE ASKED

Commissioner Says Many Tribesmen Will Suffer if Not Safeguarded

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Commissioner Rhoads of Indian Affairs today indicated he will seek an emergency relief fund of from $100,000 to $200,000 to buy food and other supplies for many Indians he fears might starve this winter as the result of the drought.

Rhoads said he could not fix definitely the number of Indians threatened, but there are hundreds of them.

He said the Indian failed to save money in good times, and this year there will be hundreds of aged and infirm tribesmen who lack food and clothing and seed supplies with which they ordinarily begin the winter.

He based his statement on a recent survey.

Rhoads said the bureau also hopes to be able to obtain additional appropriations for road work to give jobs to many unemployed Indians. Otherwise, he said, the suffering would be more widespread.

SUGAR CURB AGREEMENT ANNOUNCED

Dutch East Indian Group Has Understanding With Cuban-American Interests

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 8. (AP)—Representatives of Cuban-American and Dutch East Indian sugar producers have reached an understanding for limitation of export of sugar for a period of five years, it was announced today. The understanding also contemplates the segregation of old stocks which will be gradually dispersed.

Today's understanding follows efforts of the two groups to reach a united front on restriction proposals with which to face European producers at a conference in Brussels early this week. The agreement is subject to approval of Javanese factory owners and the Javanese government.

Senate Seeks Data on Aliens

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—The Senate today adopted the Hayden resolution requesting the Labor Department for a recommendation as to what steps should be taken to facilitate deportation of aliens. The proposal also seeks to learn the number of aliens unlawfully in the United States and whether additional appropriations are needed to send them back to their native lands.

Such aliens holding jobs are displacing deserving citizens, Senator Hayden said, while those not working constitute a charitable burden. Sixteen thousand aliens were deported last year.

Iowa Has New Bank Closings

SIOUX CITY (Iowa) Dec. 8. (AP) Two more Iowa banks were closed today. The suburban Leeds State Bank, with deposits of $135,000, was closed "to await action of the directors." The Bailey State Bank at Correctionville, near here, with deposits of $200,000, failed to open its doors.

In Des Moines the Iowa Trust and Savings Bank, placed in receivership late Saturday night, was consolidated with the Iowa-Des Moines National Bank and Trust Company, the State's largest institution.

Longshoremen Praise Cardinal

BOSTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—"Cardinal of the working people," was the title conferred on William Cardinal O'Connell, dean of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in the United States by a longshoremen's union today, his seventy-first birthday.

From hundreds of men and women throughout the nation and organizations of diversified interests, Cardinal O'Connell received messages of felicitation.

DOAK APPROVED FOR LABOR POST

Hoover Appointment Gets Solid Senate Vote

Contest Promised on Tariff Commission Nominee

Smoot Predicts Approval of All Six Members

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—The Senate today gave quick approval to President Hoover's choice for Secretary of Labor—William N. Doak of Virginia—but notice was given of a contest on one of his Tariff Commission nominees—Edgar B. Brossard of Utah.

Doak was confirmed without debate on motion of Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama.

At the same time Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, said off the floor there will be "strenuous opposition" to Brossard when the six tariff nominations reach the Senate. The Finance Committee, of which Harrison is a member, concluded its examination of these nominees late today and called a meeting for tomorrow to make their report. Chairman Smoot predicted all six will be confirmed.

Brossard, a Republican, and Alfred P. Dennis of Maryland, a Democrat, both holdovers from the old commission, were questioned at length today regarding a statement issued by the commission last spring before the Hawley-Smoot bill was passed saying agriculture would benefit greatly by the measure.

Brossard's connection with the sugar tariff was gone into at length by Harrison.

Jail Sentences Meted Out in Fiscal 1930 Disclosed

Dr. Doran Makes Report on Prohibition's Progress

Corruption Charges Said to Have Been Disproved

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Jail sentences aggregating more than 14,000 years, imposed during the last fiscal year on violators of the Volstead Act under the Jones "five and ten" and other laws, were reported today by Dr. James M. Doran.

Giving a final accounting of his stewardship over the Prohibition Bureau before it was divided by Congress into three parts, Dr. Doran, now commissioner of industrial alcohol, reported to Secretary Mellon a total of 68,173 arrests by dry agents and 22,405 jail sentences out of 54,085 convictions up to last July.

Dr. Doran made his annual report the vehicle for denying that considerable corruption had existed within the ranks of prohibition workers. He said 567 cases had been investigated by a special inspection division and all but one case closed.

"In a very large proportion of the cases," he asserted, "the charges were either absolutely disproved or dropped for lack of evidence. Prohibition employees were found very frequently to be victims of false allegations made by violators for the purpose of discrediting the agents as government witnesses against them."

SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

NEW CARGO LINE SCHEDULE GIVEN

Silver-Java Pacific Combine in Operation Soon

Fleet of Fourteen Craft to Ply From Harbor

Trimonthly Sailing Program on the 24th Inst.

BY WALDO DRAKE

Operating schedule of the fourteen-ship fleet of the merged Silver Line, Ltd., and the Java Pacific Line, which will jointly maintain three monthly express-freight services from the Pacific Coast to the East Indies, was announced yesterday by Capt. Harry H. Birkholm, district manager of the General Steamship Corporation, local agent for the new Silver-Java Pacific Line. The new three-fold service will be inaugurated from Los Angeles Harbor on the 24th inst., with the departure of the British motorship Silverbelle for Macassar.

Silver Line is contributing seven new British motorships to the joint services and seven modern Dutch vessels will be entered by Java Pacific Line. Three of these latter, the Kota Gede, Tabian and Tabinta, have just been built particularly for the Pacific Coast-East Indian trade.

The "A" service will include the Pacific ports of Los Angeles Harbor, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Vancouver and the Far East ports of Manila, Singapore, Rangoon and Calcutta. The "B" service will include only Los Angeles Harbor and San Francisco on the Coast and the outports will be Macassar, Sourabaya, Samarang, Batavia, Singapore, Rangoon and Calcutta. The "C" service, slowest of the three lines, will include all of the abovementioned ports except Manila.

Java Pacific Line's new Tabian sailed from Amsterdam on the 2nd inst. and is due here to enter the joint service on the 28th inst.

LAUNCHING TODAY OF NEW PRESIDENT LINER

The Dollar Line's new $8,000,000 turbo-electric liner President Hoover will be launched at 11:30 a.m. today at Newport News, Va., with Mrs. Herbert Hoover christening the ship with a bottle of water collected from the seven seas.

The ship, with a sister vessel under way at the same yards, is the largest commercial vessel ever built in American yards, and is the forerunner of a fleet of four such Dollar ships. At the time of launching, Dollar Line vessels wherever they are around the world, will blow their whistles to mark the event.

The President Hoover is a twin-screw, 653 feet long, displacing 31,000 tons, having a speed of twenty-one knots, and nine decks, with passenger accommodations for 1260 and a crew of 300. It will go into service on the California-Orient run in June, next year. The launching and name of the second liner has not been set.

Flood Brothers' little freight motorship Carreso is due from the South Sea islands with a cargo of 700 tons of raw copra tomorrow, on the second round voyage in this service.

Unless misunderstandings are settled this week, the notice of the North Atlantic Far East Conference that it will divorce the Pacific Westbound Conference will go into effect the 15th inst. Pourparlours are continuing.

Australia is reported to have deferred its latest increase of 1 1-2 pence added duty on gasoline in drums or cases from the 1st inst. to March 1, next. This action leaves the duty at 7 pence, stimulating the movement of gasoline in containers before the next dead line.

Capt. L. Sayers, who with eleven San Diegans were rescued by Navy craft from Guadalupe Island where they were marooned when wind destroyed their yacht Aeola last week, yesterday formally reported the loss to the customs offices at San Pedro. The craft was said to be worth around $7500 and was reported insured for $5000.

It was Sayers's ingenuity in rigging up a radio set ashore from parts he was able to salvage from the old spark set on the boat, which attracted the attention of the aircraft carrier Langley. The Langley sent out planes which located the marooned party and the destroyer Aaron Ward succored them. All but Sayers remained at San Diego.

The craft had been chartered to J. M. McFate of San Diego to provision the goat herders resident on the island. It was owned by J. D. Kilkenny of Los Angeles.

Wilmington Boat Works yesterday was awarded the contract for the construction of a 107-foot glass-bottom boat for use at Catalina Island, it was announced yesterday by Milton S. Patrick, manager of the fleet of pleasure craft operated at Avalon.

The boat yards began work on the craft at once, and expect to have it completed by June 1, next. The cost will be $75,000. The vessel will be an improved model of the Emperor, which was discarded when damaged by seas in the unusual winds at Avalon November 22.

Capt. William Voegel, noted skipper of the French Line motorship Washington, in port from Le Havre, yesterday celebrated the twentieth anniversary of service with the line. Capt. Voegel, a native of the Alsatian mountain country, entered the service of the Compagnie General Transatlantique in 1910 aboard the steamer Tourraine and has sailed under the same house flag since.

He gained fame during the World War as commander of the gun battery of the trans-Atlantic liner France, then in transport service out of New York to Le Havre.

Grace Line's steamer Charcas, back in service following the $100,000 repair job necessitated by her recent grounding on the Point Fermin reefs, will sail for the South American West Coast next Thursday after loading 7000 tons of cargo here. The freight includes 400 tons of mining machinery, manufactured by the Southwest Engineering Company for Peruvian mines.

Silver Line's motorship Silverfir will today complete discharge of her last cargo from the Calcutta range and will move from the General Steamship Corporation terminals to the Bethlehem shipyards for extensive voyage overhaul. On the 23rd inst. she will sail for Galveston to enter Silver Line's new service to the Persian gulf.

GERMAN BOYS RIOT FOR WAR

Pacifism of "Western Front" Film Protested

Fascist Leader Cheered During Tirade

Many Arrested, Most of Them Youths

BERLIN, Dec. 8. (AP)—Boys who were babies in 1914 rioted noisily through the fashionable West End of Berlin tonight in protest against asserted pacifism of the motion picture "All Quiet on the Western Front."

The American film version of Germany's part in the World War played tonight with a crowd inside the theater and one outside, drawn there by reports that Paul Goebbels, Fascist member of the Reichstag, would speak in protest against the film.

Goebbels, who led an outburst in the theater Friday protesting against the film, in which white mice were unloosed and malodorous bombs hurled by the Fascists, was not to be found, however.

Some of the spectators were arrested, most of them young.

The young Fascists moved over into the near-by Wittenberg Platz. There Goebbels appeared and in hot terms denounced this "Jewish" version of the German soldier's life in the trenches during the World War, and the young Fascists cheered wildly.

Then, massed in thousands, they trooped down the costly Kurfuerstendamm, the smartest shopping boulevard in Berlin.

Rioting continued until midnight. Up to that hour, the police record showed twenty-seven persons had been arrested and none injured.

FORMER GOVERNOR OF RHODE ISLAND DIES

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Dec. 8. (AP) Charles Dean Kimball, former Republican Governor of Rhode Island, died at his home here tonight, in his seventy-second year. He was a direct descendant of Roger Williams, founder of Rhode Island, and of Gen. Nathaniel Green, Revolutionary War hero.

FORTUNE INHERITED BY RUNAWAY BRIDE

Eleanor Hutton Sturgess

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (Exclusive) Eleanor Hutton Sturgess won't be shy of luxuries even if her wealthy parents, the E. F. Huttons, live up to threats of leaving her out of the family will.

The Park-avenue debutante, who is said to have angered her parents recently by marrying a mere playwright, Preston Sturgess, who made nearly $1,000,000 with his "Strictly Dishonorable"—is independent for life. Last week she became 21 years of age and came into possession of nearly $1,500,000 left her by her grandparents, the Posts, of cereal fame.

THIRTY DIE AS POISON LIZARD FALLS IN SOUP

BOMBAY (India) Dec. 8. (AP)—Thirty young students in the London Mission School at Erode, Madras, died in agony today and fifteen others are in a critical condition because they ate soup into which a poisonous lizard had fallen. The cook, who prepared the soup, also died. Physicians found the lizard in the soup pot.

CHAMBER HEARS SHOUP ADDRESS

Government Operation of Business Opposed

Espee President Applauded at Portland Session

Angeleno Urges Changes in Antitrust Law

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 8. (AP)—Government operation of any business that can be conducted by private enterprises usually results in failure, Paul Shoup, president of the Southern Pacific and vice-president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, said in an address before the western division of the chamber here tonight.

"Whatever else we do," Shoup said, "let us not consult any panacea. Let us not expect the government to do something we cannot do ourselves."

It is of the greatest importance the government keep out of business, the speaker said. Many governments have entered business in past years and in almost every instance the result has been failure, he said. In 1908, he said, Brazil attempted to fix the price of coffee and the price was cut in two; Japan tried to fix the price of silk with the result rayon became a strong competitor with silk; Great Britain failed in its attempt to fix the price of rubber and Italy failed in its efforts to do the same in the sulphur industry.

"The United States tried to run railroads," he said, "and some of us have a vivid memory of the result."

His statement that the national chamber is opposed to the government entering business was greeted with long applause.

E HEAD SUB ....

CHANGES URGED FOR ANTITRUST ACT

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 8, (Exclusive)—Herbert R. MacMillan, president of the California Oil and Gas Association, Los Angeles, today made a vigorous appeal for modification of America's anti-trust laws in the principal speech before the Western Division of the United States Chamber of Commerce, now in session in Portland.

Citing the current gasoline wars as examples of ruinous price competition and holding the antitrust laws responsible for the situation which brought about the price slashings, Mr. MacMillan declared:

"It is high time for those interested in the industries and business and general welfare of this country to mobilize their forces for a concerted action to bring about the needed modifications of our antitrust laws."

Mr. MacMillan's views were received with unusual interest by those in attendance. In view of the fact that President Hoover, in his recent message to Congress, called attention to the need for scrutiny of antitrust laws with a view of conserving national resources, it is believed that MacMillian seized an opportunity to start a movement that will spread throughout the nation.

T. A. Stevenson, manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Tacoma, led a discussion of western summer rates by eastern railroads. He called attention to the fact that western roads give 45 per cent summer reductions west of Chicago, but that eastern roads give only 15 per cent reductions east of Chicago. As a result of this discussion, two committees were formed, one to look into the lowering of tourist passenger rates east of Chicago and the second committee to investigate the possibility of obtaining lower freight rates on lumber east of Chicago.

C. C. JULIAN LOSES TWO LAW SUITS

Jury Returns Verdicts for $193,119 Against Oil Man in Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 8. (AP)—Two civil suit verdicts against C. C. Julian, Oklahoma City oil man formerly of California, were returned by a jury in District Court here today in favor of John Salesberry of Los Angeles. The judgments totaled $193,119.

The suits involved oil deals between the plaintiff and the promoter. Salesberry was granted judgment in one case for $70,578 and in another for $122,541, by the Superior Court in Los Angeles county, California, two years ago for money he asserted he had been unable to collect.

Pledge of Vote in Speakership Race Repudiated

SAN FRANCICSO, Dec. 8. (AP)—The Speakership of the next Assembly continued to bob about on top of the California political pot today.

Assemblyman Robert L. Patterson of Kern county repudiated his pledge to vote for Assemblyman Walter J. Little of Santa Monica, candidate to unseat Edgar C. Levey of San Francisco.

He based his repudiation on the assertion that the recent San Joaquin Valley caucus acted upon erroneous information as to the incoming administration's attitude toward the candidates. Patterson is expected to call on Governor-elect Rolph to try and learn his attitude.

The Governor-elect has consistently refused to be drawn into the Speakership contest.

Broadway Play Author Suicide

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—An unfinished play on his typewriter, Leon Cunningham, 34 years of age, author of a dozen Broadway productions, hanged himself today in the bathroom of a house where he occupied a room. Cunningham, a graduate of the University of Michigan, wrote "Neighbors," "Hospitality," "The Poor Fish," and "Small Town Stuff." He acted in "Only Thirty-eight" and was a member of the Actors' Equity Association.

RAIL UNIONS BALKED BY JOBLESS PROBLEM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—How to put 250,000 idle railroad men to work was discussed today by executives of the twenty-one railroad labor union organizations. The discussion, however, failed to develop any final program and it will be continued tomorrow.

JURY CONVICTS DENVER WOMAN

Mrs. O'Loughlin Held Guilty of Killing Stepchild

Judge Sentences Her to Life Imprisonment

Defendant Emotionless as She Hears Verdict

DENVER, Dec. 8. (AP)—A district court jury tonight named Pearl O'Loughlin as the slayer of her 10-year-old stepdaughter, Leona.

The woman, who had sat through ten days of her trial with hardly a show of emotion, received the verdict and walked from the room to the prisoners' dock unassisted.

Judge Henley A. Calvert received the verdict from the jury foreman, F. E. Tousley, intoned the finding of the twelve men and pronounced a sentence of life imprisonment.

APPEAL PLANNED

The jury was out one hour and thirty-six minutes before it rapped on the door to indicate it had reached a decision.

Judge Calvert gave John M. Keating, chief counsel for Mrs. O'Loughlin, thirty days in which to file a motion for a new trial. Should that be denied, Keating said he would take an appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Leona was struck over the head with a tire iron, then thrown, unconscious, into Berkeley Lake the night of October 14. Leo O'Loughlin, a city detective, Mrs. O'Loughlin's husband, was taken to a hospital two days later, assertedly suffering from ground glass administered in his food.

BROTHER FACES TRIAL

Mrs. O'Loughlin was arrested October 19, two days after the body of the girl was found in the lake by a passer-by. Frank O'Loughlin, brother of Leo, also was arrested and is awaiting trial for the same murder. The trial was requested by both Leo and Frank in order to clear Frank from suspicion. This charge probably will be dismissed, the State said.

The State contended collection of insurance money was the motive for the murder and offered as evidence a plot involving the stepdaughter, the husband and the husband's father, Dennis O'Loughlin. The means to this end, the State contended, was ground glass.

The convicted woman has a son by a previous marriage, Douglas Millican, 8 years of age.

ARMS ARBITERS WIND UP LABORS

Draft Treaty and Reports Sum Up Conclusions

Recommendations Made May Be Considered in 1932

Pledge of Allies to Disarm Nearing Fruition

[Copyright, 1930, Press Publishing Company, New York World]

GENEVA, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—The preparatory disarmament commission wound up its six years' labors tonight. Tomorrow it will legislate itself out of existence after various delegations have made formal statements.

A draft treaty and a four-part report have been approved. The treaty, which will be submitted to the projected general disarmament conference, is the scantiest kind of a skeleton around which it is hoped sufficient figures can be built to bring about some degree of limitation or reduction of the world's fighting forces and armaments in consonance with the pledge of the Allies to disarm contained in Article VIII of the Covenant of the League of Nations.

The four separate chapters of the report deal chiefly with reservations and explanations of various delegations and with the official protests of the German and Russian delegations against majority decisions of the commission. Counter-proposals, such as the soviet demand for complete disarmament or gradual reductions also will be annexed to the report at the Russians' request.

Commenting tonight on the result of the commissioners' labors, Lord Robert Cecil, British spokesman, declared that completion of the report to the Council of the League is in itself a positive achievement. He expressed the belief that the general disarmament conference will convene in Geneva in March, 1932, and probably will last a year. It will be an even more important and far-reaching conference than the peace conference at Paris after the World War, Cecil said.

INDICTMENTS VOTED BAY CITY BOMB PAIR

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—The county grand jury tonight voted to indict Henry Ilse, asserted maker of the Spokane trunk bomb which failed to explode in a newspaper office, and Thomas Boyle, confessed sender, on charges of malicious and reckless possession and use of explosives. The charges carry penalties of from one to fifty years.

GIGANTIC BANK MERGER FAILS

New York's Billion Dollar Deal Called Off

Four Institutions Involved in Negotiations

Inability to Work Out Plans Assigned as Cause

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP) — A contemplated "$1,000,000,000 merger" of four large New York banks was called off tonight when representatives of the Manufacturers' Trust Company, the Public National Bank and Trust Company, the Bank of United States and the International Trust Company announced they had been unable to agree upon details and final terms.

Public progress of the proposed merger had gone so far as to include the statements that the board of directors of the Consolidated Bank would be strengthened by the addition of several officials of other New York banks. The list included Mortimer N. Buckner, chairman of the New York Trust Company; Walter E. Frew, chairman of the Corn Exchange Bank Trust Company; George W. Davison, president of Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, and Park A. Rowley, president of the Manhattan Company and vice-chairman of the Bank of Manhattan Trust Company.

No other reason was given in tonight's statement for the failure to reach an agreement other than that representatives of the four banks were unable to effect a satisfactory settlement of details.

RED FORAY INTO CHINA RUMORED

Trenches Dug Near Manchuli Says News Agency

SHANGHAI, Dec. 8. (AP)—Kuo Min, Nationalist government news agency, tonight published reports from the Northwest Manchurian frontier saying Russian troops near Manchuli in the last few days have "entered Chinese territory and arrested a few Chinese."

The reports further said the Russians "ignored protests made by local Chinese authorities." Kuo Min also reported Manchurian advices as saying "the Russians have dug a trench ten miles long near Manchuli, within Manchuria. Soviet forces along the northern boundaries of Manchuria also are reported to have been increased."

Advices indicating China and Russia had again come to grips in the negotiations for settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway question came from the Manchurian frontier October 29 when Russian military activity was reported in that area. The railway, operated jointly by the two countries, has been an element of contention for more than a year.

CITRUS MEN WANT TO USE PATENT IDEA

Seven States Join Fight on Preservation Method as Lacking Invention

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Alabama, Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas, producing practically the entire citrus crop of the United States, today joined in urging the Supreme Court to hold fruit growers may use a preservative recommended by the Agricultural Department, notwithstanding the process may be covered by a patent.

The question came before the court in an appeal by the American Fruit Growers, Inc., of New York City against the Brogdex Company, controlling a patent covering a method of preserving fruit by preventing decay.

The States have, through their respective attorneys-general, joined in filing a brief contending the patent is invalid because lacking invention and that the treatment of citrus fruits does not constitute manufacture, which the patent statute aimed to protect. The States also asked they be permitted to participate in the oral argument when the case comes before the court for decision.

PASTORS HEAR NAVY PRAISED

Chaplain of Warship Gives Talk to Ministers

Maintenance of Sea Forces Held Vital Need

Battlecraft Men Described as World Police

"Maintenance of an efficient Navy is as essential to the safety and prosperity of the United States as is the maintenance of an adequate police force for a city," declared Rev. M. M. Witherspoon, chaplain of the battleship Mississippi, in an address given yesterday before a congregation of ministers at First Methodist Church.

"I am an idealist and a lover of peace, but I believe in facing the facts of life," said Mr. Witherspoon. "We all would like to see swords molded into plowshares and guns turned into pruning hooks, but it would be folly and a sin against humanity thus to scrap our means of defense so long as economic imperialism, Old World diplomacy, race hatred and international injustices exist.

"If the United States should scrap her Navy, what assurance have we that the same piratical nations which are slicing up China, Africa and other countries would not make an attempt to parcel out America among themselves," said the speaker.

"Our Navy is our national life insurance—and we get that insurance cheap."

Maintenance of the Navy in time of peace is worth all that it costs, according to Mr. Witherspoon, who spoke of the Navy as "a great scientific laboratory," and dwelt upon the value of the Navy Department in fighting disease and bringing aid to distressed peoples in various parts of the world. The young men of the Navy, he said, represent a cross-section of America's manhood and deserve the respect and help of every minister of the Gospel.

Pension Asked for ex-Officer

A request by Mrs. Neal Morris for recognition of her demand for a pension because of the disability of her husband, Neal Morris, former police officer, now a psychopathic case, was referred by the Police Commission to the committee of the whole.

Mrs. Morris asserts her husband's affliction was caused by an injury received in line of duty, that his discharge from the department took place after his affliction, and that therefore he should not have been removed for improper conduct, but for disability.

Friends of the home and members of its board of directors who will preside at the tea urns during the afternoon are Mrs. Curtis De Garmo, Mrs. Robert Brand, Mrs. Edwin Janss, Mrs. C. Raymond Bradford, Mrs. Mary Cope, Miss Margaret Garbutt, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. Wilcox Stoddard and Mrs. Harry L. Heffner.

Articles for the bazaar have been made by patients at the home throughout the year and include many examples of fine handwork, as well as useful things for the household such as aprons, towels, tea-cloths and such. In charge of the bazaar will be Mrs. Edith D. Samson, Mrs. A. E. Carlson, Mrs. Charles Day, Mrs. Dwight Farnum and Mrs. Joseph Trumbach.

The Florence Crittenton Home was established in 1915 by the late Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Johnson to provide a shelter for unmarried mothers with no other place to go. The revenue for its maintenance is derived from voluntary contributions, the annual bazaar and nominal fees paid by those patients who are able to do so. The paid staff is kept at an absolute minimum, most of the work being done by the patients themselves.

PLAYGROUNDS PLAN FIESTA

Christmas Observance to Start on 20th Inst., With Plays, Pageant and Choral Singers

With thousands of children and adults taking part, the city-wide observance of the Christmas season by the Los Angeles Municipal Playgrounds will take place on a larger scale this year than ever before, according to announcement yesterday of Superintendent Hoyt.

Climaxing a series of plays, operettas and other events, the third annual Los Angeles civic Yuletide pageant, "The Christmas Message," will be presented on the steps of the City Hall by costumed groups of children drawn from all parts of the city on Saturday evening, the 20th inst. Dances, tableaux and carol singing by community choral groups will be included in the presentation.

More than fifty plays, operettas and other special Christmas events will be presented at the city's forty municipal playgrounds as part of the city-wide plans. Between Christmas and New Year's many of these plays will be re-enacted at hospitals, orphanages, old people's homes and similar institutions by the playground children.

Preparations have also been started by the playground department for the assembling of 25,000 carol singers to spread musical cheer on the city's streets Christmas Eve. This army of choristers will be drawn from churches, schools, colleges, clubs, playgrounds, parent-teacher groups, fraternal orders and other civic organizations and will be divided into wandering groups of troubadours that will be heard on every street in Los Angeles on the evening of the 24th inst.

Both the outdoor Christmas pageant and the unique carol-singing plan are backed by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce as features of the Christmas-out-of-doors idea in Southern California.

MATTOON INSTALLING THURSDAY

County Counsel Will Be Given Eminent Command Post by Knights Templar

Everett Mattoon, County Counsel of Los Angeles county, will be publicly installed Thursday evening as the Eminent Commander of Los Angeles Commandery No. 9, Knights Templar. He has served this semi-military Christian order of knighthood for the past eight years as Prelate. He was elected to the highest post within the commandery the 4th inst.

EVERETT W. MATTOON

Mr. Mattoon is the author of the Mattoon Acts, on the statute books of California.

He is closely affiliated with numerous civic organizations, a member of Al Malaikah Shrine and of the Shrine chanters. The chanters will appear as a body Thursday evening with several selections which created a sensation during the recent Toronto pilgrimage.

Eminent Sir Leo V. Youngworth, Past Imperial Potentate of the Shrine and Past Commander of the Commandery will deliver an address.

The drill corps of Los Angeles Commandery will act as the escort of the officers-elect and the commandery band will furnish music.

Main-Street Car Line Extension Up to Council

A franchise for the extension of its South Main-street line from the present terminus at Slauson avenue to Florence avenue was requested of the City Council yesterday by the Los Angeles Railway and referred to the utilities committee, which in turn is expected to refer it to the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation for its approval before taking action.

The action of the company was taken at request of Councilman Evan Lewis, L. S. Tilley, president, and L. A. Latterner, vice-president, of the South Main-street Improvement Association, which recently gained a favorable decision from the utilities board as to the need for such an extension.

SANTA CLAUS BLAMED AS HUSBAND VANISHES

Santa Claus spirited her husband away to the North Pole or some place, Mrs. Sophie Fink asserted yesterday in Superior Judge Craig's court, when she divorced Peter Fink. "He left me last Christmas Day," testified Mrs. Fink. "My husband told me that if he loved me, he would work his fingers to the bone for me, but since he didn't love me, I should work for both of us."

ELKS WILL GIVE JINX TOMORROW

Yuletide Event Expected to Attract Huge Crowd to Lodge's Temple

The Elks' Temple will be a busy place tomorrow afternoon and evening when, from 1 p.m. to midnight, members of the local lodge hold their annual Christmas Jinx, with a Yuletide Variety Hall smoker.

In celebration of the twentieth anniversary of this event, the biggest night of the year in Elkdom, the September smoker of the lodge will be duplicated, upon which occasion the local club was filled to capacity. An old-time music hall will be the setting, both in the ballroom of the club and the spacious gymnasium. Under the dim lights of coal-oil lamps, on tables covered with checkered tablecloths and ornamented with a single candle in an old bottle, a yuletide feast of turkey and all its fixings will be served. The music hall atmosphere will be furnished through the courtesy of Jack Warner of the Warner Brothers' studios.

Entertainment will be in charge of Roy McCray, Gavin Young, Jack Warner and Carl Walker, and will include boxing bouts and all the musical features of 1896 with Floradora girls as music-hall favorites.

From 1 o'clock until 6, the women of Elkdom will be permitted to participate in the frolic, but promptly at 6 o'clock the doors will be closed into the banquet hall and only Elks with paid-up cards will be admitted. A short session of lodge will be held at 8 o'clock.

Varied will be the costumes. Prizes will be awarded for the best-dressed and the worst-dressed Elk. Harold William Roberts's "Liverwurst Band" in costume will offer opposition to another musical feature of the evening, the Gioia Hurdy-Gurdy.

Sick Veteran's Tale of Abuse Wins Divorce

Although he is a disabled veteran, his wife berated him for his inability to obtain work, Harry S. Rayburn yesterday complained to Superior Judge Price in getting a divorce from Estelle James Rayburn. The husband is a tuberculosis patient at the Veterans' Hospital, Sawtelle, where he is rated as totally disabled.

"She falsely accused me of stalling about my health to get out of working," asserted Rayburn. He added that he had a good job in Needles, but his wife insisted on moving to Los Angeles and he came along with her. When he had difficulty in finding work she told him she would not live with him, Rayburn said.

Judge Price awarded him a divorce, but left the daughter, Lorraine, 8 years of age, with the mother, and approved a settlement agreement whereby Rayburn is to pay $50 a month for the child's support. Attorney S. S. Hahn represented the wife.

Public School Group Conducts Conference Here

Behind closed doors in the Governor's office here, the State Lay Commission on Public School Problems yesterday discussed twenty-seven major educational matters preparatory to compiling its report for presentation to the Legislature. Another session, it was announced, will be held in about ten days.

Among the subjects that are understood to have been considered are junior colleges, school laws, school costs and the training of teachers.

During the past year the commission has conducted hearings here and at San Francisco and Sacramento, at which parents, teachers, public officials and employers have been interrogated.

Wife Divorces Art Director

Trysts at motion-picture studios where she said her husband, Ralph M. De Lacy, art and technical director, met other women, yesterday were charged by Mrs. Eva P. De Lacy, testifying at the hearing of her divorce complaint. Her daughter, Mrs. Muriel H. Matthiessen, corroborated her mother to the extent of testifying that she saw De Lacy meet a strange woman at a studio and of seeing her father intoxicated once. Superior Judge Collier granted Mrs. De Lacy a divorce.

The De Lacys married November 26, 1904, and separated October 26, last. Judge Collier ordered the wife's attorney, Otto A. Gerth, to submit later for approval a property settlement agreement which the lawyer said had been drawn.

JURY TO HEAR CASEY TODAY

Elderly Financier Accused of $200,000 Frauds Eager for Quick Prosecution

Thomas M. Casey, head of the Casey Investment Company of Huntington Park, accused of having forged notes and mortgages amounting to more than $200,000 and selling them to innocent investors, is ready to go before the county grand jury today.

The 76-year-old head of the company which bears his name last night announced he is eager to have the District Attorney take immediate action so that he may aid in disposing of the matter quickly. Casey already is charged with one count of grand theft set forth in a complaint filed against him last week.

Meanwhile the banker spent the entire day yesterday in conference with Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ferguson detailing additional transactions in an attempt to undo the financial tangle which may result in the loss of much of the money placed in his hands by investors.

But despite his claim that he was pressed into the forgery of negotiable documents to meet the demands of creditors back in Missouri who demanded the payment of money they lost through his manipulation of bank funds there twenty-five years ago, Casey failed to name any of those whom he has accused.

Today, the banker says, he will endeavor to show where every cent of the missing money went.

According to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ferguson, it may be impossible to place the evidence in proper form for presentation to the grand jury today. In that case the matter may be deferred until the next session Thursday, he said.

IRENE DUNNE NEARS STARDOM

Leo Carrillo Scheduled to Appear in Cruze Feature; Arline Judge Signing Long Contract With R.-K.-O.; Dick Winslow to Play Tom Sawyer

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

A large number of new stars are being built up these days.

Take Irene Dunne, for instance, who has just finished the lead in "Cimarron." There is no doubt, say those in the know, that Miss Dunne is headed for stardom at the R.-K.-O. studios.

IRENE DUNNE

In the meantime the actress is being assigned the leading feminine role, said to be quite as exacting as the "Cimarron" part, in "Bachelor Apartments," in which Lowell Sherman will play the male lead and which he also will direct.

John Howard Lawson is writing the screen story of "Bachelor Apartments," with J. Walter Rubin penning the continuity.

Miss Dunne had a rather lengthy and highly successful experience on the stage before entering pictures.

LEO CARRILLO WILL SIGN WITH CRUZE

If nothing happens to prevent a happy termination of negotiations now under way, Leo Carrillo will sign a contract to star in a gangland story with James Cruze is to produce, and so far untitled.

LEO CARRILLO

The role which Carrillo will play will be that of an Italian gangster. Cruze himself will direct.

In the meantime Carrillo is playing at the Playhouse, under management of Henry Duffy, in "The Bad Man," and is, we hear, packing them in. He is later to appear in a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture.

R.-K.-O. SIGNS YOUNG BEAUTY OF STAGE

Outbidding several major motion-picture companies, Radio Pictures has acquired the talents of Arline Judge, an 18-year-old beauty of the New York stage.

Wires from the eastern offices of Radio Pictures to William Le Baron reveal that Miss Judge (imagine how the critics will go for that moniker) has been signed on a five-year optional contract.

Miss Judge is hailed as a clever comedienne, five feet two, whose most recent New York stage hit was in Ruth Selwyn's "Nine Fifteen Revue."

Dick Winslow as Tom

We have it on good authority that Dick Winslow, the young actor who is making a hit as Joe Harper in "Tom Sawyer," is likely to play the role of Tom Sawyer in "Huckleberry Finn," which Paramount is to produce, with Junior Durkin, now playing Huck Finn in "Tom Sawyer," as star.

DICK WINSLOW

Winslow belongs to a family of actors, so far as the children are concerned, all of whom have been in pictures all their lives. He is a musician as well as an actor.

The story goes that when young Winslow was being considered for the role of Joe Harper, the director said to him, "Can you read lines?" "Sure," spoke up Dick, "I can do anything," which so amused the director that he gave Dick the role.

Jackie Coogan, who plays the star part in "Tom Sawyer," has returned to school in the north, and, in any case, it is not likely that, having maintained his status as star during several years, his parents would permit him to play anything except star roles.

Universal Discovers Star

Of all the foreign players brought over here, only a few have starring potentialities in so far as English versions of pictures are concerned.

However, the companies are all on the lookout for such material, with the result that Universal is quite certain that organization has discovered a potential star in one of its German actresses. She is Olga Tschechova, who appeared as leading lady in the German version of "Command to Love," just completed.

Miss Tschechova is of Russian lineage, but has played in German pictures. She was brought over especially for the above-mentioned film, and she did so well, and also showed herself so well in command of English, that there is every chance, we learn, that she will become a Universal star, perhaps challenging the popularity of Greta Garbo and Marlene Dietrich.

The actress is leaving shortly for Europe, to appear first in a picture to be made in Berlin, and then in one to be made in Paris. After which she will return to Universal, according to present plans.

Other players, all of whom are said to have distinguished themselves, in the German "Command to Love," are Tola Birrell, Johannes Reemann and Hans Junkerman. The last named returns to Germany tomorrow to fulfill starring engagements.

R.-K.-O. Story Editor Leaves

Betty Roberts, Radio Pictures' story editor, will leave for New York tomorrow, where she will review current plays and read publishers' manuscripts in search of screen material. She will return to Hollywood shortly after the first of the year.

Schoedsack Returns

After a year spent on the equator in Sumatra, Ernest Schoedsack has returned to Hollywood with "Rango," his fourth epic of distant places, which he brought back sealed in ten carefully guarded film cans.

Schoedsack's only white associates during his year at the center of the world were his wife and Alfred Williams, Paramount cameraman. A Chinese and thirty Malay natives completed the expedition that braved the loneliness, heat and prowling animals of the jungle during a period of twelve months.

Mack Swain With Paramount

Mack Swain, comedy institution of Hollywood, has been signed by Paramount for the featured comedy role in "Finn and Hattie Abroad," adapted from Donald Ogden Stewart's classic.

The comedian will play the part of a Paris guide attentive to Hattie Haddock, nee Zasu Pitts.

Warning Given to Merchants

Warning to merchants to be on the lookout for a new bunko game was given yesterday. The suspect has been active recently in obtaining cash deposits on coupons to be distributed with advertising matter as chances on prizes of silverware, according to Captain of Detectives Hawtrey of the police bunko squad.

The man represents himself as an agent of the Rogers Tableware Distribution Company of Atlanta, Ga. No such company exists, Capt. Hawtrey says. Complaints have been received from George E. Mundant of 5518 South Normandie avenue, and M. E. Taylor of 4718 Santa Monica Boulevard, according to Hawtrey. The suspect is described as being about 40 years of age, 5ft. 10in. in height, of medium build and dressed in a shabby tan suit.

NEW HEIFETZ REVEALED TO LISTENERS

Maturity of Thought Adds to Fine Concert Played by Noted Violinist

BL ISABEL MORSE JONES

The Heifetz concert at the Auditorium last night revealed a new facet of a many-sided man. The new Heifetz has added a richer aspiration without losing one whit of the aristocratic grace and fairly glittering polish that he has displayed since his child prodigy days. Maturity of thought is having its inevitable effect in Heifetz's music-making.

With all the seriousness of his effort in the Sonata in C minor and the Scotch Fantasy of Max Bruch, the real climax came in the group of smaller and newer works by Debussy, Milhaud and Richard Strauss. Choosing the subtle "Afternoon of a Faun" for a violin arrangement may seem dangerous but the result was wholly admirable. As Heifetz played it with his silver tone and his effortless fingering, the evanescent, shimmering mood of sun-flecked woods was called forth, and the audience listened breathlessly for fear it might disturb trembling air.

"Sumare" by Darius Milhaud is a smart, sophisticated French conceit; hard, finished and alluring. "An Einsamer Quelle" by Richard Strauss wandered around in the fields of melody without really arriving, and why should it? The Heifetz tone and beauty of utterance justified it.

"Hora Staccato" might well have been named "Horrors! Jazz." The characteristic violin audience, aided by the many Hollywood players who were honoring the popular Florence Vidor's husband, rose to its greatest enthusiasm over this and, indeed, it was surpassingly clever. The jazz was sublimated with a lot of soft pedaling and barely perceptible time markings from the marvelously facile wrist of Mr. Heifetz, but it certainly had the primitive urge.

Korgold's "Marsch Der Wache" proved to be rather innocuous militarism and the encore to all this welcome modernism was a Schubert waltz arranged by Joseph Achron.

Ravel's Tzigane, also a new work to Los Angeles, was also a new Ravel. A melody strangely like a Hebrew chant was used in time-worn ways, not unlovely as Heifetz played it, but certainly not Hungarian.

The encores were generously given and before the lights went out he had played "On Wings of Song," arranged from Mendelssohn by Joseph Achron, brother of the fine accompanist, Isidor Achron, who has been with Heifetz for many tours. De Falla's "Jota" was also added to the list.

The Grieg sonata in C minor was admirably played by Mr. Achron and Mr. Heifetz, and the Bruch Fantasy which had not been heard here for years until Yehudi Menuhin revived it was well worth the unusual technical effort involved. Heifetz gave them both a warmth of emotion quite unlike his formerly aloof detachment.

He plays a magnificent Guarnerius violin which once belonged to Ferdinand David, the Leipzig master who first played the Mendelssohn concerto.

Mme. Rethberg Sings Tonight at Auditorium

BY I. M. J.

Elizabeth Rethberg, one of the great operatic sopranos of Europe and America, is singing at the Philharmonc Auditorium tonight a program slightly changed from the one announced last Sunday. As she is quite universally known as an opera star she has included three requested arias.

Rethberg has spent part of the summer in Switzerland at her home which borders one of the Italian lakes. She thrives on this out-of-door life which the Swiss lead, and returns to California, even after a strenuous season at Ravinia, blooming with health. Her western tour was threatened a few days ago with miraculous escape in an automobile accident at Stanford. Although the car in which she was riding did a complete pirouette, this calm, well-poised modern-minded opera singer only hugged her tiny little pocket pomeranian close and hoped he wouldn't be frightened.

Even with such mishaps Mme. Rethberg much prefers traveling in America rather than in Europe where the comparatively bad service, she points out, tires one in a day as much as a week of travel in this country. Going back to her husband in New York for the holidays, she will begin her new season at the Metropolitan in January. "Iris," the early Japanese opera by Puccini, will be a new role for her this year, and Respighi's "Sunken Bell," which is so popular in New York and one of the operas in which she has had a premiere role, will doubtless be repeated. In discussing this opera, she spoke of the delight of its composer, Respighi, over the sumptuous American presentation of the work and its enthusiastic welcome by audiences here in comparison with the lukewarm acceptance in Rome where new operas have much prejudice to overcome.

So far, Mme. Rethberg does not see any indication of a future for opera in pictures and thinks the most successful musical pictures are those which have kept away from operatic ideas. She does foresee an increasing interest in recordings of fine music and has a library of the best orchestral and chamber-music records for her own study and inspiration. In fact, her maid often awakens her in the morning by putting on Beethoven's Fifth Symphony with its fateful knock.

Elizabeth Alexander of San Francisco is for the second season Rethberg's accompanist. She is favorably known throughout California.

The new program for tonight is:

Aria of Sextus, from "Titus," Parto Parto	Mozart
By a Lonely Forest Pathway	Chas. Griffes
It Was a Lover and His Lass	Roger Quilter
Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal	Roger Quilter
Love's Philosophy	Roger Quilter
Ave Maria	Franz Schubert
Der Musensohn	Franz Schubert
Der Nussbaum	Robert Schumann
Standchen	Johannes Brahms
Marienlied	Joseph Marx
Und Gestern hat er mir Rosen gebracht	Joseph Marx
Jewel Song from "Faust"	Gounod
Aria from "Andrea Chenier"	Umberto Giordano

YOUTHFUL ACTRESS PLAYS IN COMEDY

Nancy Fair

With a Hollywood studio bungalow as its setting, "She Had to Marry," sophisticated farce, will have its first presentation on any stage tonight at the Vine-street Theater.

The comedy, written by Margaret Echard, will be enacted by Nancy Fair, Myrtis Crinley, Al Bridge, Eddie Featherston, Lord Chester, Gordon Demain and Prince Yucca Troubetzkoy. The story concerns a young painter who falsely reports her marriage to obtain a wedding gift and finds herself in the predicament of having to produce a husband on very short notice.

NEW FARCE SCHEDULED AT ORPHEUM

"Boudoir Diplomat" Will Start Saturday; Noted Cast to Enact Comedy

Saturday has been set as the opening day for "The Boudoir Diplomat," sophisticated farce of a blase gallant in the modern court of a mythical European kingdom. The featured roles are played by Ian Keith, Betty Compson, Mary Duncan and Jeanette Loff.

In the story of "The Boudoir Diplomat," Baron Valmi, dashing military officer, is celebrated for his success and easy saviorfaire in making love to the pretty members of the court's retinue, particularly the married ones. At the moment, he is secretly involved with the wife of an ambassador to whom he is under direct command, and the latter instructs him to make advances to the wife of another diplomat in an effort to learn important state secrets.

Valmi's advances are met with the customary reciprocation, but the first lover is intensely jealous and determines to compromise him. To further complicate matters, he falls desperately in love with an unsophisticated girl.

'Tol'able David' Due Thursday on R.-K.-O. Screen

Following "The Cat Creeps," featuring Helen Twelvetrees, Raymond Hackett and Lilyan Tashman, "Tol'able David," the new screen version of Joseph Hergesheimer's story, will start Thursday at the R.-K.-O. Theater.

Comparatively unknown before, it was his portrayal in the silent adaptation of "Tol'able David" that won recognized stardom for Richard Barthelmess. Previewers say that the talking picture undoubtedly will serve similarly to establish young Richard Cromwell, who has the name part in the new picture. He has never been seen before on stage or screen.

Joan Peers, last seen opposite Joe Cook in "Rain or Shine," has the feminine lead. Noah Beery plays the chief villain. Henry B. Walthall, character star, portrays the girl's father. Others in the cast are Barbara Bedford, Edmund Breese, George Duryea and Richard Carlyle. John Blystone directed for Columbia.

College Film Starts Friday at Warner's

"College Lovers," a campus comedy, comes to Warner Brothers Hollywood Theater Friday for one week. The picture is said to be different in theme and treatment, inasmuch as there is no last-minute touchdown in the big game, and the hero doesn't marry the girl.

The cast includes Marian Nixon, Jack Whiting, Guinn Williams, Frank McHugh, Richard Tucker and Phyllis Crane. The story is by Earl Baldwin.

The climax comes with a football game. This game was technically directed by Russ Saunders, former all-American player. John Adolphi directed the First National production.

"The Doorway to Hell" closes Thursday.

Athletic Group Plans to Attend Chinese Theater

The Pacific Coast athletic conference, now in session in Los Angeles, will be entertained at the Chinese Theater tonight, where "Morocco" is on view.

The group comprises coaches and delegates of all of the major Pacific Coast universities. Among the most noted who will attend tonight's performance are Howard Jones, U.S.C.; "Pop" Warner, Stanford; "Babe" Hollingbery, Washington State; Bill Spaulding, U.C.L.A.; James Phelan, University of Washington; "Slip" Madigan, St. Mary's; Leo Calland, Idaho; Paul Schissler, Oregon State; Dr. Clarence Spears, Oregon, and Arnold Eddy, graduate manager of U.S.C.

"LINCOLN" WILL START RUN FRIDAY

United Artists Theater Will Present Griffith's Film Masterpiece

"Lincoln," David W. Griffith's first talking picture, will start a run at the United Artists' Theater Friday. This much-discussed production follows the current attraction, "The Lottery Bride."

"Lincoln" is said to be a picture that will become as famous as Griffith's great silent epic, "The Birth of a Nation." The production has as its theme, the tumultuous time that revolved around the colossal figure of Lincoln—days heralding with great events and hours freighted with titanic emotions.

As Griffith reveals him, Lincoln is seen not as a character from a child's history book, but the Lincoln of flesh and blood, human, jesting, loving, thinking and fighting.

In this role of the great emancipator is Walter Huston. He is said to give his greatest performance, one that long will be remembered. Others in this great cast are Una Merkel, Lucille La Verne, Kay Hammond, Helen Ware, E. Alyn Warren, Jason Robards, Ian Keith, Fred Warren, Oscar Apfel, Hobart Bosworth and Henry B. Walthall.

Chicago Opera Company Slated to Appear Here

Several operas which have not been heard here in several seasons will be offered by the Chicago Civic Opera Company at the Shrine Auditorium, starting February 23. The engagement is for a week only, according to L. E. Behymer, sponsor of the event.

"Der Rosenkavalier" will be given with a cast which includes Frida Leider, Maria Olszewska, Alexander Kipnis, Robert Ringling, Oscar Colcaire and others of the Chicago company. Leider will appear as the Princess and Kipnis as Baron Ochs.

Leider will also appear in "Die Walkuere." Others will be Emma Reddell, Coe Glade, Sonia Sharnova, Theodore Strack and Chase Baromeo.

"Aida" will have Claudia Muzio in the title role. The principal roles of "La Traviata" will be sung by Claudia Muzio, Tito Schipa and John Charles Thomas. It is quite probable that the repertoire will include also "Rigoletto," with John Charles Thomas and Margherita Salvi.

"NIGHT LIFE" AT FOLLIES

"Night Life" holds the stage at the Follies Theater this week, with a program of dancing, song and humor. Verne, Mary Sunde and Leona White, featured soubrettes, present several dances of sensational character. Eddie Collins and George Clark, principal comedians, please with snappy humor and dialogue, and Valda Parsons, Bob Stanley and Charlie Breedlove are prominently present. The chorus of forty girls dance and sing and contribute to the enjoyment. Each number in the show is worthy of mention.

Sales Gain on 1929 Scored by Van de Kamps

Favorable Earnings Report Expected for Year

Company's Expansion Plans Making Progress

Having aggressively carried out expansion plans made early in the year, Van de Kamp's Holland Dutch Bakers, Inc., has increased its sales for the year to date by $350,000 compared with the same period last year, Lawrence Frank, president announced yesterday.

Earnings this year are expected to compare favorably with 1929, but this will depend largely on the Christmas trade which has always formed a considerable portion of the year's business, Mr. Frank stated.

The management of Van de Kamp's is optimistic regarding the Christmas business and has prepared for the largest seasonal volume in the history of the company. National distribution during the Christmas season of fruit cake and plum puddings is a recent development of the company which accounts in no small measure for the seasonal increase in business. This year plans have been made for a substantially wider distribution of these products and agents have been appointed to handle them in practically every State of the Union.

The company is now engaged in a major building program the cost of which when completed will exceed $500,000. During the current year sixteen additional stores have been opened in Los Angeles and environs bringing the total number to ninety in addition to twenty-one stores in Seattle. Portland, Or., was also invaded by Van de Kamp's this year and a small plant is expected to be built there next year to facilitate an extensive development of that territory.

What is reputed to be the last word in manufacturing efficiency in the baking industry is a plant now in the course of construction at San Fernando Road and Fletcher Drive. This factory, which is expected to be opened in May, will more than double present manufacturing capacity, Mr. Frank stated, and result in substantial savings through a reduction of manufacturing costs.

"Business of the company is in excellent condition, and the company is making very good progress in every direction," Mr. Frank said. "In addition to the Los Angeles territory new business has been developed in Orange and Riverside counties which to date has exceeded expectations. Operations in the Seattle area are most gratifying at this time and it is expected all units there will be on a profitable basis throughout 1931."

Net Operating Profit of Bell Telephone Down

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—American Telephone and Telegraph Company reported to the Interstate Commerce Commission today October net operating income of $2,821,246 against $3,484,464 in October, 1929, a decrease of $663,218 or 19 per cent. Gross revenues declined $270,907 or 2.7 per cent to $9,803,118.

While gross revenues for the first ten months this year aggregated $95,868,329, an increase of $3,350,413 or 3.6 per cent over the same period last year, net operating income for the period declined $5,404,247 or more than 16 per cent to $27,747,353.

Drawing comparisons with corresponding periods of 1928 the report shows that gross revenues for October and the ten months this year were higher than two years ago while the net operating income for both the periods under review was lower.

CHAINS WIN NEW FAVOR

Merchandising Stocks Looked Upon Desirably Again by Long Pull Investment Buyers

BY EARLE E. CROWE

At one time the leaders of the late bull market, the chain-store shares are again winning favor among the investors with the long-pull idea in mind. The chain stores have taken the jolt of deflation manfully, most of them have put their houses in order, and as a group should be among the first to reflect business improvement.

Understanding the chain-store position at this time seems to have stimulated considerable accumulation of these stocks recently. Several competent authorities have spoken of them favorably to clients, and now one of the large investment houses specializing in chain shares has seized this point in the cycle to organize an investment trust exclusively holding chain-store stocks.

SALES IMPROVE

Sales reports of leading chains are beginning to note improvement in various lines. It is too early yet to decide if the scattered increases forecast a general upturn in retail buying, but it is true that many of the largest chains have been able, through good management and aggressive sales promotion, to record increases for the first even months of the year.

The chains took the jolt of deflation in commodity prices by writing down inventories to market in accordance with good accounting practice. These losses, coupled with the decline in sales in reflection of the business depression, exacted a heavy toll from earnings which have been fully disclosed in quarterly statements.

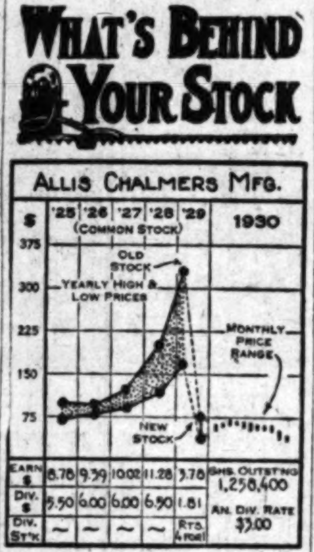
Deflation in commodity prices, however, is not a one-sided proposition. It now looks as if the commodity decline is at an end, giving the chain stores the opportunity to reaccumulate inventories of food products, etc., and bottom or close to bottom prices. This is the point in the business cycle where the principle of mass buying swings into its full power.

BUY CHEAPLY

Manufacturers are especially anxious at this time to sell goods, and it is only natural that large chains like Safeway, Woolworth, Walgreen and others, each commanding large purchasing power, are pressed with tenders of goods at bargain prices. The chains can almost name their own tickets under the circumstances, and they should realize substantial profits in inventory alone when retail prices start to pick up.

Chain stores, because of their large outlets for distribution, never remain tied up with inventories for any length of time. Inventory is turned over five to six times a year in many of the largest companies, Sears, Roebuck & Co., for example, reporting an annual turnover of six times, Montgomery Ward 4.2 times and J. C. Penney Company five times.

Deflation has also given the chains the chance to consolidate operations more efficiently after the expansion activities in the last few years. Unprofitable units have been eliminated and merchandising practices better co-ordinated.



Allis Chalmers is one of the largest manufacturers of heavy machinery and electrical equipment in the world, including in its diversified production motors, turbines, milling and mining machinery, centrifugal pumps, condensers, engines, generators and a line of farm, highway and industrial tractors. Acquisition of the La Crosse Plow Company last year adds a complete line of agricultural implements to the company's farm tractor division.

Curtailment of demand for tractors in recent months probably accounts for the decrease shown in earnings for the nine months' period ending September 30, 1930, when results were reported at $2.41 per share, as against $2.96 last year. The maintenance of a sizable electrical equipment business, exceeded only by that of the General Electric and Westinghouse organizations, should do much to offset the adverse current outlook for the tractor division.

SAN DIEGO UTILITY PLANS NOTE ISSUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric Company today applied to the California State Railroad Commission for authority to sell $1,500,000 of one-year 4 per cent notes dated December 1, next. The proceeds will be used to refund outstanding promissory notes amounting to $800,000 and to reimburse the treasury.

Transamerica Votes Regular Cash Dividend

Meeting in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, directors of the Transamerica Corporation declared the regular cash dividend of 25 cents a share, payable January 25 to stock of record January 5.

Distribution of the dividend payments to stockholders will total more than $6,000,000, according to the announcement, more than 200,000 stockholders located in every State of the Union and in more than twenty foreign countries receiving the quarterly checks.

"I am glad to be able to say," Elisha Walker, chairman of Transamerica stated, "that the earnings of our subsidiaries, apart from profits on securities, have held up admirably notwithstanding the current depression. As our regular dividend policy is based on such earnings and as such earnings should increase rather than decrease, I look to the future of our corporation with great confidence.

"This disbursement, coming in what we trust are the latter stages of the recently prevailing industrial depression—and considered in connection with similar actions by other corporations—should not be without effect on general conditions. The outlook for the enterprises behind this distribution, as we approach the close of the year, is definitely encouraging."

Business Steady for Mills Alloys

While accumulated dividends on the preferred stock of Mills Alloys, Inc., amounted to $1.50 a share on October 1, last, stock of the company sold on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday at $1.75 a share.

Officials of the company stated that plant operations are going on as usual with no reduction of the pay roll and that accumulated dividends will be met in the course of time. Resources of the company are being used to tide over established customers affected by the general depression, it was stated. No decision has as yet been handed down on the suit, brought by the company against competitors, which alleges patent infringement.

Nine Months' Total Equals $2.05 Per Share

Year Dividend Disbursement $1.70 Per Share

Petroleum Rectifying Corporation and subsidiaries for the nine months ended September 30, last, showed net earnings after depreciation and reserves, including provision for Federal income taxes of $246,901, equal to $2.05 a share on the 120,000 shares of outstanding stock as compared with $285,739, or $2.37 a share in the corresponding period last year, according to a statement issued yesterday by D. C. Norcross, president of the company.

The corporation has maintained its regular quarterly dividend of 35 cents a share and in the last two quarters paid extras of 15 cents each, bringing the total disbursement for 1930 to $1.70 a share.

Stockholders of Petroleum Rectifying Corporation will receive one share of stock of the new company for each share of their present holdings. Byron Jackson Company holds one-half interest in the Petroleum Rectifying Corporation.

Through the merger of the two rectifying concerns, the two outstanding dehydration processes used for the extraction of water from crude oil, namely, the Tret-O-Lite or chemical process owned by the St. Louis company, and the Potreco or electric process controlled by the Los Angeles concern will be brought under the control of one organization which will represent a $7,500,000 concern.

Under the plan, all property, business and good will of the present Illinois company will be transferred to a new company, to be capitalized at 1,000,000 shares of $25 par value 6 per cent cumulative participating preferred stock and 1,500,000 shares of no par common.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—Cotton was lower today under liquidation or reselling by recent buyers which appeared to be promoted in the first instance by relatively easy Liverpool cables and later by the failure of the slight reduction in the official crop estimate to bring in general or aggressive buying. Fluctuations following the government crop report of 14,243,000 bales were rather nervous and irregular, but the market later weakened under renewed liquidation and some southern selling. At 2 o'clock March was selling around 10.35, with the general list showing net losses of 13 to 18 points.

SHORT-TIME MONEY CHEAP

New Treasury Issues Bearing Less Than 2 Per Cent Expected to Be Greatly Oversubscribed

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—While Secretary Mellon has announced the rates of 1⅝ and 1⅞ per cent for the new $400,000,000 United States Treasury certificates to be used for refunding operations shortly, it should be noted that the two issues are both short-time ones—one for six months and the other for twelve months.

The Secretary apparently believes, with many others, that the time to put money out for long-time interest has not yet arrived. Undoubtedly, both these issues of Treasury certificates will be greatly oversubscribed, in spite of the fact that the new interest rates, under 2 per cent, compare with a high of 5 1-8 per cent paid by the government in June, 1928, and a rate of 2 3-8 per cent in September of this year for one-year certificates.

Short-time money is still cheap and plentiful—on good security. But long-time money is a horse of another color.

P. P. Sartori, the Iowa-born president of the Security-First National Bank of Los Angeles, thinks that it is only natural that buyers should hesitate to "commit themselves" when commodity prices are declining.

"You are doubtless quite familiar with the general theory that we may anticipate a long series of years of declining commodity prices due to the gold situation," says Mr. Sartori. "This, however, has perhaps little influence upon the present disinclination to buy in the face of falling prices because of the belief that the present decline in prices is a temporary one, due to special causes. When these temporary causes are removed, prices will be stabilized and perhaps recover somewhat. I have no suggestion as to how to correct this situation. Our experience in the past shows us that after a time prices cease to fall, business picks up and the recovery begins, but I do not believe any of us quite understand the casual relationships of these processes."

On the problem of unemployment, this well-known western banker says:

"To relieve unemployment as far as possible, I think that all governmental agencies should press forward with public works and that private enterprises, particularly the railroads and the utilities, should spend for permanent improvements as much as they may soundly do so. This, however, will take up only a small fraction of the unemployed.

"In so far as it can be done, the employment of all labor on a rotating part-time schedule, would, to that extent, help unemployment, but it would not help the general business situation, as the total wages would not be greater. I wonder if the tariff and higher wages resulting in higher prices for goods may not be having a decided influence on the present situation?"

Upon the mooted question of wages, Mr. Sartori says: "I do not believe that wages can be held indefinitely at their present levels, while prices continue to decline. It seems to me that employers, who retain their staffs at part-time on the same wage scale, have been cutting wages already."

No question about that!

Shotgun Unit Acquired by Savage Arms

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Savage Arms Corporation has acquired Crescent Firearms Company of Norwich, Ct., manufacturer of shotguns in the medium price field, and is to assume possession January 1, next. It is understood that Savage Arms Corporation will make a part, if not the entire, payment in common stock.

From Savage's point of view, the hunting season was not as satisfactory as had been predicted and it is problematical whether dividend requirements of $2 on the common will be covered. For the nine months ended September 30, last, the company earned $235,944 or $1.35 a common share against $605,820 or $3.40 a share on 174,948 common shares in the corresponding period of 1929 on stock then outstanding.

In the first half of 1930, the company showed a loss of $52,622. The third and fourth quarters of the year are normally the company's best but results for the current period cannot be determined accurately until after inventory is taken.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—Domestic bond prices tumbled today, in sympathy with the share market.

Average declines were the largest in several weeks, and selling pressure extended to a broad field of issues. Carrier obligations were offered in large volume at marked concessions from Saturday's closing prices, and they led a long list of corporate bonds into new low ground for the year.

Many high-grade bonds that have been little affected by the pressure against second grade obligations joined the decline, and in a few instances losses of gilt edged issues amounted to a point and elsewhere ranged as wide as 6 points.

In the foreign bonds the price movement was irregular. In United States governments firmness prevailed only in Treasury issues. Liberties were a little better, but did not duplicate the high levels of the year, and short term Treasury issues were quiet.

Announcement by the Treasury of a $400,000,000 financing program for the final quarter at an interest rate less than 2 per cent—the lowest in a decade or more—was received in bond circles as reflecting a belief by the Treasury the easy tone of the money market will continue for some time.

Some losses were registered by industrial bonds.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES PROPERTY

APPRAISED AT OVER 18 TIMES THE AMOUNT OF THE LIEN

CONSERVATIVE private investors, banks and institutions seeking a high degree of security, convenience and complete tax-exemption, will find here an investment ideally suited to their strict requirements. Yet despite the exceptional margin of security, the rate of return is as great or greater than offered by most taxable bonds of comparable strength.

Downtown Security

These Municipal Improvement Bonds are issued by the City of Los Angeles to pay for land acquired for the opening of Wilshire Boulevard from Figueroa Street to Grand Avenue. The District extends from Olive on the east to Figueroa Street on the west and from a half block north of Sixth Street to a half block south of Seventh Street. The District comprises the heart of the finest retail and financial area in Los Angeles; and bonds are secured by some of the most valuable properties in the City.

Direct Liens

These bonds are direct liens on real estate ranking prior to all mortgages, mechanics' liens, judgments, etc. As each bond is a lien on a specific piece of property, the amount of the security can be accurately determined. There are many single mortgages or first mortgage bond issues within the District that are in excess of this total issue.

A conservative appraisal of the property directly securing the issue is as follows:

Land Only	$7,849,000.00
Improvements . . .	2,500,000.00
This Issue	429,549.26

Dependable Income

Since improvement bonds rank ahead of all mortgages, judgments, etc., the annual payment of principal and interest thereon is naturally the first obligation which every property owner must meet. This obligation—like general taxes—cannot be easily postponed or let run since the law provides serious penalties for delinquencies which jeopardize immediately the ownership rights of the property. Prompt payment of principal and interest is, therefore, least affected by fluctuating business conditions or corporate earnings.

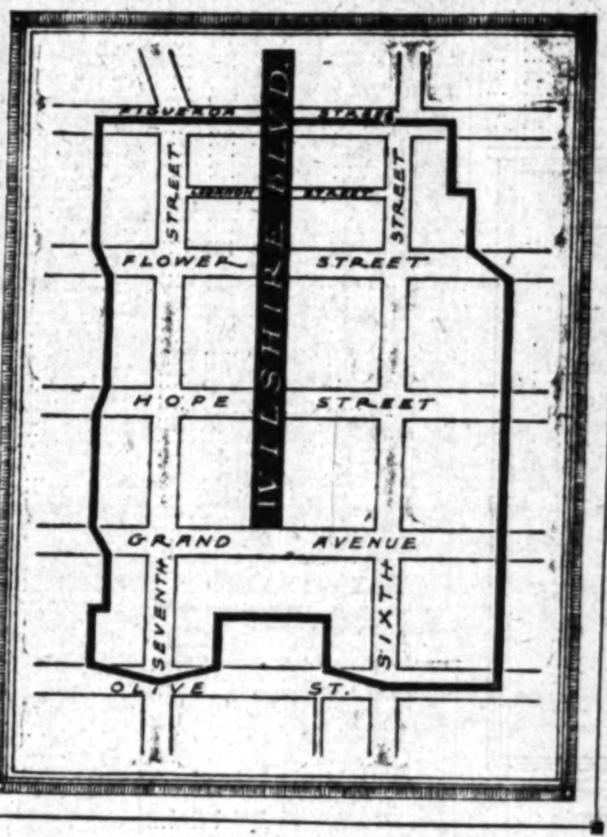
MUNICIPAL IMPROVEMENT BONDS

In the form of 5½% Ownership Certificates
Series 35

Dated Dec. 1, 1930 Denominations $500 and $1000
Due serially Aug. 1, 1931 to 1960
Annual interest coupon August 1st
BANK OF AMERICA N. T. S. A., Los Angeles, Trustee



Ownership Certificates

In order to provide the convenience of $1000 and $500 denominations and serial maturities, these bonds are offered in the form of Municipal Bond Company Ownership Certificates. These Certificates certify to the holder actual proportionate ownership of an equal amount of bonds of this issue deposited with the Bank of America N. T. S. A., Los Angeles, as Trustee.

No Substitutions

Under the trust no changes nor substitutions of deposited bonds may be made, therefore these Certificates always represent the ownership of bonds of the above described issue.

Complete Tax-Exemption

Many investors overlook the importance of complete tax-emption from all Federal Income Taxes, including the surtax, and California Personal Property Taxes. In computing the actual return from taxable bonds, you must deduct Federal and State taxes from your coupon rate. It is always well to remember that both State and Federal taxes are subject to increases resulting in a corresponding reduction in your actual income.

High Yield

These Certificates yield 5½% per annum (5% for 1931 maturity) completely tax free in opinion of counsel. The yield is materially higher than that offered by most tax-free municipal and school bonds, and is as great or greater than that of many first mortgage bonds which are liens on property ranking junior to improvement bonds and are subject to all Federal taxes.

Highest Sponsorship

The Municipal Bond Company, with its direct predecessor, is the oldest exclusive municipal improvement bond house in California. Its paid-up capital and surplus are in excess of $2,100,000. Its officers and directors are composed of leading business men and bankers whose reputation for integrity and good judgment has been established over a period of many years in this community. LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Stock Prices Continue to Drift Lower to Uncover New Record Bottom Levels

Several new minimum prices were hung up on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange as the week's trading was resumed yesterday. While losses were again held within fractional limits recessions were general and served to force the index of thirty common stocks to another new bottom at 49.8. The averages have a 100-base representing January 1928 prices.

Transamerica was sold extensively and dropped into new low territory along with Standard Oil of California, Union Oil, Union Associates, Pacific Western Oil, California Bank, Pacific American Fire Insurance and Los Angeles Investment Company. The Transamerica stock, on a turnover of 7300 shares, yielded 5-8 to 14 3-8 and finished at 14½.

Standard Oil of California closed at the new low of 48½, off 3-8 net, and Union Oil lost a similar amount to 24 5-8. Union Associates dipped ½ to 23½ and Pacific Western Oil, 1-4 to 9, ending later at 9 1-8. Richfield slipped 3-8 to 7 and the preferred ½ to 11. Rio Grande was not traded. Shell reacted 1-4 to 8 1-4. Bolsa Chica, however, advanced 3-4 to 12 1-4 and Macmillan, 1-8 to 5 1-8.

California Bank, on the transfer of 200 shares, dropped 2 points to 87. Security-First National was particularly active and firmed up ½ to 91 1-4. Pacific American Fire Insurance eased 3-4 to 28⅛ and Pacific Finance, while trading rapidly, remained unchanged at 15. Los Angeles Investment slipped 1-4 to 12.

Pacific Gas and Electric fell off 2 points to 46 7-8 and Pacific Public Service, 1 1-4 points to 22, while Edison held firm to 46 1-4.

Sales totaled 21,979 shares, valued at $580,429; previous day, 12,277 shares, valued at $326,335.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—Daily Steel today says reduction of $14 per ton in the carload price of ferromanganese to $85 for the entire year 1931, announced by one of the leading sellers, commanded major attention in iron and steel markets today. Ferromanganese is now quoted at lowest level since 1922 and, in fact, the new quotation is the lowest c.i.f. price quoted since 1924. Other ferro alloys are quoted unchanged for 1931 at the same levels as prevailed during the past year. In general the steel market is quiet.

Brisk Rally in Corn Futures Marks Trading

CHICAGO, Dec. 8. (AP)—Surprised that the corn visible supply should exhibit but 11,000 bushels increase for the week, led to a brisk late upturn today. The smallness of increase was in sharp contrast with the fact recent receipts here and at other primary markets had been much enlarged. Aggressive buying also was promoted by knowledge the Farmers' National Grain Corporation, a government-sponsored agency, had purchased corn future deliveries.

Corn closed firm at nearly the day's top level, ¼@1 cent a bushel higher than Saturday. Wheat closed irregular, ⅛ off to ⅜ cent up, oats at ⅛ decline to ½ cent advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 12 cents.

In the rush of speculative buying, just before the close, corn jumped about 2 cents a bushel.

Buying orders for old crop deliveries of wheat came from Farm Board allies whenever needed to keep the wheat market tied to a post. July delivery of wheat here, representing the 1931 domestic crop, was at times depressed by lack of buying support and temporarily touched a new low price record for the season. Oats were chiefly responsive to corn.

Provisions followed an advance of the hog market.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—All interests were in need of cattle for slaughter and the week opened with an active market. Prices on steers were strong to fully 25c higher, while other classes held fully steady. Stockers and feeders were less plentiful in the fresh receipts and sales noted were little changed.

Two loads of 1003 to 1191-pound Colorado steers brought 9.25 and 9.50, with bulk of the medium to good steers averaging up to 1182 pounds going at 8.50@9.00, these largely from intermountain and Montana points. Arizona steers on the Mexican order brought 7.60@8.10, with scattered lots and low-grade steers down to 6.00. A load of 1000-pound intermountain steers went to a feeder at 7.75 with small lots down to 6.50.

Medium to good heifers mostly in part loads were taken at 6.50@7.50, with plainer kinds at 6.15 and below. Good cows in load lots brought 6.00@6.50, with fleshy dairy type cows up to the inside figure. Bulk of common to medium cows scored 4.50@5.75, with low cutters and cutters at 2.50@4.25, sales under 3.00, however, being limited. A few feeder cows sold up to 4.50. A strictly good bull brought 6.10 with bulk of medium to good kinds at 4.50@6.00.

CALVES — Native milk vealers were scarce and in good demand at fully steady prices. Medium to choice kinds in small lots made 9.50@13.00 with one or two head of outstanding quality up to 14.50. Low qualitied vealers sold down to 6.00. Southwestern calves were slow to move, but sales were eventually made on about a steady basis. A few light weight Arizonas went to killers at 8.25@8.50 with a load at 8.00. A load of stock calves brought 8.00 and one load was unsold.

HOGS—Receipts included four loads that were on direct billing. Trade was active at steady prices with nine salable loads selling by 9 o'clock. Six loads of eastern butchers averaging up to 203 pounds topped at 9.85 with two loads of 186 to 194-pound Idahos at 9.75. A load of 181-pound local fed hogs brought 9.40. A few packing sows brought 7.50@8.00 with a heavy stag at 6.00.

SHEEP—The sheep trade was of short duration at generally steady rates. A short double deck of fairly good 82-pound Utah lambs topped 7.50 with choice kinds quoted to 8.00. A package of 79-pound averages brought 7.00 and a double deck of 70-pound Utah feeder lambs made 6.00. A few 100-pound yearlings were taken out at 5.00. A double deck of good 134-pound ewes brought 4.00 straight.

We've stood hard times!

WE DEAL IN A BASIC COMMODITY . . because men and women can't get along without shelter . . and we make loans that call for less than rental payment in amortization . . so hard times don't cause any mental panic . . to the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA.

Our experience has been personal and not out of books or classes in economics, though we have two Yale men who know their Hadley and Fisher as an unimportant background to their ACTUAL experience in the building-loan business. This is 37½ years of building-loan experience that is talking, please.

WE'VE PASSED THROUGH WARS . . stock-market panics . . drouths and epidemics of hoof and mouth disease . . with no falter or loss in the payment of 6% safely . . to the neighbors and friends . . who trust the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA.

It is no light matter to carry the load of UNLIMITED LIABILITY back of $3,400,000 paid-in capital, surplus and reserve, to the stockholders, officers and directors of tight-fisted, cautious characteristics in a small community. So we are economical and conservative.

If you have no false pride of big-town complexity we'd be glad to have you look us UP on the 10th floor of the I. N. Van Nuys Bldg., in Los Angeles, where we can also show you that we KNOW this business of paying you 6% with safety, and $15,500,000 resources.

NEW ENERGY! Yours when intestines are restored to Throw Those PILLS Away!

Here's a food that will really bring you health . . . An addition to your diet that gives permanent relief PILLS, PILLS, PILLS! One tonight. Another tomorrow. Skip a day . . . and take two. Dosing . . . dosing . . . dosing! Soon it is a fixed habit that you cannot shake.

You don't have to go to a doctor to realize that you can't find health that way!

And yet hundreds of thousands today are struggling under a like burden of half-health. They are not ill . . . yet neither are they well.

And it's so easy for them to be really well! If people would only face the facts! Only listen!

For instance . . .

Medical science has traced 90% of common ills to the intestinal tract and stomach. Here, where the body receives its daily fuel, waste matter is allowed to collect. Unbalanced diet upsets the delicate functioning of vital organs. The alimentary canal becomes clogged. Intestinal muscles grow weak.

Soon your body is flooded with poisons, generated by putrefying waste matter. Skins grow sallow. Appetites disappear. Colds multiply. Headaches. Irregular habits.

Fortunately, there is a way out . . . a simple way. For 75 years doctors have known the beneficial effects of yeast. Today they are recommending it more often than ever before.

Used regularly, yeast attacks accumulated waste material within the intestines. Softens it. Stimulates the normal action of the intestines that will carry it away.

Appetite returns . . . because digestion has been improved. Skins clear . . . because poison-breeding materials have been eliminated. Vigor and energy come from treatment which not only regulates but provides elements missing in the of many of us—vitamins B and G
"sunshine" vitamin D.

And all as a result, not of drugs simple food which you eat like any

So throw away the pills! Clear room shelf! Instead, place a with your grocer for three cakes of mann's Yeast daily. Eat it regularly, day, before or between meals, directions on the label. You can mann's Yeast at grocers', fountains. For your health's sake, fresh yeast and stick to it

Not a "Cure-all"..Fleischmann's Yeast is a health food thousands eat

STATE MATCHES COUNTY'S BEACH

Public to Get 6844 Feet Under Agreement

California Bond Issue to Be Used in Acquisition

Legislature Will Be Asked for Maintenance Fund

One of the longest public beaches on the West Coast, 6844 feet, was assured the citizens of Los Angeles county yesterday when the Board of Supervisors voted to donate 1100 feet of county-owned frontage, valued at $1,000,000, located at the mouth of Santa Monica Canyon, to match a like amount to be spent for 3333 feet by the State Park Commission.

In addition, the county, by the agreement, is privileged to lease 2411 feet more of the frontage for three years by merely paying taxes on it. All told, 6844 feet of beach is acquired for public use, which will be under State control.

DOLLARS MATCHED

The purchase of the 3333 feet for [illegible] by the Park Commission is made under the $6,000,000 bond issue recently voted, the money to be used for acquiring property for recreational purposes providing each dollar expended is matched by localities wherein the money is spent. Following short addresses made yesterday to the board by H. W. [illegible], a member of the State Park Commission, and A. J. Hill, attorney representing R. C. Gillis, the owner of the property to be bought by the State, the Supervisors, on motion of Supervisor Quinn, seconded by Supervisor Shaw, ordered the execution of the necessary documents and the placing of them in escrow until such a time as the State has purchased its share of the frontage to consummate the deal. It is expected that this will be done within the next ninety days.

TERMS OF PACT

Under the agreement the county will donate its 1100 feet of beach frontage at Santa Monica Canyon. It has been appraised at $1,000,000. To match this the State will buy 1100 feet, also appraised at $1,000,-000, from R. C. Gillis. The frontage extends on north from that owned by the county. This makes 4433 feet.

The proposition further provides that the county is permitted to lease 2411 feet more of the Gillis property, the rental for it to be the amount of taxes. The life of the lease is three years.

Under the terms of the lease the county will be permitted to purchase the 2411 feet any time within the three years at $300 per foot, $723,-

OTHER PROVISOS

Or the county may wait until the end of the three years, then buy 333 of the 2411 feet at $300 a foot and release the remainder for one year. Under this arrangement the county would purchase 333 feet a year until the entire 2411 feet had been bought, always taking a lease for one year on the balance.

All told the public will have, including the county's donation of 1100 feet, its leasing of 2411 feet and the State's purchase of 3333 feet a total of 6844 feet of beach frontage.

It was pointed out to Commissioner O'Melveny and Attorney Hill that when the voters authorized the bond issue for park purposes no provision was made for maintenance of recreational centers [illegible].

[illegible] a budget prepared now [illegible] be presented to the next [illegible] to meet this emergency [illegible] declared. Therefore, [illegible] of the new beach [illegible] which will be entirely under State control, will be taken care of by the State.

WILL SPEND MORE

[illegible] also told the [illegible] that it is the desire to [illegible] half of the bond issue [illegible] half of the State and [illegible] half of it in the northern [illegible].

"[illegible] you have beaches to [illegible] the public. Up to the [illegible] nothing has been spent [illegible] bond issue for beaches," he [illegible] will make more than a [illegible] public beach which cannot [illegible] off by private interests."

O'Melveny and Attorney Hill [illegible] they have the assurance [illegible] State Highway Commission [illegible] the State will build groins [illegible] beach frontage, not only [illegible] the new Roosevelt Highway [illegible] to make more beach, which [illegible] in some places is 200 feet [illegible]

[illegible] PLAN ADOPTED

[illegible] general ordinance calling for [illegible] laying out, opening and extending of Talofa avenue north [illegible] Drive was adopted [illegible] by the City Council.

ACTRESS ENGAGED TO ARTISTS' AGENT

Rita Le Roy

Rita Le Roy, motion-picture actress, yesterday announced her engagement to Ben Hershfield, artists' representative in Hollywood and a member of the City Humane Commission. She stated they do not plan on being married until next November, when Hershfield's divorce becomes final.

The first inkling of the romance came when Miss Le Roy, a player at the Radio Pictures' studio, started wearing a diamond engagement ring. At first she declined to name her fiance, but yesterday decided to tell.

Hershfield was granted a divorce and custody of his daughter in Superior Court last month.

SAN GABRIEL THEATER AID CONSIDERED

Supervisors Refer Plea for Mission Play Funds to Finance Committee

After hearing an appeal from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce for county aid to insure the holding of the Mission Play this winter, the Board of Supervisors late yesterday referred the request to its finance committee, composed of Supervisors Wright, Thatcher and Quinn.

The request came to the board in a communication signed by John Austin, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, who pointed out that if the play is to be given in 1931 it will be necessary to raise a subscription of not less than $15,000. Of this sum $5000 has been raised by private subscription, including one from the Chamber of Commerce. The board is asked to underwrite the balance of $10,000.

According to Austin the Mission Play has never been a financial success. From year to year the directors of it have been compelled to raise money outside to keep it going. He further states that if there is no community effort this year the performance is likely to be canceled.

The Mission Play was founded to perpetuate the spirit of the padres in the early days in California and has been a valuable asset because of its historical interest and its appeal to visitors and tourists who come to Los Angeles county.

Seal Campaign Finances Fight

Dr. R. L. Cunningham, president of the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association, now conducting its annual Christmas Seal campaign, yesterday urged all residents of the city who have received Christmas Seals from the association to purchase them in amounts of $1 or $2 and to remit at once.

Dr. Cunningham said, "The annual battle to stamp out tuberculosis is now on. It is a battle of money and education against the dread disease, tuberculosis, and the sale of Christmas Seals supplies the ammunition to carry on the fight.

"Tuberculosis will be displaced as one of the leading causes of death if national education can be maintained to combat growth. When you buy a seal you are fighting against the white plague."

SESSION HEARS MEXICO PRAISED

Cultural Advancement Told at Riverside Meeting

Hope of China Expressed in Paper by Chang

America Free From War for Years, Another Says

BY CHESTER G. HANSON
"Times" Staff Representative

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 8.—If we will seek to learn a little something about the cultural side of the Mexicans we will be more apt to understand them and get along much better with them, Prof. James Hoffman Batten of Pomona College told an audience at the Institute of International Relations here tonight. The subject of his address was: "Our Cultural Relations With Mexico."

"One of the surprising things in modern Mexico," he told his audience," is the fact that through all the periods of strife and revolution a group of devoted men and women has kept burning the golden lamp of culture. We are just beginning to realize the marvelous treasure hidden in the old libraries of Mexico City and Guadalajara. The walls of Mexico's art galleries and cathedrals are hung with masterpieces of past centuries.

IN CREATIVE AGE

"Mexico is living in a creative age. Out of the smoke of this internal strife and human tragedy a new and tremendous cultural reality is finding expression in an autonomous art and an entirely new system of educational culture. It is perhaps comparable to the awakening of the Italian cities at the close of the Middle Ages. Every child born from the anonymous mass of Mexican Indian life brings into the world with him an alertness to beauty and an aptitude for artistry, which, given an opportunity for expression, will enrich our entire American civilization."

Prof. Batten believes that the system of exchange students between Mexico and the United States as practiced at Pomona should be adopted by all universities in the Southwest, particularly in California, which, because of its location, will undoubtedly be the focal point of Mexican commercial and cultural relations with this country.

Another speaker of the evening, Prof. Frank M. Russell of the University of California, in a paper on "Post-War Tendencies in International Co-operation," declared that the will to peace is not enough to avoid war. "Man must build up the institutions of peace, the machinery for settlement of difficulties, before the will to peace can be made effective," he said. "And nations must pay a certain price for peace. They must be willing to agree to use these institutions even though decisions may not always be what they would like."

CHINA HOPES TOLD

Henry K. Chang, Consul-General of China, at San Francisco, was unable to be present tonight as planned, and his paper on conditions in China was read by Dr. Henry F. Grady, dean of the college of commerce of the University of California, and director of the institute. Mr. Chang expressed the belief that "Certain destructive forces have been brought under control in China, and the government and the people now can look forward with confidence to a time in the very near future when the entire nation can set itself to the task of consolidation and reconstruction."

Consuls of the foreign countries and their wives were guests of honor at a dinner given at the Mission Inn by Chancellor Von KleinSmid and officers of the institute. Those who attended included consuls for Argentina, Chile, Czecho-Slovakia, Denmark, Japan, Netherlands, Mexico, Peru and Switzerland.

WARS FAR AHEAD

During a talk at the afternoon conference of the Institute Dr. Gustav A. Werner of the College of the Pacific observed that "we have not had an international war on the American continent in fifty years and I am confident that we will not have one for a long time."

Dr. Werner discussed political experiments in Central and South America, incidentally bringing in the attitude and activity of the United States, with touches of humor here and there that kept his learned audience chuckling. Incidentally he repeated a definition of an adult as "one who has stopped growing at both ends but not in the middle."

OF LATIN AMERICA

He characterized Latin America as a territory that has been and still is an interesting political laboratory. The Mayas of Central

DOWN-AND-OUTER FUNDS IN USE

Four Persons Given 50 Cents Each by Bailiff After Return of "Loan"

Fifty cents loaned by Bailiff L. D. (Dinty) Moore of the Municipal Court to a "down-and outer" seven years ago aided in the rehabilitation of Hi Jameson, now a prosperous Missouri farmer, who last week sent Moore $2 in return for the loan.

Yesterday Moore with the expressed wish that the money would do more good, gave 50 cents each to four persons, Mrs. Felipa Montez, Fidel Ruiz, George Church and Thomas Walters, the first four defendants to appear in his court whose booking slips showed they had no money when arrested.

Moore declared he does not expect another 400 per cent return on the loans, but will be satisfied if one of the four is assisted in a "comeback."

FIERY AUTO CRASH KILLS ATTORNEY

M. O. Graves Succumbs to Injuries Caused When Car in Flames Upsets

M. O. Graves, 68-year-old attorney, was injured fatally yesterday in a spectacular automobile accident at Yosemite Drive and Eagle Rock Boulevard.

Confused by flames which had enveloped his machine mysteriously and with startling suddenness, the elderly lawyer lost control of the car as it sped along the drive. At the intersection of Eagle Rock Boulevard it careened dizzily to one side, then plunged into an open culvert and turned over, catapulting its occupant to the roadway. He died of his injuries shortly afterward in the Pasadena-avenue Receiving Hospital.

Just before he succumbed on the operating table, Graves regained consciousness for a brief spell and told physicians the story of his desperate effort to prevent his death by fire. Without any warning explosion, he said, the car burst suddenly into flames, which licked up the sides and threatened to set his clothing afire. Bewildered by the inferno about him he neglected to jam on the brakes and escape from the blazing car. A moment later it plunged into the open ditch, hurling him mercifully beyond reach of the flames.

After other motorists had taken Graves to the hospital, Dr. W. O. Blanchard summoned a fire department inhalator squad. The operators worked over the stricken man a half-hour without success.

Graves had been a resident and practicing lawyer of Los Angeles for many years. He maintained offices in the California Building and lived at 4703 Vincent Road, where he leaves his widow.

In another accident yesterday, J. Chung, 70, of 306 Marchessault street, suffered injuries which surgeons at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital say probably will cause his death. He was struck down at Marchessault and Alameda streets, according to the police report, by an automobile driven by B. S. Miller of Tujunga. His left eye was gouged out and his scalp severely lacerated.

Ruth Nichols May Start Dash for East Today

Weather permitting, Ruth Nichols, New York pilot, plans to take off today at 6 a.m. from United Airport in an attempt to make a one-stop speed flight across the nation in pursuit of the west-east record for women of 21h. 47m., held by Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller.

Miss Nichols's Lockheed-Vega monoplane, the New Cincinnati, now is equipped with tanks to hold 380 gallons of gasoline—enough to last it to Wichita, Kan., where the aviatrix plans to make the single stop on the 2446-mile trip.

Coming west last week, Miss Nichols set a new mark for women for the transcontinental flight in 16h. 59m. 30s. elapsed time.

ORDINANCE ADOPTED

The City Council yesterday adopted the final ordinances for the improvement of streets in the Polk avenue and Woodcock street district and for the improvement of streets in the Wilmington Boulevard and L street district.

ELOPERS FORFEIT BLESSING

Young Writers Wed Without Consent

Cornell Woolrich and His Bride, nee Gloria Blackton

Waiting for a parental blessing which had not been forthcoming up to last night, Cornell Woolrich, successful young author, and his bride of three days, nee Gloria Blackton, 20-year-old daughter of J. Stuart Blackton, pioneer motion-picture producer, are honeymooning in their Hollywood apartment at 6200 Franklin avenue.

The couple eloped to Santa Ana last Saturday and were married by City Judge Talbott, they admitted last night.

"We have found out that had we asked father he would have said 'yes,' but I was afraid he would have wanted us to wait a while and we didn't want to wait," the producer's daughter said.

"Daddy is very busy and I believe that is why he hasn't answered the telegram of announcement we sent him."

Woolrich declared that "as soon as we hear from him we plan to spend the rest of our honeymoon in Honolulu."

The author's bride also is a writer, having written several short stories, one of which was staged by the Hollywood Writers' Club recently.

Woolrich, 24 years of age, a graduate of Columbia University, in the few years he has been writing has produced several novels of modern life, among them being "Children of the Ritz," "Times Square," "Cover Charge" and his latest, "A Young Man's Heart."

He met his wife a month ago after coming to Hollywood as a staff writer for Paramount.

AID PLEDGED TO GOLDEN RULE PLAN

Luncheon Group Starts Movement Here to Cure Many Ills of World

Formal launching of a movement to attack the world's ills by application of the Golden Rule took place yesterday at a luncheon in the Biltmore. The plan is known as the World's Golden Rule Plan and was originated by Edison Hornaday.

Carl Bundy, former president of the Advertising Club of Los Angeles, introduced Lieutenant-Governor-elect Merriam, Mayor Porter, Coroner Nance, Burr McIntosh, Willis Owen and others, who expressed their willingness to aid in spreading the ideals of the organization behind the movement.

Hornaday said he was overwhelmed with gratitude for the reception given the plan.

Coroner Nance discussed the relationship of the Golden Rule to traffic problems, declaring that the plan presented pointed the way to a solution of the majority of traffic problems. Selfishness, greed, intolerance and intemperance are among the important factors contributing

NEW JOBS TAKEN OVER BY JUDGES

Four Superior Jurists Sit Prior to Start of Term to Relieve Congestion

Four newly elected judges yesterday presided for the first time in four departments of the Superior Court. They are Caryl M. Sheldon, Dailey S. Stafford, Raymond I. Turney and Dudley S. Valentine, all Municipal Court judges raised at the recent election to the higher bench. Although their terms in the Superior Court do not begin until January 5, 1931, they were designated to begin sitting yesterday in order to relieve the congestion of the Superior Court calendar.

Each new judge drew a domestic case as his first hearing. Judge Valentine, in the alimony court, Department Nine, old Courthouse, heard the complaint of Tai Shimizu, a Japanese, who asserted her husband, Jisaburo Shimizu, deserted her. Hearing was continued for further evidence.

Judge Turney's first case, in Department Thirty-two, City Hall, was the petition of Frieda Esther Costello, 16 years of age, for annulment of marriage to William Edward Costello. The girl testified she wed without parental consent. Annulment was granted.

Judge Stafford, in Department Five, old Courthouse, granted a divorce to Valentin Lopez, who testified that Esther Lopez deserted him.

Judge Sheldon, sitting in Department Forty, City Hall, had as his first case Fannie May La Plante's suit for divorce from Ernest Joseph La Plante. The decree was granted on ground of cruelty.

FAMILY TO RECEIVE MRS. RYAN'S ESTATE

Mrs. Amanda J. Ryan's estate, said to be worth $275,000, will be divided among members of her immediate family, according to her will, filed for probate yesterday. One-third was left to each of two daughters, Annie L. Wilson of 868 Ardmore avenue, and Ida Mae Sutherland of 431 South Le Dough street.

The other third was placed in trust for the benefit of a daughter-in-law and son, Fannie and William A. Ryan, and their two children, Ellen Hyde Ryan and Ralph Ryan. Mrs. Ryan died November 24, last, at 85 years of age.

NEW DAY SEEN FOR EVOLUTION

Julian Huxley Lectures in Pasadena

Says Biology Will Create Superior Men

Scientific Humanism His Creed for Future

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Dec. 8.—Now that the majority of scientists have accepted the theory of evolution, the doctrine that man was created from a simple organism through the slow process of natural selection, it is up to man, as "the trustee for evolution," to guide the creation of future men.

This is the message of Julian Huxley, 33-year-old grandson of the famous evolutionist, Thomas Henry Huxley, who addressed a capacity audience at the Community Playhouse late today on "Science and Human Nature."

Mr. Huxley, who is professor of biology at King's College, London, predicted that the great scientific discoveries in the next century will be in the biological realm, and that this new knowledge will have an important bearing in improvement of the physical and mental qualities of the future human race.

AT HALF-WAY MARK

He indicated that he believes the earth has reached the half-way mark in its development and that man has reached a point in evolution where he must use his knowledge in guiding the evolutionary processes.

"Natural selection, or the 'survival of the fittest,'" Huxley asserted, "has many cruel elements, and it is up to scientific humanism to eliminate this unnecessary cruelty." Some of this cruelty could be eliminated by guiding men and women in the selection of their mates and bearing of children.

MANKIND'S CLIMB

"Man gradually is attaining new levels in his mental plane which are indicated by the production of great musical symphonies, and the teachings of Christ, Newton and Darwin. He is on such a high plane of self-consciousness that he can look somewhat into the future and predict the results of present human tendencies and activities. Biology now is on the plane occupied by physics and chemistry 100 years ago, but great things can be expected from it in the next century."

PROSPECT FOR FUTURE

Eventually, declared the speaker, man will be able to control through biological discoveries, not merely the mating of human beings, but the propagation of children as well. By having courage to seek to guide intelligently the evolutionary processes, man may eliminate much of the waste resulting from unhampered natural selection and speed up the development of a higher civilization.

Prof. Huxley, a brother of Aldous Huxley, widely known modern novelist, has been the guest here of Dr. Thomas Hunt Morgan, head of the California Institute of Technology biology department.

Theater Chain Head Foresees Business Gain

M. A. Silver, general manager of Warner Brothers' Pacific Coast theaters, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday on the Chief from New York.

He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Moe Mark and their son, Courtland. Mark is a member of the board of directors of Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc.

Silver is optimistic over business conditions throughout the nation. He states that the Pacific Coast is the most fortunate of all in that business and general living conditions are far superior to the East at the present time.

Silver said his company will have thirty-five theaters in operation on the Coast by January 1. The theater in San Pedro is nearing completion, while those in Huntington Park, Fresno, Santa Barbara and Aberdeen, Wash., have been put in operation.

CALAVO GROWERS TO MEET

The annual meeting of the grower members of Calavo Growers of California in district No. 10 will be held in the offices of Calavo Growers of California, 4803 Everett avenue, at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The meeting will elect a member to represent the district during the ensuing year on the board of directors of Calavo Growers of California. Leo V. Youngworth, chairman, will preside.

We WOULD have won that football game easily if it hadn't been for the gas cloud in Belgium. Happening right on the same day and all—well, you know yourself how it would be.

OH, WELL
Meanwhile, this man Rockne can go right home and stay there. And the next time he comes out, he needn't bring any of those wild Irishmen with him, either.

And anyhow, we didn't care about winning the game. The only idea was that by selling $450,-000 worth of tickets we made everything look brighter and better financially. That's how it was. Look what we did for prosperity and everything.

BUSTS IN AGAIN
Judge Ben Lindsey, of whom everyone was weary and who was well on the way to be forgotten, has been dragged back into the best-seller class by Bishop Manning of New York. The distinguished ex-judge is no doubt grateful that the manna has fallen.

Since the world began there has been no other person who cashed in so successfully on the comparatively tame job of requesting bad boys and girls to please be virtuous as Judge Lindsey.

Most of the other Juvenile Court judges have rendered just as valuable service, but they didn't know how to holler.

GAS
No one else can be quite as silly as a scientist when he goes off half-cocked. As, for instance, the university savant who says the Belgians are dying as the result of poison squirted from the tail of a comet.

If we were in the path of poison gas from a runaway star how is it that nobody choked other than those in a comparatively small area of Belgium and England?

BARGAIN COUNTER
Presumably one of the objectives of the football conference now preparing for a solemn sitting in Los Angeles is to explore the charges that U.S.C. pays for its players. If so they must have purchased them in bargin parcels from the same fellow who sold me some of these lots.

BLUSHES
George Bernard Shaw says that if Hollywood is able to blush, it ought to do so whenever it sees a Russian film. What will George say when he hears the best of the Russian directors spent six months here on full salary and was not permitted to make a picture?

HORMONE
On his death-bed a patient at the Mayo Hospital was saved by a jolt of a new hormone. The next time Rockne comes out here with those Irish, nothing will be used by our side between halves but this hormone. Gosh, let's stock up with a whole lot of hormone.

MUSSOLINI TO BE TOPIC

"Mussolini and World Peace" will be the subject of the address of Dr. G. A. Werner, professor of international law in the College of the Pacific at a lecture to be given at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Swedish Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Fourteenth street and Union avenue. Following the address a forum will be conducted.

EMPLOYMENT AIDES MEET

Governor's Committee Names D. W. Pontius Chairman; Plans Conference With Northern Group

Business executives, public officials, churchmen and welfare workers comprising the southern group of the State Unemployment Committee appointed recently by Gov. Young, met for the first time yesterday in the Governor's office here. They named D. W. Pontius, president of the Pacific Electric Railway, chairman, empowering him to confer with O. K. Cushing, chairman of the northern group, on the latter's arrival here within a few days to evolve plans for the appointment of various subcommittes.

The session was attended by Will J. French of San Francisco, director of the State Department of Industrial Relations, and general chairman of the two groups. He outlined the objectives of the committee as follows: To ascertain the extent of the present unemployment situation, find ways and means of relieving it and devise plans to handle future emergencies of a similar nature, should they arise.

Statistical information, based on the 1930 census was read, giving 84,-912 as the number of persons in Los Angeles county willing to work but out of employment last April. With this figure as a basis, some committee members estimated the unemployed here at present total 120,000.

One of the aims of the committee, as outlined yesterday, will be the dissemination of information to all southern counties communities lacking organized relief organizations concerning what is being accomplished elsewhere.

OLD PAPER PROVES TO BE DOCUMENT OF REVOLUTION

Confirmation of the authencity of an old document found by a farmer's wife in an old trunk as one of the fifty-five original copies of the Declaration of Independence was forwarded yesterday by Huntington Library officials to Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal of Chaffey Union High School.

The famous document recently was taken to Dr. Hill by Mrs. Arthur G. Phelps of Ontario, who said she found it four years ago when her father-in-law died. She said she supposed it of no value until she read a magazine article which said that a letter written and signed by Button Gwinnett sold for $25,000.

Dr. Hill believed the old sheet to be a genuine copy of the Declaration of Independence. He sent it to officials of the Huntington Library for confirmation. It is believed to be one of the few copies of the noted document now in existence, a copy of the original having been prepared and signed for each of the fifty-five members of the conference.

Mrs. Phelps does not know how her relative came into possession of the copy. The value of the document cannot be estimated, the library officials said, until its history is traced.

ROLPH VISIT CONTINUED

Governor-Elect Will Remain in Los Angeles Today for Further Appointment Conferences

Desiring to afford the fullest opportunity for the presentation of Southern California views on various important State problems, Gov.-elect Rolph late yesterday canceled plans for returning last night to San Francisco and prepared to plunge today into a second round of conferences with, for and about State appointments and appointees.

Arriving Saturday in time to attend the U.S.C.-Notre Dame game, and devoting Sunday to the dedicatory ceremonies of the new Los Angeles County Hospital, California's next Governor devoted more than sixteen crowded hours yesterday to business, social and political demands.

The arguments and claims of those seeking appointment to State positions began before 9 a.m. yesterday, continued, with several interruptions, throughout the day and still clamored for attention when the secretary of the Governor-elect asked the telephone operators in his hotel to inform further callers that Mr. Rolph could not be reached.

Rolph astonished the directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon in his honor at noon yesterday by voluntarily agreeing to answer any questions they might care to ask concerning his plans for conducting the State government.

However, taking him at his word, many present asked for enlightenment relative to his official attitude on Congressional reapportionment, on development of the State highway system and on other subjects of general interest.

Mr. Rolph assured his hearers that he favors, and when inaugurated as Governor at Sacramento, will ap-

SHOOTING CASE OFFERS PUZZLE

Fate of Husband, Now in Jail, to Be Decided Today

Court Releases Wife Who Wounded Divorcee

Hospital Authorities Expect Latter to Recover

The asserted love-tangle that caused Mrs. Lena Mayer to shoot and seriously wound Mrs. Kathleen Vaughan last Sunday has brought a new problem to the District Attorney, namely what to do with Max Mayer, husband of Mrs. Mayer.

MAX MAYER

The husband, whose asserted fondness for Mrs. Vaughan is said to have inspired the shooting, is in the City Jail. Thus far no charge has been lodged against him, but the District Attorney is expected to reach a decision today as to what legal process is to be undertaken.

Municipal Judge Ballard, before whom Mrs. Mayer was arraigned yesterday, released her from custody, but she is to appear in court again Friday for preliminary hearing on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The court required no bond when Detective Lieutenant Thompson recommended her release saying:

"She has five boys between 5 and 14 years of age and they need her care. The neighbors all speak well of her."

Mrs. Vaughan, now in General Hospital, probably will recover from the wound caused by a bullet in the right side of her chest, it was stated at the hospital.

Detective Lieutenant Thompson said the Mayers formerly lived in San Francisco, where Mayer and Mrs. Vaughan, a divorcee with an 11-year-old child, became acquainted.

"They told me," he said, "that they came here about a year and a half ago and that Mrs. Vaughan followed them."

Michael Rudolph, attorney for the Mayers, said both Mr. and Mrs. Mayer tried to get Mrs. Vaughan to stay away from Mayer but that she would not.

Investigating police reported that Mrs. Vaughan said she loved Mayer so much she could not give him up. She called at the Mayer home, 1828½ Brooklyn avenue, Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winter, of 9446 South Harvard avenue, police records state, and after Mayer had left his home to sit in the car with the trio, Mrs. Mayer came out of the house and shot Mrs. Vaughan.

Then came the ambulance, the police, a night in jail and yesterday's court proceedings.

Mrs. Vaughan's address was given as 107½ South Ardmore avenue.

Breakfast Club to Fete Trojan Football Stars

The annual "U.S.C. morning" of the Breakfast Club will be celebrated by the Riverside Drive organization tomorrow morning. Coach Howard Jones is to introduce his "first string" grid stars. The initiation of Marshall Duffield, 1930 captain, as a member of the ham-and-egg group, will be a feature.

Numbers by the Trojan band, directed by Harold William Roberts, and the glee club, directed by J. Arthur Lewis, will headline the morning's entertainment, along with solos by individual artists of the two groups.

Superior Judge Sproul, U.S.C. law alumnus, is to preside. The hosts will be Dr. Ralph W. Avery, halfback of the undefeated Trojan team of 1897, and Ben S. Hunter, class of 1901, the first class in law to be graduated from the university.

JURY CALLS FOR FIFTEEN WITNESSES

Subpoenas Issued by Fitts in Investigation of Owen Valley Water Land

Secret subpoenas for fifteen persons were issued yesterday by the District Attorney's office to appear as witnesses before the grand jury today, when the inquisitorial body is scheduled to resume its inquiry into municipal affairs.

While the names on the subpoenaed were not made public, it is understood that all were called to testify in regard to municipally owned property of the Owens River Valley aqueduct system. Distribution of water on a 3600-acre ranch was a specific element under investigation, it was also learned.

Mayor Porter, W. B. Mosher and Chief of Police Steckel, whose names were brought into the investigation last week, were not among those subpoenaed yesterday.

Ralph De Palma Sued by Wife

Mrs. Clara De Palma, wife of Ralph De Palma, automobile racer, yesterday sued her husband for separate maintenance, asserting that he left her March 9, last, and has not supported her adequately since then.

Mrs. De Palma asks $2500 for her attorney, Eugene Marcus; $600 a month for support, and for interest in real estate she owns. De Palma makes $25,000 a year from racing and from his engineering projects, his wife declares. She lists among his assets a racing car worth $6000.

WIFE CITES BEATING BECAUSE OF LETTER

Intercepting another woman's letter to her husband resulted in a beating, Mrs. Nellie G. Gilbreath yesterday testified in Superior Judge Moncur's court, where she was divorced from Henry J. Gilbreath. The wife said she intercepted the letter on March 15, 1927. When her husband learned about it, and she refused to give up the missive, according to the complaint, he knocked her down and tore her clothes. They separated then, but later she forgave him on his promise to treat her with kindness, asserted the wife. She added that on September 1, 1928, without provocation, he blackened her eye and knocked her down.

PHONE JOB PLEDGE MADE

Southern California Company Says Best Efforts Will Be Made to Retain Employees

"Everything possible is being done so as not to add to the present unemployment problem," the Southern California Telephone Company assured the public yesterday in a statement on its policy. The company pledged itself "to leave nothing undone to provide continuous employment" for its force.

It stated it has today more employees than during the comparable period in 1928, and that its 1930-31 new work program contemplates activity that will be up to the average of the last six years, during which much new work was scheduled.

"In keeping with its responsibility to the public and to its personnel," General Manager Rush said in a formal announcement, "it is the policy of this company to leave nothing undone to provide continuous employment of its men and women employees who are needed to meet the requirements of the service. In fact, we think of the connection of the regular employee with the company as a lifetime relationship, rather than as a temporary agreement for the sale of his labor.

"The general business has, of course, affected the telephone business, just as it has other businesses, and we have been and are faced with the problem of force adjustment and rearrangement. The giving of a complete and satisfactory telephone service in every community we serve requires a wide range of vocational activity. The nature of our work is such that it requires a large and skilled force, and in the work of many of our departments scientific and technically trained people are required.

"During this period of slackened business conditions we have followed our established policy by going ahead with our plans, and we will continue to proceed with our construction program consistent with fundamental trends and the future requirements of the service. Where demand has slackened and work has diminished our employees are meeting the situation by rotation of work under reduced time schedules, which has made it possible for the company to keep the maximum number of employees on the pay roll. Overtime, except for emergency work to protect the service, has been practically eliminated, so that a larger number of employees may be given employment. Everything possible is being done so as not to add to the present unemployment problem. Never was there a finer example of the great tradition of our service than the unselfish expression of our employees in aiding the other fellow, the company and the community.

"During 1929 there was carried forward on the Pacific Coast the largest telephone construction program in the history of the service. Such projects as the Los Angeles-San Francisco $10,000,000 cable were in process of completion, and we added to our forces in that year for specific construction work.

"Much of this construction work was completed this year and consequently our requirements for expansion purposes have not been comparable to those of 1929. Our program for 1930 has gone forward in an orderly manner and we have today more employees in our service than we had at the same period in 1928.

"Our construction program for 1931 contemplates the expenditure of $14,000,000. The expenditure for 1931, together with 1930, is an average annual expenditure comparable to the average expenditure for the period since 1924, at which time we had completed a substantial rebuilding of our properties following the period of unprecedented growth which we experienced immediately after the World War."

AUTO DRIVER HELD FOR TRIAL IN DEATH CRASH

John Jones of Compton was held for trial on manslaughter charges, growing out of the death of W. A. Hetherington in an automobile crash in Inglewood, at the conclusion of his preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Russill yesterday. Bail was set at $1000. Testimony produced by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hunt revealed that Jones's automobile crashed into the rear of a car driven by A. M. Davidson, 3038 Ninth avenue, on October 19, last. Hetherington received fatal injuries when he was thrown from Jones's car. Jones previously was ordered held for trial on a drunk-driving charge.

HOLLYWOOD BANK SUSPENDS

Early Reopening With Full Payment to All Depositors Promised by President

The Bank of Hollywood, a small independent bank located at Hollywood Boulevard and Vine street, suspended operations yesterday for lack of ready cash with which to meet the claims of depositors. Its president, G. R. Dexter, promises an early reopening under a reorganization plan providing a cash surplus of more than $1,000,000 and dollar-for-dollar payment to every depositor demanding it. The institution has 6891 depositors, of which 3363 accounts are commercial and 3528 savings.

An examination of the institution's affairs is being made by Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Banks, who took charge for the time being yesterday. Following his preliminary survey Mr. Wood issued the following statement:

WOOD'S STATEMENT

"The inability of the Bank of Hollywood to pay checks drawn upon it made it incumbent upon me as Superintendent of Banks to take possession of the bank today. I shall hold possession until a plan for reorganization and reopening, acceptable to the Superintendent of Banks, is presented or, if no such plan is presented within a week, the bank will be placed in liquidation.

"The assets of the Bank of Hollywood represent less than a quarter of 1 per cent of the total assets of the Los Angeles community, the closed institution being one of the smaller banks.

"The Los Angeles banking situation is fundamentally sound. Most of the banks carry larger cash resources than ever before in their history. The closing of the Bank of Hollywood was due to special conditions which, so far as I am aware, do not reflect on the integrity of anyone connected with the bank.

"The bank is not affiliated in any way with any other bank.

"At the time of closing Saturday the books showed assets amounting to $2,086,641.18 in commercial department and $1,697,688.85 in the savings department, making a total of $3,784,330.03. The bank had capital amounting to $325,000, of which $235,000 was in the commercial department and $90,000 in the savings department. The deposits amounted to $3,133,877.99 divided as follows: Commercial, $1,528,353.88; savings, $1,605,524.11."

The "special conditions" mentioned by Supt. Wood are said to refer to a considerable amount of bank assets tied up in paper which, while good, could not be converted into cash rapidly enough to meet the sudden demand.

The officers of the bank include President Dexter, Samuel Kress, vice-president; Charles Lumpkin, vice-president; K. J. Koebig, vice-president; W. A. Tickle, cashier and secretary; Clifford Gillespie, vice-president, and R. E. Horton, assistant cashier, together with Gilbert H. Beesemyer, chairman of the board, and directors, John R. Avery, O. L. Bishop, C. B. Edington, Orville L. Routt, E. R. Smith, H. J. Strathearn and R. N. Stevenson. These officers spent the greater part of yesterday planning the proposed reorganization.

In a statement issued late yesterday afternoon President Dexter said:

"We expect to reopen the bank within a few days and I don't believe that any investor in the institution will lose a dollar.

REOPENING PLANS LAID

"A plan for reorganization is already under way; in fact, two weeks ago we filed articles of incorporation of a new holding company and have assurances of accumulating $1,000,000 cash surplus. These plans may now be altered slightly but I believe that the main program will go through.

"We would have needed $900,000 cash to have met the situation today and so we asked the State banking authorities to take charge until the situation was adjusted. Of course if it is impossible to effect a reorganization then we will have to place the bank in liquidation."

At least three to four days, according to Wood, will be necessary for his organization to determine just what the situation is.

Fear was expressed in some quarters lest the Guaranty Building and Loan Association, some of the officers of which are also officers of the suspended bank, might also be involved. This was flatly denied by Gilbert H. Beesemyer, secretary-manager of the Guaranty, and chairman of the board of the Bank of Hollywood.

As a matter of precaution, however, he said the association has temporarily put into effect the legal thirty-day notice of withdrawals, in line with conservative building-loan procedure for the protection of such funds.

He emphasized the statement that the Guaranty, which has paid about $2,000,000 in interest to its 25,000 clients, is in an absolutely sound condition.

FEWKES FIGHTS FOLSOM TERM

Promoter Denied Probation by Court

Prosecutor Raises Issue of Oklahoma Felony

Defendant Declares Charge Merely Misdemeanor

E. S. Fewkes, convicted of grand theft in connection with a stock promotion scheme in Los Angeles, yesterday was denied probation by Superior Judge Fricke and sentenced to San Quentin prison.

Upon denial of his plea for probation, the defendant opened a fight against the charge of a prior conviction which the District Attorney's office has filed against him. Fewkes refused to admit ever having been convicted of a felony in Oklahoma, as charged, and demanded a trial by jury to determine this question.

Robert J. Clark, Fewkes's attorney, argued that the defendant's offense in Oklahoma amounted only to a misdemeanor.

Should the prior conviction charge be upheld, Fewkes would face a term of from seven to ten years in Folsom prison. If the charge is disproved, he would then serve a term of from one year to ten years in San Quentin.

Fewkes was convicted of defrauding Mrs. Thomas E. Merrill of North Carson Road, Beverly Hills, in a stock transaction.

TRUCKING PROTESTED

The Adams-Hauser District Association yesterday complained to the City Council against heavy trucking along Adams Boulevard, asking that proceedings for the opening of Jefferson Boulevard to Del Rey be expedited. The Council referred the matter to the Public Utilities Committee.

MRS. JAMES J. ROLPH, Jr., was the honoree at a luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Louis B. Mayer. The scene of the affair for the wife of the Governor-elect of California was the French Room of the Ambassador where three-score guests gathered about one table lavishly appointed.

Assisted by her two daughters, Mrs. William Goetz and Mrs. David Selzner, together with Mrs. Ida Koverman, the hostess received her guests informally before the luncheon. Later in the Fiesta Room she introduced Mrs. Rolph, together with the Governor-elect and Mr. Mayer, who joined the group.

prove, a just and fair reapportionment plan and one in his opinion, he said, that will be acceptable to the well-wishers of this particular portion of California.

He promised an administration of the highway program just alike to the north and the south. He spoke of his determination to take a leading part in remedying unemployment problems.

The frank speech of the next Governor drew warm applause from the business men who, for the first time since his nomination and election, were able to meet him and hear him discuss his personal views of public problems.

Going from the chamber luncheon to the Ambassador, Mayor Rolph was welcomed by a large group of women who, as the guests of Mrs. Louis B. Mayer, were gathered to honor Mrs. Rolph.

The Governor-elect said yesterday that he hopes to complete the organization of his official family within the next two weeks. He is making a careful investigation of the merits of those suggested for appointment, he said, and will make his selections on the basis of his findings.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolph and their son, James Rolph, III., will return to San Francisco tonight.

Carol and Marie Shown in Latest 'Times' Newsreel

The first appearance at a public function of King Carol of Rumania forms one of the interesting scenes included in the latest issue of The Times-Universal Newsreel, being shown this week in leading Southern California theaters. Accompanied by his mother, the Dowager Queen Marie, Carol is shown officiating at the tenth anniversary celebration of University of Transylvania. Graham McNamee, the talking reporter, explains the event.

Other views reveal Sir Thomas Lipton being presented by Mayor Walker with a $6000 "loser's trophy;" a wrecked Paris-Nantes express train; William H. Doak being sworn in to succeed Secretary of Labor Davis, and sensational riding by rodeo stars at the recent Christmas live-stock show here.

CRIME TOTALS MOUNT ANEW

Twelve Hold-ups Reported in Eighteen-Hour Period

Score of Burglaries Also Mark Week's Opening

Thirty-four Bandit Suspects Await Show-up Tonight

While police announced they have thirty-four bandit suspects in jail, the majority of whom they hope to identify at a public show-up to be held at Central Police Station at 7 p.m. today, a series of twelve hold-ups between 6 p.m. Sunday and noon yesterday swelled this month's total of robberies to seventy-eight. At midnight the total stood at seventy-four and compared with sixty-two for the same seven days last month and forty-five during the same length of time in December, last year. These figures were compiled by Police Statistician Cross.

The latest robbery to be reported occurred in the drug store of C. H. Jones at 3900 Denker avenue at 10 a.m. yesterday, and it was the second time in a week that Jones has been victimized. A bandit wearing a sailor's stocking cap as part of a nondescript make-up and carrying a revolver, took $30. In the first hold-up three bandits had obtained $20 from the druggist.

Robberies which took place after midnight included the somewhat spectacular hold-up of Mammy's Shack at 5687 West Washington Boulevard, the kidnaping and slugging of Teddy Cabiad of 533 Alfred street, West Hollywood, and the "charity" hold-up of Al Von Beroldingen of 415 North Plymouth Boulevard, who was handed back his total amount of pocket money of 31 cents when he informed the bandit that he had lost a bet on the University of Southern California-Notre Dame football game.

The robbery of the cafe was perpetrated by two bandits who first appeared as customers. They were described as "coarsely profane." As Charles Arnold, a waiter, approached their table, both stood up with automatic pistols in their hands.

They forced Arnold to walk back toward the kitchen, where they thrust him in a group made up of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cole, owners, and the cook.

The pair plundered the cash register of $312 and also took $10 from Arnold.

KIDNAPED AND BEATEN

Cabiad reported he was forced into an automobile by two bandits near his home, driven to an isolated spot and, after being robbed of $5, was beaten and kicked out of the machine.

Von Beroldingen was held up at Glendale Boulevard and Council street. He said the bandit told him he had a starving wife and two children at home.

"Is that all you've got?" the highwayman asked when he took the 31 cents from his victim's pocket. Von Beroldingen replied that it was, as he had lost all his cash on the football game.

"Well," said the bandit, "you can keep it, then. This sure has been a bad night for me. I stuck up another guy a while ago and had to give him back three bucks."

The bandit apparently referred to the hold-up of Mrs. J. A. McGuire of 1801 Lemon street, Alhambra, and C. H. Flint at Valley and Alvarado streets. Flint reported that when he told a lone bandit he had only $3, the man gave him back the money.

Before midnight Arthur Willner of 7564 Santa Monica Boulevard was robbed of $26 at Gower street and Rosewood avenue by two bandits; Otis E. Chappell of 3216 Tyburn avenue was robbed of a like amount by two men and a woman at Fletcher Drive and Atwater street; Mrs. M. Lucy was held up in the Coast Ice Cream Company shop at 2660 South Western avenue and robbed of $50; George K. Worthy of 909 East Sixth street was robbed of $45 by two Negro bandits at Grape and Hickory streets; Frank Mineghino of 668 Eleventh street, San Pedro, was robbed of $20 by a trio of bandits at Ninth and Dodson streets; Chester E. Conkrite was held up by two bandits in his drug store at 11850 South Main street and robbed of $75, and V. A. Thurston, a cab driver, was the victim of a female bandit.

WOMAN ACTS AS AIDE

Thurston reported he picked up the woman as a fare at Fifth and Wall street and drove, at her order, to Eighth and Los Angeles streets. There a man stepped up, thrust a revolver against his side and took $11, while the woman stepped into an automobile parked near by. As he was commanded to drive away, Thurston said he saw the man get into the car with the woman.

In one of a score of burglaries reported Sunday night, $5500 worth of jewelry was taken from the home of Mrs. Jessie J. Morris at 1414 Oakhurst Drive. The home of Mrs. Fern Atherton at 209 Mallard street was entered and $1000 worth of jewelry taken. Jewelry and clothing valued at $500 were obtained by burglars who ransacked the dwelling of D. D. Fowler at 229 South Gates street while members of the family were asleep.

COAL SACKS PILED ON HELPLESS VICTIM

Apparently chagrined at their failure to find a safe to plunder, two bandits late Sunday night robbed Herbert Whitley, freight clerk for the Pacific Electric Railway, of a $1 watch, beat him and fled after binding him and piling coal sacks on him, according to a Sheriff's report.

Whitley told officers, they reported, that he was forced to admit the two men to the office at the railroad yard at East Ninety-second street and the Pacific Electric tracks after one of the men had fired through a window from outside. He was again fired on when the men entered and beaten when he stated there was no safe in the office.

Whitley succeeded in freeing himself shortly before midnight and summoned aid. He was given medical treatment for cuts and bruises.

A bandit who on Sunday night attempted to rob Elbert E. Gronit, taxicab driver of 5221 Baltimore avenue, fled without having obtained anything. Gronit, officers reported, grabbed the would-be robber when the latter's attention was detracted by a passing automobile in the 1300-block on East Sixty-fourth street. Although armed, the bandit merely freed himself and escaped.

If we had had selective immigration fifty years ago, we should not have the underworld problem of today, says the Commissioner-General of Immigration. If we had been as thoughtful of our country as we are of our vacant lots and had put up the sign, "No Dumping Here!" our citizens would have been saved many millions.

CASH PURCHASES LARGE

Americans are not so addicted to the installment plan of buying as current reports would have it. Figures just compiled by the Department of Commerce show that retail installment purchases do not amount in volume to one-tenth of the total.

Thousands of transactions, including those made by retail buyers at department stores, dry goods, clothing, hardware, auto, radio and many other establishments, have been averaged up by the department showing that payments are made in the following ways and proportions: Cash, 58.6 per cent; open credit, 32.2 per cent; installments, 9.2 per cent.

In view of the foregoing figures it does not look as though we had embarked on a wild era of credit exploitation. Not a few economists have predicted dire things for us because, as they believed, we were spending our money before we earned it.

Nor is the installment plan being worked so much harder than it was twenty years ago. People buying retail lots of lumber, furniture, plumbing and heating fixtures and supplies, hay, grain and coal have for many years been extended what is known as open credit. In the government report this credit is said to be 32.2 per cent. Add this to the installment credit of 9.2 per cent and it amounts to 41.4 per cent, or much less than the cash payments of 58.6 per cent, or $58.60 in every $100.

Another fallacy—that merchants are taking considerable risk in selling goods on the installment plan—is disproved by the report which says that in such transactions the seller loses only 1.2 per cent, while on charge accounts he loses but 0.6 per cent.

NO TAX RATE RAISE

In the judgment of The Times, the suggestion of the Chamber of Commerce that the Los Angeles city tax rate be raised to $1.50 from its present figure of $1.25, to meet a present emergency, is not well advised. There are several serious objections to it, of which the principal is that meeting a temporary emergency with a permanent tax-rate increase is poor financing. Another, almost as controlling, is that a raise in the tax rate could not produce any funds for a year, while the emergency is present and temporary. By the time the money would become available the emergency probably will be well past.

That the Los Angeles police department requires to be augmented is conceded. The situation, as the Chamber points out, is as if a city the size of San Francisco had been added to Los Angeles without police protection. Los Angeles has added, in population, as many as there are in San Francisco since its police force was added to. But the necessary increase must be taken care of from present city funds, and can be so taken care of by trimming and cutting elsewhere.

Another suggestion made by the chamber, that the police department be increased in part by transfer of employees from other departments, is probably impracticable for the reason that, under the charter, the police department is under civil service and positions thereon may legally be filled only from civil service lists.

The tax-rate raise is suggested, in part, for police expansion and in part for unemployment relief. The use of a tax raise for unemployment relief is open to other serious objections than the insuperable one that it will not produce any money now. It is a popular fallacy that government expenditures from tax money increase employment. In fact, they increase it at one point to decrease it at another. Higher taxes are a drag upon private expenditure. They prevent building, rebuilding and improvement, hamper growth, lay a deadening hand upon business, commerce, trade, manufacture. The householder who is required to pay over more money to the tax gatherer than he is accustomed to do, reduces his expenses in some other direction to make up for it; he lays off a gardener, postpones painting for another year, does not install new electrical fixtures, gets along with his old plumbing.

If a city has idle funds on hand, it can increase employment with emergency public works; or it can increase employment temporarily with funds raised by a bond issue, which brings idle capital into functioning position, though in the long run, of course, taxes are increased, and in the long run there is no net gain. But increasing taxes in the long run and increasing them immediately have different immediate effects, and it is the immediate effect in this case which is important.

A permanent increase in the Los Angeles tax rate to meet a temporary situation would be an irresistible invitation to extravagance when the temporary situation is over. A city administration always manages to spend all the money it has—often upon worthy projects, no doubt, and for worthy purposes, but with considerable waste nevertheless. Government expenditures should be held down to real necessities. Living within one's income is as desirable for a city as for an individual. A city's tax rate normally should decrease rather than increase, as the overhead of administration in a large city is proportionately less than in a small one. The normal growth in assessed valuations should more than take care of the normal increase in expenditure. If there has been a temporary reversal of this situation in Los Angeles it does not require a permanent remedy. What is needed is emergency financing to take care of an emergency.

There is another weighty consideration. The chamber indicates its belief that, if the money necessary to deal with the emergency is not raised, the city will suffer in the eyes of the public. While this may be true, it is likewise certain that a reputation for high taxes, on top of our already notorious assessment burdens on real estate, would hurt the city very much more. Our taxes are high enough now; if anything, they are too high.

Under normal conditions the present rate is high enough to meet legitimate normal requirements with some frills. An increase of 20 per cent, such as the chamber advocates, would in normal times produce more frills for which tax money would be taken out of the regular channels and lay a burden upon private enterprise. And it is private, not public, enterprise which provides the most employment.

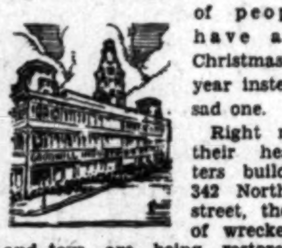
THE LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

CLOSE to the top of your Christmas list you should place the name of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California. For they are going to make it possible for thousands of people to have a glad Christmas this year instead of a sad one.

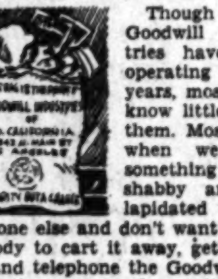


Right now, in their headquarters building at 342 North Main street, thousands of wrecked dolls and toys are being restored into things of beauty which will fill childish hearts. For many of them were very fine dolls and toys before the children who loved them first threw them away as hopelessly broken—and through the skill of patient workers who love their work, and aren't doing piece work on mass production schedules, they are being made into objects of beauty again.

And there are all sorts of things for older people, too, for the Goodwill Industries probably operate the most complete department store in the city. That is, they handle some things not to be found anywhere else. For whatever is given to them, from a Buddhist shrine to a pool table, from a child's doll buggy to the wreck of a truck, is rebuilt into something of use. And so fine is the workmanship that several of the biggest and finest stores in Los Angeles have their repair work done by those patient workmen in the Goodwill ships—workmen so old, so handicapped, in many cases, that they could not hold jobs elsewhere because their work is slow. The finest cane-bottomer in Los Angeles, for instance, is a blind woman. When we visited the shops she was working on an antique cane-seated chair for which the owner, a wealthy suburbanite, had refused $300. The furniture repair department was full of beautiful antiques, many of them sent in by out-of-town people, to be repaired there. And in the clock department we got excited over a charming clock and wished to buy it. But the workman told us it had been sent in for repair by a prominent jeweler!

In the book department we were told that such connoisseurs as Dr. Von KleinSmid were on the waiting list for rare books.

Not a Charity But a Chance



Though the Goodwill Industries have been operating twelve years, most of us know little about them. Most of us, when we have something too shabby and dilapidated to give to anyone else and don't want to pay somebody to cart it away, get charitable and telephone the Goodwill Industries to come and get it. And some of us, we confess with shame, telephone the Goodwill Industries to send us bags, and then use them for laundry bags instead of filling them and returning them. Every year the organization has to spend $12,000 for new bags, largely because so many persons get bags from them which they do not return.

But in the bags which are returned there is everything under the sun—old books, old newspapers, family portraits, electrical devices, old fruit baskets tarnished black which are cleaned up and shine as gold and silver plate; old shoes, old iron, broken glass. And nowadays the trucks are bringing in refrigerators, phonographs and sewing machines which have been discarded for electrical devices. You need only visit this amazing place to see what we are discarding now and will be buying back as heirlooms fifty years hence.

Miracles of Salvaging

And what is done with all that conglomerate material? Well, you can't ever know till you go and see. And when you do go and see you will feel like the man we saw there. He had lost $75,000 in the crash of his own business and was selling what things he could to raise ready money. He had 144 gross of rubber heels and he thought the shoe shop at the Goodwill Industries might use them. He went there to sell them, but when he saw what was being done there he gave them.

For in that shoe shop shoes were being repaired and rebuilt into thoroughly good shoes which hard-up but self-respecting men could buy for the cost of the repairs—25 cents, 50 cents or maybe $1.25 for shoes worth from $3.50 to $10.

But the salvaging of men and women is more important. Handicapped persons are given preference in Goodwill Industries, and 69 per cent of the employees are definitely handicapped. There is a woman 88 years old who takes pride in the fact that she is earning her way. There are blind and crippled and deaf people. While many industries are laying off workers, the Goodwill Industries are putting more on. A few years ago they had only forty employees, now they have 519 and keep thirty-nine trucks busy and operate twenty-one stores in Los Angeles and near-by cities, as far away as San Bernardino.

One war veteran with half a hand shot away and nerves all but out of order learned his trade in that shoe shop and then stepped out "to give his job to some one who needed it more." He now has a job paying $1000 a month plus board and lodging. Another "graduate" has gone to a community which wrote: "We need a shoemaker badly, as there is none within fifty miles."

Upbuilding Self-Respect

The motto of the Goodwill Industries is "Not a charity but a chance." It does not compete with ordinary business, but makes work for people who could not get it otherwise, while placing the necessities of life within reach of men and women who otherwise would have to go soleless or thinly clad or shabby. The actual cost of repairing donated things is what those things sell for—and we saw what seemed to us quite lovely silk dresses for $1.25 and a quilt of velvet pieces which looked rich enough for royalty. We saw a lot of furniture which evidently had come from finer homes than ours and clothes which had come from finer tailors.

In the millinery department we saw several girls with beautifully marcelled (or was it permanetly waved?) hair. Some of the girls have learned the trick and they dress one another's hair at lunch time. In another department we saw a man who used to play halfback on Yale, but landed there as a down-and-outer. He is on his feet now, but will not leave.

And in the day nursery—well, say, there's many a Los Angeles family of wealth that never has done anything for its children which would be half so good for them as sending them to that day nursery. We never yet saw so many little shavers sit at one table and eat a meal in such a combination of complete enjoyment and quiet courtesy.

FREE SPEECH AND RADIO

"Free speech" is a red herring being drawn across the trail by Rev. R. P. Shuler to confuse the real issue shortly to be thrashed out before the Federal Radio Commission in this city. The issue is not free speech, nor is free speech concerned in it. The issue is whether public property, a radio channel, may be used to spread slander, defamation and misrepresentation, or rather, when such public property is being so used, it can be said to be used in the public interest.

Even so astute a gathering as the recent meeting of Methodist ministers was confused by this false issue and passed a resolution not logically defensible in view of the evident majority opinion of Shuler's veracity. That opinion, plainly expressed, was that Shuler has lied on numerous occasions.

No one complains that "free speech" is denied when the use of the mails is barred to schemes to defraud or to scurrilous, threatening or defamatory matter. Using "fraud" in a broad sense, not merely involving money, but implying any intentional delusion or deception, it is indisputable that Shuler often defrauds the listening public. That his speeches are frequently defamatory, scurrilous and threatening is a matter of common knowledge, as well as being specifically set forth in an opinion by the California Supreme Court.

Section 471 of the postal laws provides: "All matter otherwise mailable by law upon the envelope or outside wrapper of which, or any postal card upon which, any delineations, epithets, terms or language of an . . . libelous, scurrilous, defamatory or threatening character, or calculated . . . and obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character or conduct of another, may be written or impressed or apparent, are hereby declared unmailable and shall not be conveyed in the mails nor delivered from any postoffice nor by any letter carrier and shall be withdrawn from the mails . . ."

Can anyone contend that unmailable matter ought to be allowed to go out over the air with the aid of a publicly owned facility? And can it be asserted that the right of free speech implies the right to use public property in its dissemination? It has never been so held. Shuler has the right to speak freely and to publish freely; neither he nor anyone else has the right to mail freely or to broadcast freely. There is a broad distinction here.

The point may be carried even further. If the principle of free speech applies to radio broadcasting, the right to a broadcasting license cannot logically be denied to anyone who applies for it. It must be clear that anyone who cannot get a broadcasting license is refused the right to air his views via radio and that this would constitute a denial of free speech in plain violation of the Constitution, if there is any merit in Shuler's contention. The radio law does give a qualified free speech to candidates for office, providing that if any candidate is extended radio facilities by any station, the station must grant equal facilities to his opponent on the same terms. But Shuler is not a candidate for office.

The "free speech" argument does not hold water. What Shuler is asking is not free speech alone, but free speech plus special privileges, and the special privileges can be withdrawn, if they are abused, without interfering in the least with free speech.

Unemployment

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I congratulate O. W. K. on his very sensible answer to Mr. Williams, as I know he is right to the point, but do not agree with Mr. Williams that a family or couple of two cannot live on a salary of $140 a month. It appears to me that Mr. Williams has a wife who is holding a position and they both are unable to get along on an income twice this amount.

A few months back I had an application to refinance a home, the owners with only one child, the husband drawing a salary of $200 per month, his wife a salary of $100, and still they were back on the monthly payments of their home and had to refinance it to hold it.

If a canvass were made of all married women holding city positions who have husbands that are also employed, I fear the number would be surprising. Let us follow the example of the city of Stockton and see how quick the result will be in this one department alone. V. W.

Married and Single

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I heard over the radio where the Jackson Bell Radio Company had laid off the married women with working husbands. That company sure needs a pat on the back. If the rest of the business houses would do the same look at the thousands it would put to work. And the increase in the business world because those not working can't spend, and if the job were taken from the married women who had working husbands and given to the men, widows and bachelor girls there would be a lot less unemployment. Stores and offices are full of married women whose husbands have good jobs. Those jobs should be given to the ones begging for work. I am a married woman and these married women burn me up. Let them stay home and take care of that home.

MRS. ALMA SCOTT.

Married Women's Jobs

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I know very well what this crowding into work formerly done by men has resulted in. Homes are becoming fewer and much less of of real homes. The so-called better, more intelligent class are refusing to have children or only one or two. Men have lost their rightful place as bread winners and heads of homes and as a consequence have lost dignity and respect. A. C. M.

Condition Is Acute

CALEXICO (Cal.) Nov. 27.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I wish to compliment Mr. C. E. Carter and J. C. Elliott for their splendid letters on the unemployment situation relative to married women taking jobs away from men and as Mr. Elliott well states, a law should take effect at once to stop it, as the condition is acute.

In many instances in California married women are teaching school and working in public offices who are the wives of prosperous business men.

St. Louis and San Diego have already started to eliminate married women from their pay rolls. SUBSCRIBER.

Let Each Citizen Help

VENTURA, Dec. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In today's Times an ex-service man wrote you about permits for veterans carrying firearms. This would be a great help in stopping many of the crimes throughout the country. I do not believe only letting ex-service men carry firearms would do the trick.

I believe a good plan would be to form revolver and shooting clubs all over the country, under government supervision. After passing various tests, issue permits to those only who have passed and are both mentally and physically capable of handling themselves and their firearms to good advantage. This, of course, could be handled by an organization looking to the welfare of the community, such as the American Legion. The ammunition could be furnished either free or at cost by the government. MEXICANS IN CALIFORNIA

To the Editor of The Times:

In The Times of October 14, there appeared an editorial criticising the summary of Gov. Young's Mexican Fact-Finding Committee's report. As one of the investigators for this committee, I desire to answer some of the points raised by the critic.

According to the editorial referred to, the committee, in estimating the number of Mexicans in California in 1930, erred by assuming that the rate of increase in the number of Mexicans in California was the same between 1920-1930 as it was between 1910-1920, and that it also erred by ignoring completely the effect of the passport regulations of the State Department "since 1920."

In answer to this criticism, I would point to page 20 of the report of the committee, in which attention is called to the decreases in Mexican immigration into the United States beginning with the fiscal year 1928-1929, not since 1920, because of the stricter visa regulations imposed by the State Department. On page 43 of the committee's report attention is called to the fact that there is no safe way of estimating the number of Mexicans in California at the present time, and that the actual number will not be ascertainable until the figures of the latest decennial census are available. In the meantime, the estimate of the committee, based upon the increase between 1910-1920, does not appear to be out of proportion to the estimates heretofore made available by the Los Angeles County Charities Department or by the Los Angeles City Police Department.

The committee's report is further criticised on the grounds that "there should have been an analysis and distribution of the replies to show what proportions of the racial groups are employed in the citrus industry, in the walnut industry . . . and so on." On page 165 of the report that information is actually given, in addition to giving the preference of employers for Mexicans and for non-Mexicans for various types of farming, such as deciduous tree fruits, grapes, subtropical fruits, etc. Information is also given as to the preference of employers for various groups of laborers, by sizes of farm. The report also states that in many instances where Mexicans are employed it would be difficult, if not impossible, to secure other groups of labor to perform the work they are performing.

The criticism of the editorial writer to the effect that the report does not state "what sort of work" the 10,706 Mexican laborers employed by six large interstate and interurban railroads were doing, is incorrect. On page 107 of the report the following paragraphs will be found:

"While most Mexicans employed by railroads are 'section hands' or 'extra gang' laborers, Mexicans are also employed by the carriers as laborers in mechanical and motive power departments, and in other capacities.

"Several railroads reported the employment of Mexicans as machinists and electricians at 76 cents per hour, boilermakers at 71 cents, car repairers at 64 cents, boilermakers' helpers at 56 cents, and boiler washers at 60 cents."

It is true that the committee's report does not state whether "substitutes" could have been found for these Mexicans, but such a statement would have been more in the nature of a conjecture than a fact.

In conclusion, the committee's findings are criticised on the ground that Mexican immigrants are performing labor which no one else could perform; and that, therefore, it is not true that they are "supplanting other immigrant races and native Americans." On page 120 of the report there appears the following concise summary of a preceding chapter:

"Most Mexicans in manufacturing industries work as laborers; but Mexicans are also employed in relatively skilled occupations, such as the following (Table 33:)

"(a) In the metals, machinery, and conveyances group of industries: Blacksmiths, core makers, foundry machine molders, machinists, mechanics, pipe makers and polishers;

"(b) In the wood manufactures group of industries: Finishers, machinists, stickermen and upholsterers;

"(c) In the chemical, oils and paints industries: Joint turners, mechanics and painters;

"(d) In the printing and paper goods group of industries: Bookbinders and workers in photo and job press departments.

"(e) In the foods, beverages and tobacco group of industries: Bakers, butchers, mechanics and packers."

According to the writer of the editorial, it seems that if it were not for the Mexican laborers in California, there would be thousands more unemployed Americans and that many industries would not exist. This, of course, is conjecture, and opinions differ. A study of the report, which was in the printer's hands when the summary was issued, will show that the facts were carefully gathered from authentic records.

LOUIS BLOCH,
Satistician Department of Industrial Relations.

[Note: It is fair to say in connection with the above that the editorial referred to was based upon the official summary of the report, the latter being unavailable—Ed. Times.]

PEN POINTS

If he's a good party man, the accent is on the party—not the man.

As a last desperate effort to hamstring rich criminals, the cities might try stopping the sale of liquor.

A politician is a man who has the courage to try any desperate experiment, if it isn't his money.

A famous Englishman America eventually will the world. Then at last get paid not to meddle.

Dieting: Nibbling small portions at the dining table and then going back to the kitchen to fill up.

It might be worse. Many of the unemployed were formerly and they don't notice any difference.

RIPPLING RHYMES

THE CHRONIC COMPLAINER

I'm full of compound trouble, my hopes are all deferred, my crops are merely stubble, the outlook is absurd; I'm in a grievous pickle, my briny teardrops trickle, but no one cares a nickel, or says a friendly word. For I have been complaining of divers ills for years; some ache is always paining my elbows or my ears; my early hopes have dwindled and new ones are not kindled; my whiskers, long and brindled, defy the barber's shears. My corns are always throbbing, they torture every toe, and to the neighbors, sobbing, I tell my tale of woe; my hinged roof is always leaking, my sorrow I always squeaking; am shrieking as I weave to and fro. The world is cold, unfeeling, it puts me in a plight, and felons keep on stealing my stovewood every night; my eggs are also lifted by sneak thieves greatly gifted, whose wanton feet have drifted far from the paths of right. And some one steals my apples, and some one swipes my pears; in vain my sad heart grapples with all my fears and cares; all troubles are repeated, I'm gouged and bilked and cheated, so feeling overheated, I tell of my affairs. At first my friends would listen, when, wailing, I appeared; perhaps a tear would glisten upon a flowing beard; some sympathy they handed, when such were demanded; but now is candid, when I tell weird. "We have grown tired of hearing," they say, "your constant moan; perhaps we have some cheering—we've troubles of our own; but you are always loaded with grief that is corroded; no more will we be goaded, so go and howl alone."

'ATTIC MURDER' CASE DROPPED

Court Dismisses Charges Against Mrs. Oesterreich

Judge Hardy Told by State Evidence Insufficient

Rich Garment Maker Slain Eight Years Ago

Dismissal of the murder charge against Mrs. Walburga Oesterreich, on which she was once tried, was ordered yesterday by Superior Judge Hardy at the request of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Costello, who stated the prosecution was unable to obtain sufficient evidence to warrant a new trial.

At Mrs. Oesterreich's last trial the jury was discharged when it was unable to reach a verdict.

Mrs. Oesterreich was charged with the murder of her husband, Fred Oesterreich, wealthy garment manufacturer, on August 22, 1922. Nearly a year after the shooting the widow was accused of the crime in a complaint but the charge was dismissed in Superior Court. The case then rested in the unsolved files of the police department until April 8, last, when Otto Sanhuber, mysterious attic man of the Oesterreich household, was arrested.

Sanhuber at that time admitted living in secret rooms and attics in the manufacturer's home for ten years to be near Mrs. Oesterreich. He was tried and convicted of manslaughter, but released because this charge was outlawed and he could not again be tried for murder.

Mrs. Oesterreich was then tried on the murder charge.

During her trial, the woman remained at liberty under $25,000 bail and since that time on her own recognizance.

FINGERPRINT SPECIALIST QUESTIONED

Police Expert on Stand All Day in Murder Trial of Percy Eberly

Trial of Percy Eberly, charged with the murder of Melvin Hatch on April 8, 1927, developed into a study of the science of police fingerprinting in Superior Judge McComb's court yesterday.

H. L. Barlow, police fingerprint expert, spent the entire day on the witness stand. He identified a fingerprint found in the Hatch home at 2149 Echo Park avenue, as that of the defendant, Eberly. When court adjourned, Barlow still was being cross-examined by J. W. Ryan, defense attorney, concerning the possibility a mistake in the identification of a fingerprint.

Joseph Choate, deputy District Attorney prosecuting the case, however, intends to call numerous other experts to support the prosecution's claim that Eberly is the man who burglarized the Hatch home in 1927, locked Dr. M. A. Hatch in a closet, and shot his son down a few minutes later when he returned home with his mother and resisted robbery.

Eberly, who already is convicted of four counts of robbery of Los Angeles drug stores, was identified several months ago through the fingerprint after a comparison with his prints on file at the police department.

EXTORTION TRY LAID TO PAIR HELD

Man Arrested for Threat to Extort Money Names Victim's Son as Plotter

Complaints charging attempted extortion against Frank Biffer, 44 years of age, and Elmer Floyd, 30, were in the hands of police yesterday and arrangements were being made to have the local Sheriff's deputies return Biffer here from San Francisco to stand trial for attempting to extort $200 from his own mother, Mrs. Katherine Biffer, of 1253 West Fifth street.

Biffer was arrested in San Francisco last Saturday night soon after Floyd was taken into custody here by Detective Lieutenants Torres and Romero, who said they found him waiting in front of Mrs. Biffer's residence for a messenger boy to return with the money which had been previously demanded over the telephone on the threat that Mrs. Biffer's daughter in Berkeley would be injured.

Floyd, the detectives said, confessed making the threatening telephone call and involved the son as the instigator of the asserted plot.

Biffer's sister, Mrs. B. E. Ressler, president of the University of California Mother Club, said at Berkeley yesterday he is of unsound mind. Ten years ago while Biffer was in the employ of the Los Angeles postoffice he was struck on the head with a blackjack during a hold-up, she said.

"The thugs beat him to get the keys to the postoffice," she said. "He was out of his head for days and when he recovered became irrational. He quarreled with his mother, wife and children; separated from his family and drifted away. If he did what he is accused of it is because he is not normal."

JAIL TERM AND FINE FOR SEPTUAGENARIAN

John Saxon, 75 years of age, was sentenced to serve 120 days in jail and to pay a $500 fine by Municipal Judge Curtis yesterday, following his plea of guilty to a charge of selling liquor. Saxon, according to Deputy City Prosecutor Jack, was arrested at 8836½ South Vermont avenue after selling several bottles of home brew to a police operative. He admitted two prior convictions for the same offense.

DEATH SUIT NEARS FINALE

Argument on in Harper Action Against County and Deputy Over Crash That Killed Wife

Argument began late yesterday in George Harper's $10,788 suit against the County of Los Angeles and Percy M. Atkins, a deputy sheriff, for asserted damages resulting from the death of his wife. The case is being tried before a jury in Superior Judge Wilson's court.

Harper testified that at 11:30 p.m. May 10, last, his car was hit at Western avenue and Ballona street by a county automobile driven by Deputy Sheriff Atkins. His wife, Mrs. Bertha Bergman Harper, was injured, dying May 11 in Hawthorne Hospital. He presented a claim to the Board of Supervisors, but it was rejected, he asserted, and now he asks $10,000 general damages and $788 for hospital and funeral expenses. Attorney Brooks Gifford represents Harper.

Deputy County Counsel Prichard, appearing for the defendants, contended that Harper was guilty of contributory negligence in that he drove on the street intersection despite the fact that the Sheriff's car was sounding a siren and showing red lights. It also was brought out that Atkins and Deputy John B. Keenan were transporting two hold-up men they had arrested.

Conflicting testimony was given regarding the siren and red lights. Attorney Gifford called Harper, Irene Johnson, Chester Johnson, Calvin Whetzel and Mrs. Esther McGee to testify that they did not hear any siren until just before the crash. Atkins, Keenan, Paul Helmick and Cassius Dougal testified the siren and red lights were operated. Helmick and Dougal were the prisoners.

Judge Wilson is expected to give the case to the jury today.

Branch From Las Vegas to Boulder Site Expected to Be Ready in January

Working with full crews and rushing with all possible speed the completion of the branch railroad line to the site of the Boulder Dam, from a point near Las Vegas, Nev., Union Pacific officials yesterday announced the line will be ready for operation late next month.

Grading and roadbed building is more than half complete on the 22.71 miles of branch line, according to engineers for the Merritt, Chapman & Scott Corporation of San Pedro, working on a contract. Track-laying crews also are at work, it was announced by R. L. Adamson, chief engineer for the Union Pacific.

The line will extend to Boulder City, the model construction camp which will house more than 5000 workmen during construction of the $165,000,000 project.

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

In every favored community where the United States Army and Navy are stationed, society enjoys delightful affairs given for and by the officers of the service.

Southern California is more than favored, having both an army post at Fort MacArthur, the Air Corps at Rockwell Field, North Island, Coronado, and the battle fleet and the naval base at San Diego and Coronado.

Society of Los Angeles is giving an exclusive naval ball at the Biltmore January 17 for the commander of the battle fleet, and we are to be better acquainted with the admiral and his officers, when, Wednesday afternoon, the 17th inst., Admiral Frank H. Schofield, commander-in-chief of the battle fleet, flag officers and officers of the fleet in Los Angeles Harbor, give an official informal reception on board the flagship U.S.S. California from 3 until 6 o'clock.

In the receiving line will be Admiral and Mrs. Schofield, Rear-Admiral and Mrs. R. H. Leigh, Rear-Admiral and Mrs. W. D. MacDougall, Rear-Admiral and Mrs. Luke McNamee, Rear-Admiral and Mrs. J. R. P. Pringle and Rear-Admiral and Mrs. W. T. Tarrant.

Invitations have been issued to city officials of Los Angeles and cities in this vicinity, Federal judges and Federal officials, diplomatic representatives of foreign countries stationed in Los Angeles, retired Army and Navy officers residing in this vicinity, and citizens prominent in social, business, arts and professional life of the Southland.

The California will be especially decorated and fitted out for the occasion, awnings to be spread over the entire length of the ship. Flags, lanterns and colored lights will be used for the occasion and in genera lthe man-o'-war background will be maintained, although on the part of the quarterdeck occupied by the admirals and their wives in the receiving line, ferns and flowers will somewhat soften the effect.

Transportation will be provided from Fifth street, San Pedro, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Fifty fast speed boats, consisting of admirals' barges, captains' gigs and officers' boats will convey the guests to and from the dock and boats, admittance to the dock and boats, however, being by invitation cards only. Special provision has been made with the San Pedro police for handling and parking cars. The invitation list is about completed and the cards will be in the mail today or tomorrow.

Betrothal Announced

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Ellen Virginia Clark to Roger Revelle of Pasadena was made at a beautifully appointed luncheon given Saturday by the mother of the bride-elect at the Lake Norconian Club, the news being revealed to the forty-two guests by means of tiny cards with names of the betrothed hidden in gold boxes of bonbons.

Miss Clark, who is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Scripps-Clark of Pasadena and Rex. B. Clarke, a granddaughter of the late James E. Scripps, founder of the Detroit News and grandniece of Miss Ellen Scripps of La Jolla, is a senior this year at Scripps College at Claremont, while Mr. Revelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roger Revelle of Pasadena, was graduated from Pomona College in 1929 and is doing graduate work in geology at University of California at Berkeley.

No date is announced for the wedding which, however, will be an event of next June.

For Recent Bride

Mrs. Peter M. Young of 1846 North Harvard Boulevard, is entertaining 200 guests this afternoon with a tea honoring her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Peter Holden Young, who with Mr. Young has just returned from a honeymoon trip to Honolulu.

The table decorations will be carried out in cloth of silver, pink roses, silver candelabra and pink candles.

The bride will wear her wedding gown of white velvet, while Mrs. Young will receive her guests in a frock of blue lame.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. William John Wilson, Mrs. Henry Vosper, Mrs. Luther Lohman, Miss Dorothy Lohman, Miss Nell Louise Young and Miss Margaret Thompson, while Mrs. William C. Young and Mrs. Jesse Park will preside at the tea table.

The bride was formerly Miss Marion Hocksmith, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hocksmith of Okmulgee, Okla., where the elaborate church wedding took place October 25, being the culmination of a college romance resulting from the meeting of the two when Peter Holden Young entered University of Missouri, where his bride was a student.

The latter is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority while Mr. Young is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Young are at home to their many friends at the Afton Arms, 6141 Afton Place.

Benefit Card Party

To raise funds to maintain a group of children in the Progressive School of Hollywood, who are the special proteges of the school, a benefit bridge-tea is being given this afternoon in the Fiesta Room of the Ambassador. A charmingly arranged fashion show will be presented and also an exquisite exhibition of antique and modern jewelry and an antique Georgian silver exhibit.

Among those who are entertaining friends and have reserved tables are Mmes. Irving H. Hellman, Rufus Bernard Von KleinSmid, Louise Dudley, Charles Jeffras, J. C. Haggarty, James Rathwell Page, Barton Sewell, Samuel Behrendt, Maurice Kahn, J. Hart Gress, J. B. McCreery, William Armstrong, Don Lee, Harold Stern, Charles Rogers, Antonio Moreno, Carleton Winslow, Ralph Chandler, Carl Steinlein, Marshall Laird, George Woods and the patronesses.

Delightful Affair

One of the lovely affairs of recent date was the dinner party given Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Dollar Russell McBryde at their home, 513 South Catalina street, the occasion celebrating the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Ward Gibson of 1934 West Boulevard, and welcoming home Mrs. Horace McBryde, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the South for the past three months. A Yuletide motif was charmingly carried out with red carnations, ferns and red candles. Those included were Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Horace McBryde, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, William Russell Neal and Mrs. Alexander Haynes Levy.

Family Reunion

One of the enjoyable affairs of recent date was the family reunion at which Mr. and Mrs. Roth Hamilton were hosts at their home, 571 Ardmore avenue, Thanksgiving Day. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Edward Hambrook (Mignon Hamilton) came down from their home in San Mateo bringing their small daughter, Mignon Elizabeth. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swain Havens (Lorraine Hamilton) came from their home at Scripps College, Claremont, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bruce Hamilton (Rachel Blake) with their children, Blake and Robin Lorraine, also joined the party.

Mrs. Hambrook will be here for another ten days and is being much entertained, Mrs. Gerald Hamilton giving a bridge tea for her last Tuesday afternoon, while Wednesday Miss Gwendolyn Longyear gave her a luncheon at the California Club followed by a matinee party and Friday afternoon Mrs. Fred Ford was hostess at a luncheon party for her at her home in Morton avenue and Thursday afternoon Mrs. Seymour Tally gave a luncheon at her Canyon Drive home for the visitor, taking her guests to the theater afterward.

Lecturer Entertained

As a charming courtesy to Miss Lila Van Kirk, who is giving a series of illustrated talks on Italy at the Ambassador, Mrs. Charles Jeffras entertained at luncheon in the Spanish Patio. Besides Miss Van Kirk, Mrs. Jeffras's guests included Mmes. William Kely Thompson, Albert Llewellyn Cheney, William T. Bishop, Jr., William Caldwell and Miss Virginia Woods, who is sponsoring the talks.

Mrs. Brittain Padgitt, formerly of Dallas, Tex., and her cousin, Mrs. Ruth Moon of Beverly Hills, formerly of Abilene, Tex., were joint hostesses at a luncheon in the Spanish Patio, following the talk at which they assembled a dozen Texas folk here for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Padgitt, who are well known in Lone Star social circles, have a most attractive young daughter, Miss Sara Padgitt. At the second of the series Miss Van Kirk was honor guest at the luncheon in the Spanish Patio given by Mrs. Constance Deighton-Simpson, a dozen guests being bidden, and Mrs. Patrick McGill, wife of the celebrated British author, sharing honors with Miss Van Kirk. Others included Mrs. Lucien Napoleon Brunswig, Mrs. Henry Seward Van Dyke, Mrs. Robert Henderson, Mrs. West Hughes, Mrs. Frank Burton Chapin, Mrs. Hans Briesen (Alice Henry,) Miss Catherine Wheeler of San Francisco, Miss Louise Hayward of Vancouver, B. C., Miss Virginia Woods and the hostess. Tomorrow morning, the 10th inst., Miss Van Kirk will talk on Mussolini and Fascism, this being the last of the series.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

HAM TIMBALES WITH BRUSSELS SPROUTS

Beat two eggs until light and creamy, add one cupful of finely chopped cold cooked ham, one-fourth of a cupful of fine bread crumbs, a seasoning of salt, paprika, a half a teaspoonful of thyme, and marjoram, add one and one-half cupfuls of milk; mix thoroughly, and turn into individual molds that have been well oiled. Place on top of each mold a slice of hard-boiled egg, and a few capers, place in a baking pan, surround with water, and bake until firm. Unmold on a hot dish, surround with Brussels sprouts that have been cooked seasoned with butter, salt and pepper and a cream sauce poured over them. Garnish with branches of parsley.

LEMON APPLE PIE

Peel and core three medium-sized apples, and chop them fine, mix with them one tablespoonful of grated lemon rind and one-third of a cupful of lemon juice, beat two eggs, add to them half a cupful of sugar, and three-quarters of a cupful of finely rolled cracker crumbs, add this to the apple mixture, and two tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Pour into a pastry-lined dish, cover with a crust, place in a hot oven for the first ten minutes, then reduce the heat and continue the baking.

SPOON BREAD

Place two cupfuls of boiling water, to which has been added a half-teaspoon of salt in a double boiler, then gradually stir in two cups of corn meal, stir and cook for ten minutes. Remove from the fire, cool slightly, and beat in one cupful of sour milk or buttermilk; then add one level teaspoonful of baking soda, four tablespoonfuls of melted butter, and three well-beaten eggs, mix well, pour into a well-buttered dish and bake in a moderate oven for forty-five minutes. Serve from the dish with a spoon.

MINT DRESSING

Place eighteen mint leaves in a small bowl and bruise them with the back of a wooden spoon, add four tablespoonfuls of cider vinegar and let stand for one hour. Mix two-thirds of a cupful of oil with half a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of paprika, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of sugar, and the strained mint vinegar; beat well, allowing it to chill before using. Pour over hearts of lettuce or tomato salad.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

CHARMING BRIDE TO LIVE HERE

She Arrives From Hawaii Honeymoon

Mrs. Peter Holden Young

ONE of the charming brides who has come from afar to make her home in the Southland is Mrs. Peter Holden Young, who before her marriage last October was Miss Marion Hocksmith, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hocksmith of Okmulgee, Okla., where the elaborate church wedding took place.

Mr. and Mrs. Young have returned from their honeymoon in Honolulu and are at home to their many friends at the Afton Arms, 6141 Afton Place.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

A Nonskid

One mother has a white rubber stair tread which she places in the bottom of baby's bath tub while bathing him. Then he never has one of those frightening "slips" into the water.

Easier on the Pockets

When sewing pockets on children's suits or rompers, set them low enough that the little fingers cannot reach to the bottom of the pocket. Then the hands cannot be pushed so far into them to tear them off.

A Practice Board

It is well to keep the youngster's black board in the kitchen. Mother almost always spend the hour before dinner here and sonny could get most of his lessons done at this time with mother on hand to help with the more difficult work.

Close the Door

When having coal put in the cellar be sure the cellar door leading to the house is closed. Otherwise, you will have that fine coal dust over the furniture on the first floor.

Shabby Trunks

We remark that the trunk is so shabby and then do nothing at all about it. Wash it off well and when dry, give it a coat of clear varnish. It will improve it wonderfully.

His teeth were just as long and just as sharp as the teeth of any other Muskrat and he knew how to use them. So he had soon won the respect of his brothers and sisters and they seldom tried to take advantage of him.

Up he went, just a usual, and bumped his nose

He was planning to spend the winter in the big house of his parents, Jerry and Mrs. Jerry. There was plenty of room. In fact, one of his sisters was planning to spend the winter there also. With Jerry and Mrs. Jerry there would be four—and four would be very comfortable, indeed. Stumpy didn't know what this winter that his father talked about could be like. You see, it would be his first winter. He knew nothing of snow or ice. He wondered what it would be like. He liked the cold weather. It made him feel good. He rejoiced in his fine warm coat. He didn't know that it was for that coat that the trapper had tried to catch him.

Came a night at last when the stars seemed unusually bright and near. Not a single little Night Breeze was moving. Stumpy went to bed early. So did the others. Stumpy was the first awake in the morning. It was very early. In fact, it was still quite dark. Stumpy entered the underwater hall and glided down and out into the Smiling Pool. Then he turned his head up to swim up to the surface to get fresh air. Up he went just as usual and bumped his nose! Yes, sir, Stumpy bumped his nose against the top of the Smiling Pool. A more surprised Muskrat never lived.

You [illegible] pleaded, scolded [illegible]. You have told her [illegible] what she must [illegible] of this sort of [illegible] timidity. [illegible] at your blindness. Would you be scared and tongue-tied and self-conscious? You answer that.

LET CHILD ALONE

This is what you do to the child: These visitors aren't people whom she might enjoy and run and speak to and cuddle up against. They are "adults" who have to be addressed in a certain way and answered politely when spoken to. Naturally your little girl runs a mile at the sight of them and can't be induced to come from behind the door or to open her mouth in their presence.

School affords just as good training in sociability as dancing schools. All you need to do now to cure this excessive timidity is to let the child alone. Adults will speak to her and in time, if nothing happens and she has no rules to follow, she'll answer back. Imitation of the social behavior and manners she sees around her is too powerful a form of suggestion for her to combat if she isn't scared to death beforehand by a mother who wants her to make a good impression.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

LA GRIPPE

La Grippe is another alias for our unpleasant acquaintance, influenza. Scarcely a year passes by without this disease appearing in epidemic form in some part of the world. About three or four times per century this disease becomes almost a world-wide pandemic. The disease may appear at any time of the year, but most people seem to be more susceptible during the winter months.

It is quite likely that either you or some of your friends may be laid up for two weeks or more with the "flu" this winter, and I know that you are going to need information for preventing or curing La Grippe, either in your family or among your friends, so I am giving you the information early in the season. I would suggest that you read today's and tomorrow's articles and keep them on hand so you will know what to do if a wave of flu occurs near you.

It is very important that one knows how to properly care for a case of influenza. Very few other common diseases have such crippling after effects, and if these are to be avoided, it is very necessary that the right treatment be used. One of the most dangerous complications of flu is a form of pneumonia, which is more often fatal than ordinary pneumonia. Flu also causes many crippled and disabled hearts, the heart being injured by the toxins which are present in the blood during the disease. Flu may also give rise to sinus and ear infections, and is frequently followed by great weakness and nervous prostration which lasts over a long time. Occasionally, the disease also causes a loss of smell, neuralgia, and muscular weakness.

Shakespeare and Cromwell are two of the great men who are said to have been cut down by influenza. Many other famous men have been handicapped by the after effects of this disease, among them Swift, Carlyle and Chopin. A British authority, Sir William Haner, says that influenza is especially severe on men of genius, and that many of the world's greatest thinkers have been killed by it.

Influenza often starts like a cold in the head. Guard against the disease if you feel any of the following symptoms: Severe chill followed by fever; splitting headache; great pain in the back and head; profound weakness; mental depression along with running of the nose; coughing up a yellowish material, with the cough worse at night; soreness in the upper chest; inflamed throat and a general aching or soreness which seems to lodge in the bones. Typical cases sometimes come on suddenly, the worker having to drop everything on account of sudden weakness. There seems to be three main types of flu, one attacking the intestines, one the lungs, and the other the nervous system.

To assure yourself against influenza it is wise to avoid overcrowded and overheated conditions. It is important to see that you obtain plenty of sleep so that you do not become tired out. If the flu is all about you, the best plan is to start at once to clean out your body so that you will not be as likely to develop this ailment which has taken its toll of so many lives. Start by taking a fruit fast for two or three days, using any one kind of fruit from this list for your meals: oranges, grapefruit, apples or tomatoes. Take only one kind of fruit on one day. At the same time, you must not neglect to keep your bowels open and should use one or two enemas per day.

College Mourns Beloved Janitor

The flag is at half-mast today at the University of California at Los Angeles, marking the passing of a colorful and beloved campus figure. William Scott, 62-year-old janitor, died of a heart attack while performing his duties in the training school department of the university.

His death was discovered yesterday morning by children of the training school department studying under U.C.L.A. student instructors.

Street Medicine Peddler Guilty

Dan Chandler, Main-street medicine peddler, was found guilty of practicing medicine without a license by a jury in Municipal Judge Bogue's court yesterday. He will be sentenced today.

Witnesses called by Deputy City Prosecutor Avery testified that Chandler diagnosed their illnesses and prescribed patent "cures" for them.

CITY CONTRACTS AWARDED

Two contracts for public improvements were awarded yesterday by the Board of Public Works. They are for the paving of Towne avenue between Florence avenue and Seventy-first street, $6438.53; and for the sewering of the Avenue Fifty-six and Upperton avenue district, $1738.85.

HONORS WORK ALLOWED FOR COLLEGE SENIORS

As an experiment in offering to superior students of Occidental College an opportunity for independent study, a plan has been inaugurated offering honors work to seniors of this year, according to Dr. R. G. Cleland, dean, who yesterday announced the recent action of the faculty. This decision is a part of a broad reorganization of academic method in Occidental which includes also the establishment of comprehensive final examinations for senior students as a condition for graduation, Dean Cleland said.

Stating that more general plans for independent study would be considered later in the light of this year's experience, the committee report to the faculty, which was adopted in full, will make it possible for any superior senior student, with the approval of his faculty advisory committee and the dean, to enroll for a limited amount of independent study in his major field.

The honors work probably will include directed reading, essays, reports, outlines and reviews. A final individual examination, oral or written, or both, will be given by the entire department faculty. Failure at any time to demonstrate satisfactory progress may result in the recall of the privileges of independent study and the limitation of the student to regular work.

The plan at Occidental applies this year only to seniors and is limited to two for each full-time member of the faculty in any department.

The comprehensive final examination plan which was adopted provides that beginning in 1931, any department wishing to do so may offer comprehensive final examinations. The examinations may be either written or oral, or both, and shall be conducted by a committee appointed by the divisional advisory committee, one member of which may be from outside the department.

Seniors who take comprehensive examinations in June will be excused from all course examinations in upper division courses for which they may be registered during the second semester of this academic year.

WOMAN TO FACE TRIAL IN KILLING

Slayer of Man Held at Preliminary Hearing

Defendant Declares Acts in Self-Defense

Witnesses Tell of Beating She Had Received

Declaring that he believes a jury should be allowed to determine whether Jennie Cuvillier, 34 years of age, was justified in stabbing to death her sweetheart, Glenn Carter, 35, Municipal Judge Frederickson yesterday ordered her held for Superior Court trial on a charge of murder.

Judge Frederickson denied a motion to dismiss the charge by Moses Davis, defense attorney, declaring the evidence established a homicide was committed and there is reason to believe Miss Cuvillier committed it. "It is not the province of this court to determine whether she was justified," he said. "From the evidence I am inclined to believe she was, but with all of the evidence in front of it a jury will have no difficulty in deciding the case." Davis did not put on a defense.

Witnesses called by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Sullivan testified Carter died as a result of knife wounds in the chest. When arrested Miss Cuvillied said she was forced to stab him to protect herself, as he was attempting to choke her to death. Police officers yesterday declared she showed marks of a terrific beating when they arrived on the scene. The stabbing occurred November 30, last.

At the Coroner's inquest the jury reported the killing justifiable.

Estate Funds Paid to State

The treasury of Los Angeles county yesterday remitted to the treasury of the State of California the sum of $45,318.06, that being the amount of money derived by the Public Administrator from the estates of deceased persons who died in the county during the past year without heirs.

Superior Judge Doran approved the transfer of the funds as required by law.

DEPUTY SHERIFF PERCY ROGERS

Their Bravery in Thwarting Hold-up Men Receives Substantial Recognition

AWARDS totaling $1750 were presented by the Security-First National Bank yesterday to the three citizens who last Tuesday effected the capture of a bandit-trio following a hold-up of the bank's branch at Sixty-ninth street and Western avenue.

To Gordon Corson went a check for $1000, to Deputy Sheriff Percy Rogers one for $500 and to Mrs. E. F. Triplitt a third for $250 in recognition of their courage. Corson first frustrated escape of the bandits by shooting Philip Holden as the latter sat at the wheel of the robbery car. Rogers shortly afterward captured Tom Coffey, second member of the trio, following a running gun fight. Mrs. Triplitt talked the third gunman, Delbert Hudson, into surrendering after he had forced her to conceal him in her home.

The checks were presented by Herbert H. Smock, vice-president and cashier.

"Our action may be looked upon as a form of co-operation to help the public get the upper hand of the crime situation which is fast becoming intolerable," he said. "The courageous initiative and extraordinary valor displayed by young Corson and Mrs. Triplitt is an indication that our citizenry is becoming thoroughly aroused about it. It shows [illegible] old vigilante spirit of [illegible] not dead. Deputy Sh[illegible] carrying out his aw[illegible] showed great bravery.

"While the bank suffers no monetary loss because of hold-ups as it carries insurance against such contingencies, it is nevertheless quite as anxious to stamp out the ravaging epidemic of hold-ups as though it were not indemnified."

AUTO THIEF WINS CLEMENCY

James Daugherty, a radio salesman, 24 years of age, told United States District Judge Hazel of numerous difficulties he has encountered and escaped with a suspended sentence of four months in jail for violation of the Dyer Act. Among his troubles the defendant listed family disturbances and the business depression. He stated that he took a car not his own at Joplin, Mo., and drove it to Yuma, leaving it there.

LOS FELIZ SPOT ZONE ADVANCED

Application for Business on Boulevard Favored by Building Group Majority

Following a public hearing yesterday afternoon the City Planning Committee decided to submit two reports to the City Council Monday morning on the application of Ben Frank to erect a business building at Los Feliz Boulevard and Lowry Road.

Councilman Randall, upon the conclusion of the hearing, moved that Frank's application be denied. Councilman Holland said he favors the application. Councilman Webster, chairman, declined to indicate his attitude, but he will sign one of the two reports, thus automatically making it the majority.

The matter of letting business buildings in on Los Feliz Boulevard has agitated the city government in the past, and the City Planning Commission has refused this same application before. Without much flurry or ado, the commission recently again reversed itself, this time granting the Frank application.

A large group of Los Feliz residents and property owners appeared before the committee and protested the invasion of business. They contend there is ample business zoning near Los Feliz without turning over the boulevard itself to commercial structures.

Inquest Set in Fatal Shooting

Circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Lydia Sorrell, 44 years of age, fatally shot last Saturday night when a gun her husband, Richard G. Sorrell, was cleaning was discharged, according to a police report, are scheduled to be revealed at 2 p.m. today in an inquest at the Coroner's office.

The shooting occurred at the family home at 106 West Eighty-seventh street, while Sorrell was preparing the gun for a hunting trip for the couple's two sons, police reported.

DR. W. C. FISKE GOES TO TRIAL

Elderly Physician Accused of Murdering Girl

Vera Nelson's Death Laid to Illegal Operation

Parents of Victim First Witnesses Heard

Charged with the murder of 18-year-old Vera Nelson as a result of her death from an assertedly illegal operation, Dr. William C. Fiske, 70 years of age, Hermosa Beach physician, went to trial yesterday in Superior Judge Hardy's court. The physician's trial had been deferred for two months because of his illness.

The first details surrounding Miss Nelson's death were told from the witness stand by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson of 717 South Westlake avenue. Mrs. Nelson, the first to take the witness stand, identified the victim in the case as her daughter and told of her leaving their home last September to go to Hermosa Beach.

When Miss Nelson failed to return within two days, Mr. Nelson testified, he went to the beach city to find her. He found her ill but was told that she would recover within a few days. This was September 18, last. Two days later Mr. Nelson returned to find his daughter dead.

At the same time relatives of Dr. Fiske, worried about his failure to return home on that date, asked Barney Briggs, his nephew, to call at his office. The nephew testified he found Dr. Fiske unconscious in his office with the gas turned on. Young Briggs turned off the gas, called police and succeeded in reviving his uncle. This occurred in Dr. Fiske's office at 57 Pier avenue, Hermosa Beach.

Briggs was followed to the witness stand by Dr. Frank Webb, autopsy surgeon, who will resume his testimony today, according to James P. Costello, deputy District Attorney prosecuting the case.

Salvation Army Veteran Dies at Her Home Here

MRS FANNIE FIELD WEST

Mrs. Fannie Field West, retired staff captain of the Salvation Army, one of the oldest officers in length of service in the entire south coast division, died unexpectedly yesterday at her home, 1007 West Thirty-fifth street, following a brief illness. She was 62 years of age.

Mrs. West, who was a member of one of the first classes to be graduated from the old Los Angeles Normal School, started her Salvation Army career at Santa Barbara, devoting her life to the work of the organization until her retirement several years ago. Her last appointment had been in the Hawaiian Islands.

She leaves her husband, Staff Captain James C. West, and a daughter, Mrs. Capt. Walter Jackson of Vancouver, Wash. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Balloon Note of 'Captive Girl' Looks Like Joke

Little credence was placed by police in a note found attached to a toy balloon yesterday in which the writer, signing herself "Agnes," stated she was being held captive by two "Spanish men," and pleaded to be saved.

The balloon, with the note attached by a string, was found by J. Yananaka in the rear yard of his home at 865 Minto Court.

The note read: "Help. Save me. I am being held captive by two Spanish men. This will be my only means of escape. I think I am in Long Beach because I hear the waves. Please give this to the police," [Signed] "Agnes."

It was written on a dirty piece of note paper with a pencil. Police expressed the opinion that it is the work of a jokester.

Curb Proposed on Jobless Levy

Councilman Lewis, in a resolution introduced yesterday in the City Council, calls for a halt in the indiscriminate levying of 1 per cent on all city employees' wages and salaries for an unemployment fund.

The resolution was referred to the Efficiency and Personnel Committee for report. It proposes that the contributions to the fund be limited only to those employees receiving more than $175 per month. He points out that many employees with families have obligations to meet which will make an additional outgo of 1 per cent a hardship.

The members of the Board of Public Works, at their meeting yesterday, pledged themselves by signing cards agreeing to pay their 1 per cent, or $20 over a period of four months.

HUSBAND IN PRISON, WIFE GETS DIVORCE

Writing bad checks put her husband in San Quentin prison, Mrs. Hazel O. McFadden testified yesterday in Superior Judge Hazlett's court, where she obtained a divorce from John J. McFadden. The wife produced evidence that McFadden was convicted April 3, last, in the Tulare County Superior Court. Judge Hazlett granted the decree. The wife's lawyer, Jesse A. Gyger, announced that McFadden wrote from prison urging that the wife be awarded alimony, but the matter was not pressed.

Dec. 8. (AP)—The draft controversy came of harassed baseball reporters covering the midwinter meet up of the National and American leagues today and gave them something to write about.

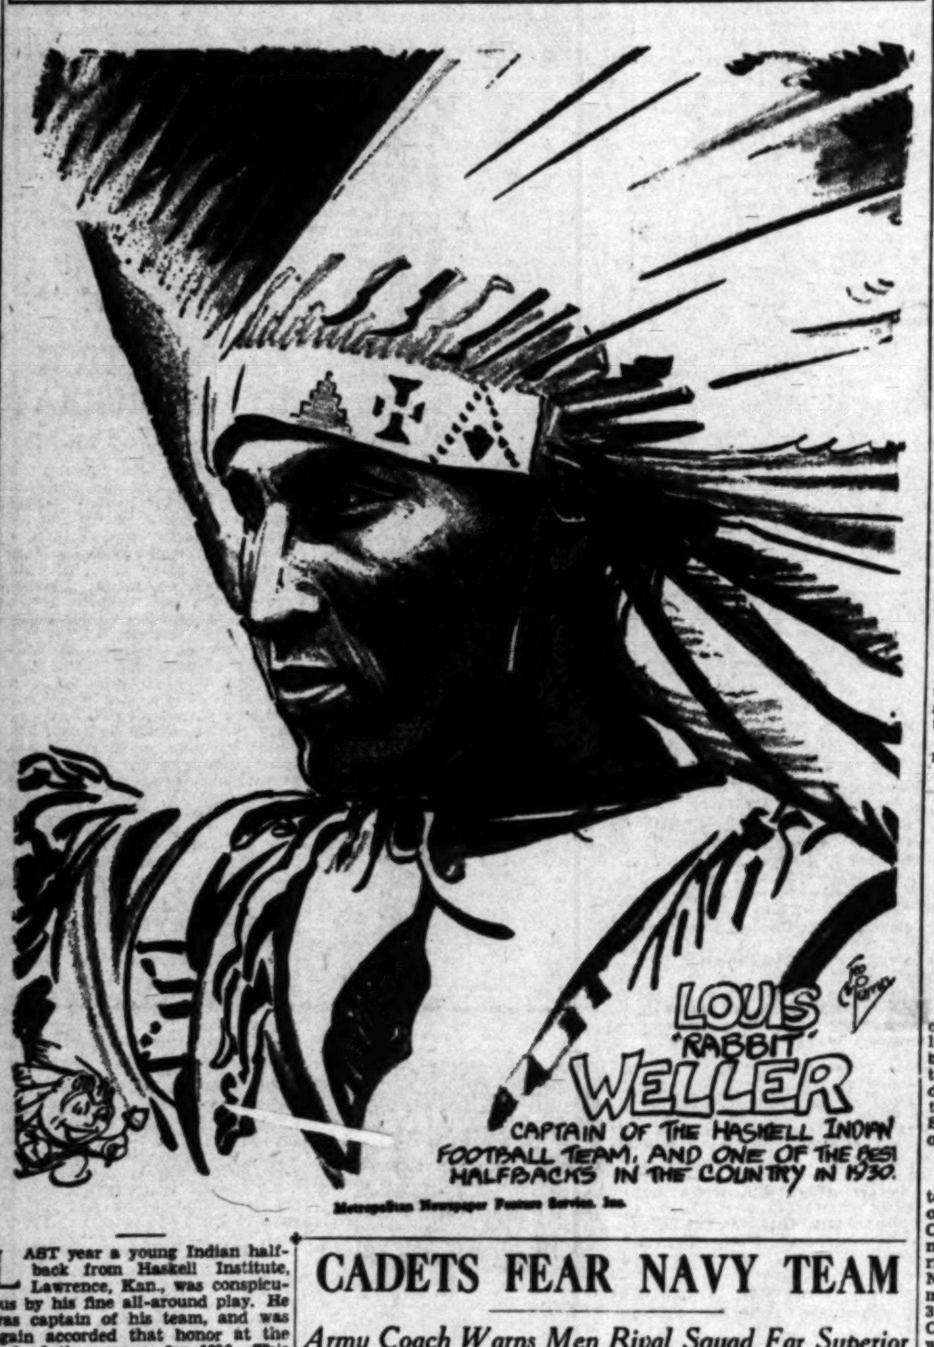
HEAP BIG CHIEF - - - By Feg Murray



LOUIS "RABBIT" WELLER
CAPTAIN OF THE HASKELL INDIAN FOOTBALL TEAM, AND ONE OF THE BEST HALFBACKS IN THE COUNTRY IN 1930.
Feg Murray

Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

LAST year a young Indian halfback from Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kan., was conspicuous by his fine all-around play. He was captain of his team, and was again accorded that honor at the end of the season, for 1930. This year he played even better, and the name of Louis Weller was known far and wide as one of the best ball carriers in the country.

At the end of the current season pickers of all-American teams here and there showed that they weren't overlooking "big players on little teams" by putting Louis Weller on their first or second elevens. On a major eleven, or a larger university with a legendary football background such as Yale or Harvard, Louis Weller would have been a nationally known star.

Haskell's "Big Chief" ran back a kick-off 104 yards to a touchdown in one of the early season's contests in 1930. There were few trick-

CADETS FEAR NAVY TEAM

Army Coach Warns Men Rival Squad Far Superior to Form Shown Previously This Season

WEST POINT (N. Y.) Dec. 8. (AP)—Launching practice today in preparation for the big charity game with the Navy in New York on Saturday, Maj. Ralph I. Sasse, Army football coach, sounded a warning that "The Navy is 100 per cent better than at any previous time this season."

MAJOR RALPH SASSE

"Bill Ingram has developed a smooth running attack which is perfectly co-ordinated," said Sasse, who saw the Midshipmen in their decisive victory over Penn on Saturday. "It is obvious the team has found itself.

"On the defense the Navy was alert and strong. Another phase of the game which they have mastered is blocking and tackling. The interference took out its men perfectly, showing fine teamwork, and the tackling was hard and clean.

"There is no doubt next Saturday the Army will meet one of the strongest teams in the East if not the country."

LAUDS KIRN

Sasse was particularly impressed by "Kirn, a fast back; Tuttle at center, Bowstrom, tackle, and Williams at quarterback."

"Bowstrom's punting," Sasse said, "was outstanding and Williams's selection of plays was excellent. Furthermore, if Navy has any more substitutes like Hurley, who replaced Kirn, we will be in for an unpleasant afternoon."

The Army, Maj. Sasse said, "unconsciously reached its peak for the Notre Dame game at Chicago. To keep the squad from going stale, we broke training after that game for three days. Now we are trying to build up.

"We will certainly be unable to put our full strength on the field. Sebastian, first-string halfback, is definitely out for the rest of the season. This morning I visited Armstrong, Malloy, Trice, Hilsinger and Summerfelt in the hospital. All these men are regular players and their absence next Saturday will be sorely felt.

"Carlmark has never fully recovered from his injuries incurred in the Yale game. Stecker and Frentzel are also on the injured list. It will be a good game, though."

During the practice session, Sasse lined up his first team with Messenger and King at ends, Carlson and Humber, guards; Suarez and Price, tackles; Miller at center, Bowman at quarterback, Glattly and Fields, halfbacks, and Herb at fullback.

MIDSHIPMEN IN SHAPE TO PLAY

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Dec. 8. (AP)—Coach Bill Ingram of the Navy, believing the three weeks' comparative rest which his regulars had before the Penn game last Saturday did them more good than a rough-and-tumble preparation program, today started to prepare for the charity game with the Army in New York on Saturday with a light workout.

Ingram believes his regulars have reached the peak of their strength, having recovered from the battering received in five hard games in

If you want to know what "Bucky" O'Connor said to Pinckert and Duffield as he dashed down the field for that sensational touchdown for the Notre Dame team, then tune in on KHJ—It will be worth while.

ROCKNE PICKS IRISH ELEVEN

Glittering Collection of Gridders in Elks' Game

Stars of Last Three Years Selected by Knute

Parisien, Flanagan, Elder Don Unies Again

A rare collection of Notre Dame football players, equal, if not superior to the brilliant troop who raced to victory last Saturday, will be in the Coliseum on the 27th inst., for the all-star game, sponsored by the Los Angeles Elks' Lodge, No. 99.

MARTY BRILL

Knute Rockne, speeding eastward with the Rhythmic Ramblers, yesterday wired a list of Irish athletes who will return with him within ten days to prepare for the collision with an all-star eleven from the Pacific Coast and Far South.

And what a list! Read 'em and reel:

Ends: Voedisch, Walsh, O'Brien and Conley.
Tackles: Twomey, Bach, Donahue and McNamara.
Guards: Metzger, Law, Cannon, Kassis.
Center: Moynihan.
Halfbacks: Elder, Flanagan, Leahy, Parisien, Chevigny, O'Connor and Brill.
Quarterbacks: Carideo, Harrison, Ebert.
Fullbacks: Savoldi and Mullins.

Apparently Rockne is taking few or no chances on marring the sterling record he has established in battle with Pacific Coast teams. If the Irish were invincible on Saturday, there is no word to describe the machine that the wizard of South Bend can build from this outfit.

FOND MEMORIES

The Coliseum greensward ought to bring back a flock of fond memories to little Art Parisien and Christy Flanagan, whose names are noted in the backfield. It was Parisien who entered the 1927 Trojan-Notre Dame battle in the closing minutes of play and left-handed a 35-yard pass that beat Southern California. And it was Flanagan who raced, romped and wriggled up and down the chalk-lines in a series of spectacular lightning-like darts that have seldom been equaled.

Rockne, picking his team, has drawn chiefly from the 1930, '29, and '28 teams, two of which went undefeated to national championships, and the other through a gruelling schedule to five victories and four defeats.

The Irish will entrain for the

FAIR STARS OF RANCHO TAKE LEAD

Shut Out Hollywood Team as San Gabriel Players Hold California

Women golfers from Rancho scored a clean sweep, 12 to 0, over Hollywood yesterday to pass the California Country Club team in the annual race for women's team play honors.

MRS. LEONA PRESSLER

California enjoyed a 2½ point lead over Rancho at the start of yesterday matches, but barely nosed out San Gabriel 6½ to 5½, while Hollywood was being swept by Rancho, and lost the lead.

Rancho now has 38½ points to California's 35½.

In the battle for third place in the standings Los Angeles defeated Fox Hills 6½-5½, and drew to within a half-point of the latter team. Fox Hills now has 28 points, and Los Angeles 27½.

Mrs. Leona Pressler and Mrs. A. N. Edwards captured 2½ points for San Gabriel in the latter team's sturdy stand against California, winning from Mrs. Roy Green and Mrs. R. S. Edwards. Mrs. Pressler turned in a 75 over the tricky Flintridge course. She and her partner had a best ball of 75 to and 81 for their opponents. On the 336 yard fifteenth, Mrs. Pressler's second stopped an inch from the hole.

The team results:

FOX HILLS, 5½; LOS ANGELES, 6½.
Mrs. Chris Raysor and Mrs. Willie Hunter (F.H.) 1½; Mrs. George M. Lewis and Mrs. W. W. Campbell (L.A.) 1½.
Mrs. Gus Dembling and Mrs. D. V. Seber (F.H.) 2½; Mrs. F. S. Hardin and Mrs. H. D. Hammond (L.A.) ½.
Mrs. Cliff Towner and Miss Eileen Weldon (F.H.) 1; Mrs. C. W. Cook and Mrs. George Midgley (L.A.) 2.
Mrs. R. A. Speicher and Mrs. Joe Orohman (F.H.) ½; Mrs. Clark Reynolds and Miss Gertrude Comstock (L.A.) 2½.

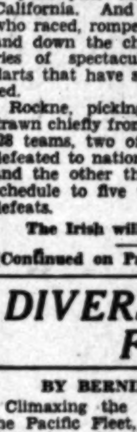
DIVERS WILL DEFEND FLEET GRID LAURELS

BY BERNIE HARVEY

Climaxing the football year for the Pacific Fleet, eleven sailormen from the submarine base at San Diego will meet the U.S.S. Maryland aggregation tomorrow afternoon on Trona Field to decide the Battle Fleet title, which the Divers have captured for seven consecutive years.



A win for the Maryland will bring the pennant back to the local base, so the "Big Mary" squad is out to score a direct hit on the conning tower of the Subs' offense. The Divers are one of the strongest service aggregations, and have beaten several of the Southland's smaller college teams, while the Maryland's competition has consisted mostly of teams from the various naval craft stationed at the local base.

Both teams, however, have a strong aerial offensive attack and tomorrow's game might be decided via the pass route. Game time has been set at 2 o'clock, and the seating has been arranged to accommodate a capacity crowd of about 5000 people.

"Pickles" Hintz, all-Navy heavyweight champ last year, will fight Sailor Smith of the U.S.S. Tennessee in the battleship divisions championship smoker which will be held at Trona Field in San Pedro next Friday afternoon.

Johnny Dramen of the U.S.S. Mississippi will mix with Sosh of the flagship West Virginia for the welterweight title. Contestants in the other weights have not been decided as the eliminations are still being run off, but all of the classes will be represented when the show is staged Friday.

The wrestling bouts are to be run off at 10 o'clock in the morning, and the fistic encounters will follow at 2 o'clock. Lieut. Kennedy has been selected to referee the boxing matches.

A sailing regatta which is set for the 16th inst. will open the battle divisions' boat schedule for this year. There are three races booked

GRIFFITH POSTS MONEY FOR SCHMELING MATCH

CHICAGO, Dec. 8. (Exclusive)—Jack O'Keefe who directs Tuffy Griffith's boxing business, posted a $2500 forfeit today with the Illinois Boxing Commissioners, as stipulation of willingness to meet Max Schmeling, the world's heavyweight champion, if Griffith defeats Young Stribling Friday night at the stadium.

"The National Boxing Association threatens to vacate Schmeling's title," O'Keefe said, "if Max doesn't abide with the rule which demands he defend his title within six months. There's been a lot of conversation about how Stribling would get the shot at the title after he finishes Tuffy Friday night. Pa Stribling has posted $5000 to bind such a match.

"So I dropped in to meet the commissioners with my certified check to remind the public that Tuffy hasn't been whipped by Stribling and that we expect to get that title match after Friday's bout has been recorded in favor of Tuffy."

TROJANS AND BRUINS WON'T PLAY NEXT YEAR

Southern California Has Better Program Than 1930 Schedule; Jones and Phelan Bury Ax

BY BRAVEN DYER

Coaches and graduate managers of Pacific Coast Conference universities and colleges met at the Biltmore yesterday and drew up their 1931 football schedules.

It was a long drawn-out meeting, lasting from morning until dinner time, and all was peace and harmony save between the Trojans of Southern California and the Bruins of U. C. L. A. Southern California offered their local foes the opening date, September 26, but U. C. L. A. turned this down. The Bruins countered with November 14, but Southern California said "nothing doing" and that was the end of the argument. The break in gridiron relations may be for only one year and does not affect other sports such as basketball, track and baseball.

HOWARD JONES

Howard Jones and Jimmy Phelan got together early in the day and ironed out differences which were said to exist between them due to the Washington-Southern California game here on Thanksgiving Day. "Everything is all right," was Jones's only comment after their confab. The Trojan mentor, prior to the Notre Dame debacle, accused his last foe (obviously Washington) of unethical tactics on the field of battle. But the two mentors sat side by side during part of yesterday's conference and the Husky-Trojan game, billed for December 5 next fall, stays on the schedule where there had been rumors of a possible split.

OPEN AGAINST GAELS

Southern California will open the season against St. Mary's here on September 26, although there is a possibility that the Trojans may schedule an earlier game for September 19 with some foe of lesser ability. The Saints last played against Southern California here in the third game of the 1928 season and Southern California won, 19 to 6.

The Trojan schedule is a great improvement over this year. Jones's boys play seven Conference opponents, Notre Dame and St. Mary's, which is a fair enough assignment for anybody's football team.

Redondo and Long Beach Battle for Southland Grid Championship Saturday in Colise

JACKRABBITS DEFEND TITLE

Coach Landreth Benches Two Star Linemen

Coast League Champs Have Impressive Record

Title-holders Claim Eight Victories in Row

BY IRVING ECKHOFF

Bruised and battered from last week's encounter with the Santa Barbara Golden Tornado, Coach Lloyd Waller's Redondo Seahawks started practice yesterday for their game with Long Beach Saturday afternoon in the Coliseum which will decide the 1930 Southern California football champion.

COACH LLOYD WALLER

Coach Orian Landreth's Jackrabbits are the defending Southland title-holders and as such will take the field favored to retain their crown. Long Beach went straight through the season undefeated last year, its record, however, being marred by three ties, Hollywood, Manual Arts and Santa Ana holding the Jackrabbits to even scores.

This year, Manual Arts chalked up an 18-7 early season practice-game victory over Long Beach. Since then Landreth's eleven has not been turned back and has won eight straight games, which include victories over Hollywood, Compton, Fullerton, Pasadena, Santa Ana, Alhambra, San Diego and Whittier.

Counting in the Toiler defeat, Long Beach has run up a point total of 163 in nine games, while holding the opposition to 60 points.

NOT IMPRESSIVE

Redondo's record is not so impressive, losing to Fremont, 12-7, in a practice game and to Inglewood, 19-13, in a league encounter. The Seahawks have played nine games, the same total as Long Beach; registering wins over Compton, San Pedro, Santa Monica, Huntington Park, Venice, Covina and Santa Barbara.

Redondo's point total for the nine struggles is 147, or 16 points below the Jackrabbits; while the Seahawks' opposition has registered 72 points, two touchdowns more than have been made on Long Beach.

One comparison of scores is possible, both teams having met Compton; Long Beach beat the Tartars, 14-0; while Redondo ran wild to chalk up a 33-13 win. Using these figures, Waller's Seahawks should win Saturday's contest by a 6-point margin.

However, as comparison of scores usually means nothing, the above margin is not to be relied upon.

The Santa Barbara game took quite a bit of pepper out of the Seahawks and Waller isn't going to overwork the boys this week in practice. Practically every one on the team boasts bruises. However, none of them is serious and while Waller isn't very optimistic, Redondo will undoubtedly give Long Beach all the fight it wants.

BENCH STARS

Because of their poor showing in the Whittier game, last Saturday, two star linemen of the Long Beach eleven were benched in last night's practice by Coach Landreth. Bob Carlton, all-Coast League tackle, and Harold Abraham, guard, were the two to get the ax.

Frank Parks replaced Carlton at tackle, while Duane Taylor moved over from left to right guard in Abraham's position, with Russ Green taking Taylor's place at left guard.

Landreth is worried about the Jackrabbit offensive, it failing to work very well in the last three games. He hopes, however, to get the plays clicking again, and will, in all probability, give the Seahawks a chance to try out their defense work against passes.

Here are the two teams' records:

Long Beach	7	Manual Arts	18
Long Beach	20	Hollywood	7
Long Beach	14	Compton	0
Long Beach	19	Fullerton	0
Long Beach	27	Pasadena	6

TIGER HOCKEYITES TO PLAY THURSDAY

Willie Ritchie's San Francisco Tigers are the next opponents for the Los Angeles hockey club in a battle that will settle the supremacy of the California hockey circuit. These two squads mix Thursday night at the Winter Garden Ice Palace, with ladies being admitted free.

Ritchie has a whole new club this year, as well as a new manager. He signed Sam Care, a Canadian hockey official, to coach and round up some up and coming hockey players. Care made a good job of it and assembled one of the fastest sextets in the loop.

NOTRE DAME ALUMNI TAKE FISHING TRIP

A large party of Notre Dame alumni took in some Southern California deep-sea fishing yesterday, spending the day on the Star of Scotland off the Lick Pier at Ocean Park as the guests of Capt. Lew Lockhart.

The heavy mackerel run which has been under way in bay waters for the past few weeks took on added zest soon after the arrival of the several score of South Bend visitors, culminating in the bagging of several gunny sacks full.

NOTRE DAME—1930

THE SOUTH BEND SIMOON

Who is there to check the west wind, as it ambles wild and free?
Who is there to chain the cyclone or the storm surf of the sea?
Who is there to curb the terror of the forest that's aflame?
Let him rise and sing the saga of the march of Notre Dame!

Let him sing of Schwartz and Metzger with a never-ending thrill;
Of Carideo and Kassis, and of Conley, Yarr and Brill;
Of Savoldi and O'Brien, of O'Connor, Culver, Kurth,
As their flying feet in thunder spun an epic down the earth!

Let him sing of Rockne painting winning plays on land and air,
And of molding them to action in the test of do and dare;
Let him sing the art of blocking as the blue shirts onward roll
Where the path ahead is open for a gallop to the goal.

Let him sing of speed and courage,
let him sing of skill and brain,
Let him sing of plays that baffle
as they lilt across the plain;
Let him sing of steel-spun fiber in the playing of the game;
Let him rise and sing the saga of
the March of Notre Dame!

Filling the Gap

Figure, first, that Notre Dame won nine consecutive games last season. From that 1929 outfit Rockne lost an entire line, including such stars as Moynihan, Cannon, Nash, Law and Twomey. He rebuilds another line and then at the hardest spot in the schedule he loses Savoldi and then Mullins. But O'Connor and Hanley step in and the machine goes rolling off as if nothing had happened.

These nineteen consecutive victories, including two over Southern California, two over the Army, the Navy and Carnegie Tech, show the amazing amount of well-coached material on the Notre Dame squad, where gap after gap can be filled without any show of weakening. And the main answer is that no other squad has so many who are thoroughly grounded in the old-fashioned fundamentals—all that, plus a young man named Frank Carideo.

Outside of Carideo, the directing genius on the field, it seems something of a shame to place any other Notre Dame star above his mates—when you consider Schwartz, Metzger, Brill, Conley and almost any other you might name. They were a team, not a collection of individual stars.

The Army Test

The Army understands well enough now that it has a large afternoon ahead next Saturday. If there has been any mental let-down to speak of in Army ranks since the Notre Dame game the Navy may spring one of the surprises of the year against a team that held Notre Dame to a 1-point margin.

The Navy not only has good backfield material with such men as Kirn, Gannon, Hurley, Williams and Bauer, but this material has been rigged out with a fast-moving deceptive attack, a more varied attack than most eastern teams carry.

The Navy is going to find the Army line is not a Pennsylvania line it ripped up last week. Penn had a star end in Riblett, but not much else at the finish. The Army has strength from end to end. King is one of the star ends of football. Price is one of the leading tackles. This line is one of the best of them all, east or west.

Baseball Breaks in

The main thing about the annual meeting of the two big leagues in New York is that both can look forward to what should be two of the most interesting of the pennant races through 1931.

Several American League teams expect to crowd the Athletics and have more than a chance of running even with the champions, or finishing in front. Still more National League teams expect to cut down the Cardinals, where there should be a hot five-club race.

Baseball had one of its best years in 1930, and 1931 may be an even better year, with a good chance to set a new admission record, provided one or two weak spots in each league can be improved.

A Champion in Danger

Nineteen hundred and thirty has been a fairly rough year on champions and there is still another who is far from the safety zone. This happens to be Bat Battalino, who has to paw and hammer his way by Kid Chocolate on Friday night at Madison Square Garden.

The Kid hasn't been the firebrand many thought he would be, especially against La Barba, but he is good enough to annoy any fighter near his own weight, and he should have learned something from the La Barba lesson that can help him Friday night.

Leo the Diegel bounded back into the picture again by winning the first open tournament at match play, plus a bucketful of cash.

Diegel is among those who hope to pick up where Bobby Jones left off and prove his play through 1931 at both match and medal play. He will have his first big chance in the next $10,000 Los Angeles open, now one of the competitive features of the year, where, in addition to Diegel, there will be Mac Smith, Armour, Hagen, Horton Smith and the best of the talent now around.

MAJORS, MINORS MIX TOMORROW

majors were using the draft dispute as a wedge by which they might obtain further concessions from the minors, notably, an increase from eight to fifteen in the number of players the majors can option out to the minors.

However hot the fight may rage now, baseball men clung firmly to the opinion the question would be settled amicably, if not now, then some time before the opening of the season next spring.

There was little other official business transacted today. Managers of the American League clubs went into a conference with President Ernest Barnard to discuss possible improvement in playing conditions but no definite policies were adopted.

The day was a total loss so far as important trades were concerned. There was plenty of talk, but none of it developed far enough to bring about any deals.

Tomorrow both the National and American leagues will hold sessions and the National Board of Arbitration will hear evidence in the claim of Vic Aldridge, former major league pitcher, for back salary from the Newark Internationals.

Phillies Not Up for Sale

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8. (AP)—The Philadelphia National League baseball club is not for sale, it was announced tonight.

Since the death of William F. Baker, president of the club, last week, there has been speculation regarding the future ownership of the Phillies. The management tonight issued the following statement over the signature of Gerry P. Nugent, business manager:

"On behalf of the executors of the estate of William F. Baker and L. C. Ruch, I desire to state that the Philadelphia National League club is not for sale and the affairs of the club will be continued by those long associated with Mr. Baker in the management of the club."

Mr. Ruch is vice-president of the club.

to be run off during the course of the day. The first race at 8:30 a.m. will be for service motor launches, and following at 8:45 is the faster contest for crafts of the whaleboat class. At 1 o'clock a free-for-all race will be staged and should be the most interesting of all as any type craft can enter from a dinghy to a motor-sailer.

Ships of the fleet have gone to a considerable expense to secure the fastest sails obtainable for this event and many of the tars will be spending their liberties aboard after this contest.

The basketball squads have completed half of their schedule and will be on the sixth round tomorrow night when the U.S.S. Mississippi five encounter the strong flagship West Virginia hoopsters, and the U.S.S. Idaho team tangles with the U.S.S. Tennessee quintet in a double-header at the Navy "Y" in San Pedro. Ensign Tackney will referee and Ensign Roby will act as umpire to the games, which are to be staged, respectively, at 7 and 8:30 o'clock.

National Prep Cage Tourney Thing of Past

CHICAGO, Dec. 8. (AP)—The University of Chicago's national interscholastic basketball tournament—the world series of the prep court game—is a thing of the past.

Amos Alonzo Stagg, Sr., who originated the tournament which annual drew entrants from almost every State, tonight announced that the event would not be renewed, "as it apparently has served its purpose in inspiring interest in high-school basketball to the point where a national tournament no longer is necessary."

WHITEHEAD IN DRAW WITH HOWARD FRITZ

MONARCHS CAPTURE ICE HOCKEY CLASH

The Hollywood Monarchs pulled an upset on ice hockey followers at the Palais De Glace rink last night when they defeated the Maple Leafs by a 6-to-1 score. The Monarchs have been losing consistently and their victory over the third-place Maple Leafs will go down as a complete surprise on the season's list.

FIREMEN POINT FOR GRID TILT

North Dakota University Smoke-eaters' Opponent

Fire department football players coached by Bill Blewett got in their first training licks against North Dakota plays yesterday at Harvard Playground. The Smoke-eaters close their season Christmas Day at the Coliseum with the North Dakota team. Neither team has lost more than one game this season and both aggregations boast fine scoring records.

E. O. BARNETT

The North Dakota team was beaten by Army in a game where they stole a good deal of the limelight in the last quarter with sensational plays. The Firemen lost their second contest of the season to the Olympic Club in a game which found them on the wrong end of all the breaks, according to their coach, Bill Blewett.

The Firemen have trampled over such teams as West Coast Army, Arizona State College, San Jose State College, U.S.S. California, Submarine Basers, United States Marines, among others.

North Dakota has defeated teams of the caliber of Davis-Elkins, a squad that rated high with the gridiron experts the country over.

Bill Blewett is driving his men all this week and next for the game. He is confident the Smoke-eaters will close their season in a blaze of glory and he looks for the fans to support the Hook and Ladder boys in the future.

E. O. Barnett, athletic director of the local department, announced yesterday that North Dakota would have a rooting section made up of alumni and their friends for the game.

The North Dakota team will in all probability arrive here five days before game time. This would give them the chance of getting acclimated for the test with the Firemen in this section.

ST. MARY'S TO PLAY TROJANS

Doc Spears, gains a place on Southern California's calling list for the first time in many, many years. The Webfeet will appear here on October 17, just prior to the California game. Oregon also comes south to face U.C.L.A. on November 21, although there is a possibility that this may be a night game the evening before, due to the fact that Southern California plays Notre Dame at South Bend on Saturday, which will undoubtedly cause many folks to hang around their radios, although after what happened in the Coliseum three days ago many of us are now ready to concede victory to the Irish for some years to come.

Although there was talk of a game with Georgia here on the 13th inst. the Trojans made no move to schedule such a contest, although H. J. Stegeman of the southern institution has been in the city several days. The game may yet be added to the program, but the S. C. faculty athletic committee must first put its stamp of approval on such a contest and Georgia has to get consent from the Southern Conference.

Whether the open dates on Troy's program will be filled is problematical. A game may be booked prior to the Stanford encounter.

MEET COUGARS

U.C.L.A. has the nucleus of a good schedule, even though only three conference games are billed thus far. The Bruins step right out and take on the conference champions, Washington State, on October 3 and two weeks later journey to Evanston to meet Northwestern. U.C.L.A. may go north for a game with Oregon State November 7. This tussle was being considered yesterday and was on and off the schedule blackboard many times.

The complete schedule which appears in an adjoining column must be approved by the faculty representatives before it becomes official. This body waited until 5 o'clock for the coaches and graduate managers to complete their business and then adjourned until this morning when the schedule will come up for approval.

The faculty heads conducted their own business and then agreed to gather again in the spring at Portland at which time there will be considerable discussion relative to limited scouting of football games.

Thousands of fans will be glad to see St. Mary's back on Southern California's schedule. Slip Madigan's boys always put up a great game of football. The Saint coach loses a lot of good players this year but has employed his substitutes so judiciously that he will be well fixed again.

Sperbeck and Ebding, ends; McNally, tackle; Peebles, center; Weisgerber, guard; Stennett and Patterson, halfbacks; Boyle, quarter, and Barrett, fullback, are the players not returning.

P.S. Note to Notre Dame rooters who are having a lot of fun at my expense: Lay off the mail man; he's got doubly broken arches now from staggering in with your epistles. I'm cured and from now on the Irish are favorites no matter whom they play and regardless of whether Rockne has no fullbacks, halfbacks or linemen. Call him anything you want, the Melancholy mentor, the sobbing Scandinavian or the weeping wizard, it all spells Rockne to me and that's enough.

DEDICATE FIELD HOUSE

MADISON (Wis.) Dec. 8. (AP)—The University of Wisconsin will dedicate its new $500,000 field house the 18th inst. with the University of Pennsylvania basketball team engaging the Badgers. The building seats 9000 for the cage sport.

Mercury Cage Team to Play College Fives

The Los Angeles Athletic Club basketball quintet is rapidly taking form as one of the strongest outfits ever to play on a local court and should be in splendid condition for next week's games against U.S.C., U.C.L.A. and Occidental. The Trojan game will be played Monday night at the new Trojan gymnasium, while the Bruin game will take place at the Olympic Auditorium on the 20th inst. It will be the first basketball game of the season at the Grand-avenue pavilion, and, due to the strength of the two teams, should be one of the best games of the early campaign, if not the entire season. Occidental College will be met at Eagle Rock on the 16th inst.

CARL SHY

In their two games thus far the Mercuries have defeated Pomona College, 43 to 19, and Whittier College, 51 to 20. Charley Hyatt, the Red Grange of the cage sport, was the big Mercury star in both games, scoring 17 points, against the Sagehens and 16 against Whittier. Rags Wilcox, player coach; Frank Smith, Nip McHose and John McCandless have all been looking good in forward positions. Tom Pickell, the six-foot six-inch giant from Arkansas, is the regular center. Carl Shy from U.C.L.A. and Jim De Mers, American javelin record holder, are the regular guards, although Rex Reason, Carl Sylvester, Henry Walbot and McCandless are not far behind.

In order to put his team in good shape for next week's games, Wilcox has scheduled a practice contest at the L.A.A.C. tonight against the Sierra Park A.C. This team is composed of former Alhambra and Lincoln High School stars and has several members of last season's championship Lincoln team as outstanding players.

NEXT YEAR'S GAME AIDS CHARITY FUND

CHICAGO, Dec. 8. (AP)—President Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern University turned over a check for $100,000 to Gov. L. L. Emmerson's commission on unemployment and relief today. The check covers anticipated receipts from next year's Northwestern-Notre Dame football game to be played in Soldier Field Stadium.

JAYSEE PLANS ALMOST READY

Menlo and Compton to Meet in State Play-off

Plans are expected to be completed today for the finals of the State Junior College play-off which will be held between Menlo and Compton Jaysees. Menlo won the semi-final round from Bakersfield last Saturday, winning from their rivals in the north by a 12-to-0 score. Compton entered the final bracket by downing the Riverside Tigers, 20 to 14, last Friday and annexing the Southern California Jaysee title.

EARL 'DEACON' PINE

Saturday has been set as the tentative date for the play-off struggle. It is the problem of where the game is to be played that is bothering the officials of the schools. However, it is rumored that the game is to be held on the Ramsaur field, Compton, which will give local fans a chance to see the championship game.

Southern teams have been winning the State title lately and the Compton Tartars are hoping to keep up the South's good records. However, in Menlo they are meeting a team that is both big and powerful. Coached by Dud DeGroot and Hervie Fleishhacker, the northern boys are a miniature Stanford eleven with its reverses and lateral passes.

Coach Pine's Tartars defeated the strong Riverside team with Tom Yancey, star Compton quarterback, on the side lines. However, with the team's best ground-gainer on the bench the Tartars were still good enough to score three touchdowns in the first three quarters. Dell Canfield, who replaced Yancey at quarter, played a sensational game and made the loss of Yancey seem slight. Both these men will be in good shape for the Menlo clash, it is believed.

Coast in a week or ten days, Rockne noted in his communique. Inasmuch as some of the boys are attending classes at Notre Dame and cannot leave before the Christmas holidays start, the departure is held up.

At the same time, the Elks' committee went into action in Los Angeles and on the Pacific Coast to fill out the roster of western athletes who will oppose the Notre Dame boys. Marshall Duffield, Marger Apsit, Jesse Shaw and Dutch Wilcox, of Southern California, will be approached.

PHELAN READY

Jimmy Phelan, head coach at the University of Washington, selected to coach the West-South team, is ready to begin his duties here as soon as the list is completed.

The first block of seats for the game went on sale at B. H. Dyas Company yesterday and were taken before noon, officials of the game reported. Additional sections will be out today with the same prices prevailing. All seats are reserved with tolls ranging from $1.50 to $2, and a $2.50 tax on box seats.

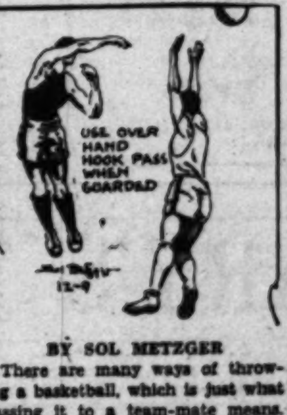
FROSH QUINTET IN INITIAL WORKOUT

Initial practice for the Loyola University frosh quintet is scheduled for tonight at the Loyola High School Venice Boulevard court with a number of former high school stars scheduled to report. The squad is to be coached by Joe Donahoe and a number of hard struggles are being lined up.

Chief among the reporting candidates will be Jack Pallas, formerly of L. A. High. Jack was one of the best players in the city league last year and is expected to win his guard berth on the Loyola five with ease.

Other prospective candidates are Hoppeyan, Perkins, Ruby, Kiltsky, Ashen, Adams and Lincoln. Ruby is a star from Hollywood High.

Passing Ball When Guarded in Cage Game



USE OVER HAND HOOK PASS WHEN GUARDED
12-9

BY SOL METZGER

There are many ways of throwing a basketball, which is just what passing it to a team-mate means. But there are two different situations in which one passes. He is either closely guarded by an opponent or he is free.

When guarded the stunt is to break back from this opponent, spring in the air and make the one-hand overhead hook pass here described, a whip upward from the hip with the arm fully extended. It is a sure way of getting off the pass, and it's an accurate way to pass if one will but practice it. You see that pass used a lot in Indiana, where they go in for basketball perhaps more than in any other State of the Union.

ler runners than the "Rabbit," a full-blooded Caddo Indian. Nebraska fans were reminded of Bender in Weller's knack of getting free for seventy and eighty-yard sprints. A real American ought to find a place on an all-American team, whereon we have had so many Italians, Swedes, Poles and whatnots for so many years, and I'm all for giving Jim Thorpe's successor a break.

About six years ago the late Walter Eckersall gave John Levi of Haskell a place in his all-American backfield, and other critics who saw John play agreed with Walter. Levi could plough along with six opponents clinging to him, often carried the ball in one of his huge paws and straightarming would-be tacklers with it, and could pass nearly the length of the field. Weller deserves a place in football annals alongside Levi, Thorpe, Hudson, Guyon, Mount Pleasant and Seneca. Haskell is coached by Lone Star Dietz, a former Carlisle star.

Far Western Mythical Grid Eleven Named

STOCKTON, Dec. 8. (AP)—The official Far Western Conference mythical team of 1930, as selected by the six football coaches, was made public here today by Robert L. Breeden, graduate manager of the College of the Pacific and conference secretary.

The Fresno State Bulldogs, who went through the season undefeated to win the conference title, placed four men on the first team, including Bardagary, White and Wilson in the backfield and Friedman in the line. Fresno's backfield was easily the class of the conference.

The other backfield man picked was Jim Countryman, the galloping Los Gatos boy with the Pacific Tigers. Ralph Francis was a choice for a wing berth, being the only other Bengal selected. The team:

Ends—Francis of Pacific and Levy of Nevada.
Tackles—Berges of California Aggies and Friedman of Fresno State.
Guards—Gillespie of California Aggies and Linehan of Nevada.
Center—Walther of Nevada.
Quarterback—Wilson of Fresno State.
Halfbacks—Countryman of Pacific and Bardagary of Fresno State.
Fullback—White of Fresno State.

BRUIN HARRIERS ARE GIVEN 1930 LETTERS

Twelve members of the U.C.L.A. cross-country team have been awarded letters on the basis of their performances in the season just past, according to Coach Guy Harris. The Bruin harriers receiving awards are Capt. Bill Thurman, Arthur J. Van Mere, William Stonecypher, J. C. Adams, Lewis Fetterly, John H. Austin, Otto M. Ellerman, William Domries, David Orshoff, Praray Hart, J. E. Erlinger and B. M. Friedman. The Westwood cross-country team lost to the University of California and Pomona College, and won from Caltech in dual meets this year.

RABBIT PUNCHES

THE PERFECT TEAM

THE perfect football team.

That's the answer to all the questions that have been fired since Saturday.

Notre Dame played sixty minutes of flawless football.

Not ten minutes or thirty minutes.

Sixty minutes. There was never a let-up. Not even when the subs were on the field.

Southern California never saw the day when it had a team that could compare with the ferocious man-eaters Knute Rockne put on the field Saturday.

Perhaps Notre Dame has not played the same football all season. I don't know.

But it was the team that made no mistakes Saturday. And how it could cash in on the other fellow's.

What punch! What speed. What blocking! What perfection in all departments of play.

1924 OR 1930?

DURING the Times sports interview after the game Knute Rockne was asked if the 1930 eleven was not superior to the Horsemen foursome of 1924.

Knute cloaked his answer in words, but I sensed his reverence for the current team while trying to remain loyal to the old-timers.

"They are hard to compare," he said, "because the teams belong to different periods.

"The Four Horsemen had speed, elan, verve.

"There never was a more graceful team.

"The 1930 team has plenty of punch."

And right there Knute gave himself away.

PUNCH! That doesn't tell half the story.

Speed, deception, alertness, power, plus a few other words indicating devastation, only faintly tell the story.

"The boys surprised me Saturday," said Rockne.

Yes, so much that Knute won't admit—and you can't blame him out of fondness for the Four Horsemen—that the 1930 eleven is the greatest he ever built.

GAELS FOR OPENER

YOU could buzz along at length on the qualities of this greatest of all Notre Dame teams.

Everybody else is buzzing. The Trojans' worst defeat since Howard Jones took over the coaching reins hasn't choked praise for the Rockne boys even among the Trojans' most fanatic rooters.

But some of the chatter has died down in the discussion over the next Coast Conference schedule.

U.C.L.A. and Southern California came to the parting of the ways yesterday over their 1931 game.

The Trojans offered the opening date, as of old.

The Bruins wanted a later game.

They couldn't get together, and St. Mary's grabs the opening struggle.

That's starting the Trojans' schedule off with a bang.

St. Mary's will give the Trojans a stiff battle, and you can just about bet the old Coliseum will be filled to the barrels for that one.

FOOTBALL DEPRESSION

DEPRESSION hit some of the smaller colleges badly this year.

A few practically closed up shop back East, competitively speaking.

Football receipts fell off, and killed spring sports because it takes football to make up the annual loss in other branches.

Coming closer to home, Occidental made $10,000 last year on gridiron activities, and this year lost about $2600.

UNIQUE A.C. CLOSES SEASON WITH VICTORY

Following their 6-to-0 victory over the Belvedere Athletic Club Sunday, the members of the Unique A.C. discarded their moleskins and started preparations for the coming basketball season. The Uniques closed their grid season with a hard-fought victory over the B.A.C. when Bob Bench intercepted a lateral pass and ran 40 yards for the winning touchdown. In the third period the Unique advanced the ball to Belvedere's 1-yard line, where they lost the ball on a fumble. The B.A.C. was outfought and outplayed in every department of the game and never once made a serious threat to score. Y'Barra, Riavic, Shine, Bench, Duarte and St. Marie starred for the winners.

WINNER OF PASADENA GO GETS MacDONALD

If negotiations which are now under way go through Hector MacDonald will meet the winner of Thursday night's ten-round bout at the Pasadena Arena, where Bobby Reister faces Baby Sal Sorio.

Reister this season kayoed fifteen out of eighteen big fights, and has been hot copy for the last few weeks through his spectacular appearances at the Olympic. Sorio has fought Joey Sangor, "Doc" Snell, Dud Eads and Mike Watters.

The semifinal on Thursday night's card will feature Johnny Godinez and Ray Cervantee, 122 pounds, in a four-round bout, both these fighters having good reputations as hard hitters.

RALPH GREENLEAF WINS

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—Ralph Greenleaf, titleholder, defeated Thomas Boatman of Portland, Or., in the first match of the world's three cushion billiards championship tournament here tonight. The score was 125 to 18, in eight innings.

DATTO STOPS HART

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Dec. 8. (AP) Johnny Datto, Cleveland featherweight, scored a four-round technical knockout over Christy Hart of Rochester here tonight. Hart was unable to answer the bell for the fourth round because of a deep cut in his upper lip.

BASS SHADES JADICK

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8. (AP)—Benny Bass, Philadelphia, junior lightweight champion, belted his way to a hairline decision over Johnny Jadick, also of Philadelphia, in a ten-round battle at the arena tonight. Bass weighed, 129; Jadick, 132. Bass's title was not at stake.

ALUMNI LOSE GAME

Officially opening its current basketball season, the California Christian College five trimmed the Alumni quintet, 37 to 17, last night on the home court. Thompson rang up 25 points to lead the individual score. DuBarry starred for the losers, scoring 11 points.

FROSH GRIDDERS BARRED

SPRINGFIELD (O.) Dec. 8. (AP)—Sixteen members of the freshman football team at Wittenberg College were barred from participation in intercollegiate athletics today on the ground they received aid toward their college expenses.

Baseball Notes

Harry McIntyre, who twirled for the Brooklyn and Chicago clubs many years ago, may serve as coach for the Pittsburgh Pirates this coming season. More than a quarter of a century ago, McIntyre set a Southern League record in fanning sixteen batsmen in a single contest. His strike-out performance is said to still stand as a league record. McIntyre has been out of baseball for more than fifteen years.

Charles (Dutch) Schessler, who has been signed to play with the Philadelphia Nationals in 1931, had the unique distinction of belonging to four clubs in 1930. He saw service with the York, Wilkes-Barre and Harrisburg clubs of New York-Pennsylvania League, and Charleroi in the Middle Atlantic League.

Babe Ruth, who started upon his professional baseball career as a pitcher, has ambitions to twirl a few games next year, with the permission of Joe McCarthy, new pilot of the New York Yankees.

Ted Lyons's performance of winning twenty-two games for the Chicago White Sox in 1930, was one of the bright features of the American League pennant race. The White Sox were a second-division club all year, never rising above seventh place. Lyons finished third in victories among all hurlers of the league, besides ranking well up among the leaders in the earned-run averages.

Charley Comiskey, owner for many years of the Chicago White Sox, was first baseman for the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association in 1887. Other members of that wonderful aggregation were Latham, third base; Gleason, shortstop; O'Neill, left field; Caruthers, pitcher; Bushong, catcher; Welsh, center field; Foutz, right field; Robinson, second base.

Forrest Jensen, champion batsman of the Western League in 1930, is slated to join the Pittsburgh Pirates this spring. Jensen played with Witchita last year and compiled a batting mark of .354. He hammered out more than 200 safe hits, the lead in this department, and was one of the league's foremost run scorers. Jensen was well up among the outfielders in percentages.

MUIR TECH CAGEMEN BEAT GLENDALE, 24-14

Muir Tech's basketball team opened the season yesterday afternoon with a 24-to-14 victory over the Glendale High quintet in a practice game played in the Tech gymnasium. Hale at center, was high-point man of the game with 8 points, Hale and Salsman each scoring 5 points apiece. Greanleas, Glendale center, scored 7 points to lead the Dynamiters.

The line-ups:

Muir Tech (24)		Glendale (14)
Salsman	F.	Morton

SHELL OILERS TAKE ANOTHER PUCK TILT

The Shell Oil ice-hockey team took a firmer hold on first place in the Southern California League race last night by defeating the Union Oil team, 4 to 0. The playing of "Doc" Claman, player-manager of the Shell team, was outstanding.

POMONA WINS CAGE TILT

The Pomona College team won over Riverside Y.M.C.A. basketball players in a practice game staged at Claremont last night. The score was 42 to 23. Jelson was high-point man for the winners.

HERRERA WHIPS ANDERSON

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8. (AP)—Tony Herrera, 137½, Chicago, was given a ten-round decision over Cowboy Eddie Anderson, 134, Wyoming, here tonight.

CROMWELL AIDS GEORGE

Trojan Track Mentor Will Second Challenger in Championship Mat Tilt With Sonnenberg

Dean Cromwell, track coach at the University of Southern California, will second Don George, local mat sensation, in the latter's second attempt to wrest the world's mat title from "Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg at the Olympic tomorrow night.

Cromwell, who has followed wrestling here for years, and who is regarded as an expert on many phases of the game, met George when they were on their way to Paris in 1928, for the Olympic Games. They became fast friends at that time, and the friendship was renewed when George came to the Coast early in May of this year.

DEAN CROMWELL

It is reported that Cromwell has helped George get in condition for this bout. During the past week George has done more road work than he has for any previous mat battle he has had here. He took his final workout at the Commercial Club yesterday.

George showed more speed, roughness and a greater assortment of new and punishing holds than he has before any big bout. Many of the new holds were only revamped old ones, but they are expected to prove effective because of the different way in which he clamps them on.

Sonnenberg is known for his ability to beat his foes more quickly in a return match than in their first meeting. It has always been the champion's contention that he could learn enough about a wrestler in one match with him to beat him easily the next time they met. He proved that to be a fact here in matches with Joe Stecher and Everett Marshall. The mat king stated at one time that the reason he was able to do this was because his foes always used the same holds and same tricks in their second matches that they did in their first.

Sonnenberg is scheduled to go through his final workout for this match today. The workout will be a light one. Sonnenberg is thirteen pounds lighter for this bout than he was when he wrestled Marshall here a few months ago. He has had a number of tough battles in the last two months that are believed to have softened him up a great deal.

Henri De Glane, French mat sensation, will clash with Dan Koloff, the powerful Balkan, in the special event. This match is also expected to be packed with action. Nick Lutze will meet Don De Laun of Glendale in the opener.

Leopards to Give Letters to Thirteen

LA VERNE, Dec. 8.—Football letters will be awarded thirteen members of Coach Lee Eisan's 1930 La Verne varsity, according to announcement made today. The Leopards ended their season without a victory, but they showed unexpected strength which brands them as a threat next year.

Capt. Fred Hubble, half back, heads the list of lettermen which includes "Red" Weybright, Max Forney, "Brick" Lewin and Smith, backs; Ralph Adams, Bert Jones, Buck Feree, Jerry Deal, Al Nicolas, Ike Funk, Montz and Ony Leonard, linesmen. Hubble, Weybright and Nicholas, La Verne's candidate for all-conference honors, are three-year veterans; and Funk, Montz and Leonard have won their awards two years.

Ralph Adams, a powerful end who transferred from San Bernardino Junior College, will captain the 1931 aggregation. Adams, who was a defensive mainstay, graduated from Colton high school.

The Leopards are working for a big season next year. They will lose seven letter men, Nicholas, Funk, Montz, Leonard, Weybright, Hubble and Smith. The returning veterans are expected to form the nucleus for the strongest La Verne team in many years.

Several strong men will return for duty next year, including "Pewee" Lathrop, star quarterback last year, and Bessie, a powerful fullback. These men remained out of school this year. Shirk, back, and Snell, end, also look good.

Many promising freshmen are doped to give the Green outfit plenty of strength, including Noll, tackle; Swihart, center; Calvert, tackle, and the powerful backfield, Brooks, Montgomery, Vaniman and Davis. The freshmen were undefeated this season, tying Pomona for the championship.

TIGER FIVE PLAYS TWO GAMES TONIGHT

Coach Eddie Kienholz's Oxy five meets Southwestern University and Kay's Bakery of Pasadena in a double-header tonight on the Tiger floor. The first tilt with the Pasadena bakers is billed to start at 7 o'clock and the Southwestern quintet meets the Tigers at 8:15 in the final cage battle. Oxy has one victory over the Bengal Alumni to her credit and tonight's workouts mark the second and third games of the season. Another double bill is scheduled for the Tigers next Friday night with the U.S.C. Dental five and the University of the West.

The Oxy mentor plans to start Blee and Matter at forwards in the first game with Powers at center and Gustovitch and Hyatt at guards. In the final tilt Capt. Dimter and Dick Glover will start at forwards, Noble at center and Elliott and Hunt at guards. Margudant, Betts and Wheeler should see plenty of action in the two games also.

SCOTS, HOLLYWOOD TO TANGLE SUNDAY

Fresh from a victory over the Los Angeles A.C. team the Scots reach out for bigger prey Sunday afternoon at Loyola Field when they collide with the league-leading Hollywooders. The Scots upset the dope last week-end and some of the experts contend they will do it again Sunday. The two teams take the field at 3 p.m. The rejuvenated Victorias battle the Magyars at 1 p.m. At Tournament Park, Pasadena, the Richfield Oilers and the Pasadena open the program at 1 p.m. At 3 p.m. the Vikings and the Sons of St. George battle it out.

COCHRAN, HOPPE EVEN IN CUE TILT

CHICAGO, Dec. 8. (AP) — Welker Cochran tonight defeated Willie Hoppe, 300 to 125, to even up their six-block match at 18.2 balk-line billiards. Hoppe won the afternoon block, 300 to 30. Cochran's average tonight was 43, and Hoppe's 21. They will play six blocks of 18.1 starting Thursday.

KAUFMAN BEATS WARD

WASHINGTON (Pa.) Dec. 8. (AP) Larry Kaufman, 142 3-4, Louisville, Ky., outpointed Tommy Ward, 145, Pittsburgh, in eight rounds here tonight.

LOYOLA CAGERS TAKE ON ELKS TOMORROW

With his first game of the season scheduled for tomorrow night with the Elks' Club quintet, Coach Joe Donahoe is fast rounding his 1930-1931 Loyola University basketball squad into shape. The Lions will meet the Elks on the Loyola High School gymnasium court on Venice Boulevard.

As yet Coach Donahoe is unable to tell just how strong his five is. Quite a number of the mainstays of last year's squad are not reporting this year, and so he will have to form his team from the last year's frosh five and the few remaining letter men.

ASSISTANT MANAGER LEAVES JOB AT OXY

The resignation of Ed Hackett as assistant graduate manager at Occidental College was announced yesterday by Phil Ellsworth, graduate manager, and became effective last night. Hackett resigned after two and a half years in his position at Oxy due to business of his own. Last summer he organized the Hackett-Newell Company which deals in publicity and advertising work. No one will be appointed to fill the vacancy till next September, according to Graduate Manager Ellsworth.

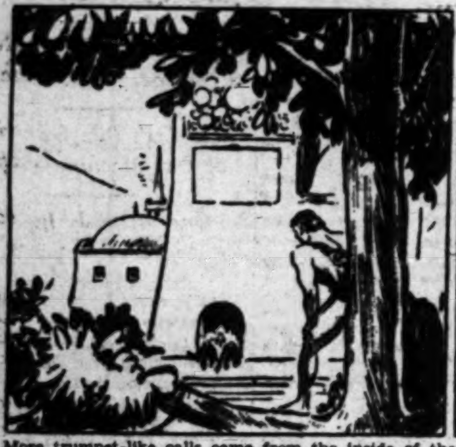
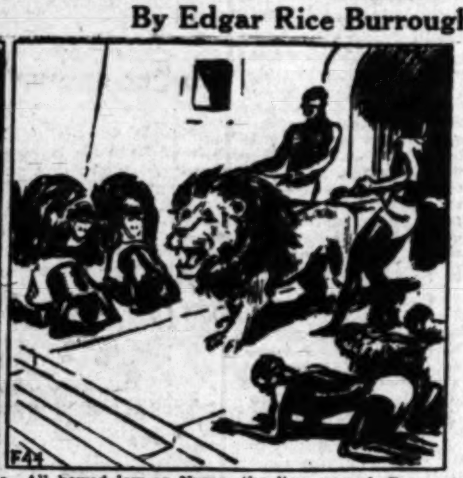
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

By Edgar Rice Burroughs



More trumpet-like calls came from the inside of the building. Soon Tarzan saw a procession emerging. First came four Bolgani abreast, carrying bludgeons. Next, more trumpeters and, twenty feet behind them, paced a huge, black-maned lion, held in leash by two sturdy blacks on either side. They held him by means of golden chains that ran to a brilliant diamond collar about the beast's neck. Behind the lion marched twenty more Bolgani, four abreast.



All bowed low as Numa, the lion, passed. Some even grovelled before him in abject awe. The beast, evidently an old one, stood with lordly mien, surveying the human forms before him. His evil eyes glared, he bared his teeth in a savage grimace and from his deep lungs rumbled forth an ominous growl. At the sound the Gomangani trembled in terror. The ape-man knit his brows thoughtfully. Never before had he witnessed so remarkable a sight as this abasement of men before a beast.

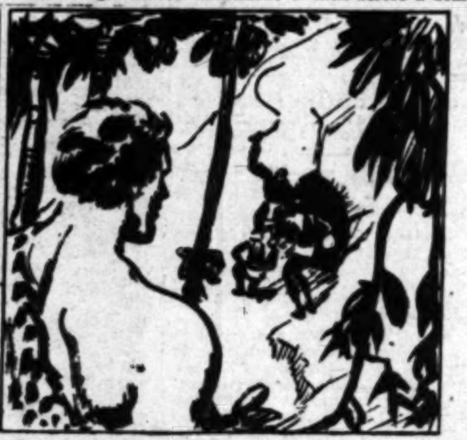
Presently the procession passed and the blacks returned to work. Throwing the dead Bolgani to his shoulder, the ape-man crept through the trees to the east gate where now was entering a long cavalcade of powerful Gomangani, driving before them a detachment of black warriors carrying chests of virgin gold. These they bore into the ivy-covered tower. As they disappeared through the portal, Tarzan hurled the gorilla-man as close to it as possible. "Now," he thought, "let them guess if they can, who slew their fellow."



Late in the afternoon Tarzan left the strange temple city and sought anew to find an exit from the mountains back of the valley of the Palace of Diamonds. Often he had to avoid parties of naked blacks working with primitive tools under the supervision of savage Bolgani, mining gold or diamonds, the ape-man guessed. After two days, he was forced to admt he could discover no exit from the place on this side. Everywhere towering granite cliffs frowned forbiddingly upon him, barring the way.

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

PIE CRUST IS ALMOST FATAL

Surgeons by Suction Force Take Piece From Boy's Windpipe

FILLMORE, Dec. 8.—David Clapperton, young son of Mr. and Mrs. David Clapperton, Sr., has returned from a Los Angeles clinic where a piece of pie crust was removed from his throat by means of basket forceps and suction.

Young Clapperton was eating pie when a piece of the crust lodged in his throat causing the collapse of his right lung. He was slowly strangling when taken to the office of a local physician where first aid was administered.

In a later X-ray examination it was discovered that the pie crust had completely closed the right bronchus, which is one of the divisions of the so-called windpipe, and he was hurried to the Los Angeles clinic where surgeons removed the obstruction.

ASSERTED ATTACKER ARRESTED

R. A. Serra, Accused of Molesting Young Women, Taken Near San Marino

SAN MARINO, Dec. 8.—Asserted to be the man who has molested a number of young women in Los Angeles and this city during recent weeks, R. A. Serra, 26 years of age, reported to be an escaped lunatic, was taken into custody late last night by Chief of Police Ben Parker and Motorcycle Officer H. C. Cumby.

According to local police, Serra is the man who last Thursday struck Miss Vesta Hoke, 24, of 5 Halstead Circle, Alhambra, in the head with a rock, as she alighted from a street car near Virginia Road. After regaining consciousness, Miss Hoke staggered to a near-by real estate office where she collapsed. She was given first aid treatment in an Alhambra hospital for a scalp laceration and nervous shock.

The San Marino police officers picked up a clew which led to a deserted wash near the boundary between this city and San Gabriel. As they were trailing their quarry through this wash, they heard a wild yell and saw an unkempt young man leap from a small cave in the wash and dash ahead of them. They finally overtook him and after a struggle succeeded in handcuffing the reputed madman.

Serra, according to the police, served time in San Quentin, but later was confined in Patton as criminally insane. He is reported to have escaped three weeks ago by picking a lock.

Man Pays Heavy Fine Following Traffic Crash

POMONA, Dec. 8.—James Pirone, 49 years of age, 1827 East Fourth street, Long Beach, today pleaded guilty to a drunkeness charge before Police Judge E. H. Bowen, and was fined $300. The heavy fine was levied as the outgrowth of an accident last night in which Mrs. Emil Schwab of 629 West Holt avenue, received injuries when Pirone's car smashed into a car driven by Mr. Schwab at the intersection of Holt avenue and Illinois street.

According to arresting officers, Pirone attempted to run away from the scene on foot, but was caught. A sobriety test at the City Jail is said to have indicated that he was intoxicated.

Pirone was released upon payment of the fine.

Robbers Empty Pool Hall Safe

VENTURA, Dec. 8.—Safe looters got $160 in cash at the Rex pool hall here some time between 11 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. today, according to police.

Entrance to the pool hall was secured through the back door. The screen was cut in two places and a bar removed. The thieves then took the key to the safe from a hiding place, opened the iron box, extracted the coin and bills, locked the receptacle up again and left the way they entered.

SEA HAWKS WILL BE DINED AT REDONDO

REDONDO BEACH, Dec. 8.—With all civic and service organizations of the south bay district joining in the arrangements, a victory dinner, honoring the Sea Hawks, Redondo Union High School's football team, will be held at the Masonic Temple on Thursday noon. The Sea Hawks, holders of the Bay League championship and finalists in the prep play-offs, will receive a big ovation at the dinner and will have as speaker Commander M. M. Witherspoon of the U.S.S. Mississippi, famous all-American tackle. Several members of the Trojan varsity squad have accepted invitations to the dinner and a real old-fashioned turkey-and-trimmings menu will be served. The general committee in charge of the event is composed of Dr. R. W. Schaeffer, W. G. Linch, T. Donovan, Coach Lloyd Waller, V. Varro, J. Gabriel, G. Fuller, Don Hayes, Tim Larson, C. W. Koiner and James H. Dalton, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

SUBMARINE PIPE LINE BEGUN

Laying of New Connection Will Increase Ventura Harbor Loading Capacity by 50 Per Cent

VENTURA, Dec. 8.—Laying of a new ten-inch submarine pipe line by the Associated Oil Company which will increase the loading capacity of Ventura Harbor by more than 50 per cent got under way today. The line was being dragged 2700 feet beyond the breaker line by a powerful tug.

When in place it will provide a filling terminal for one more tanker, bringing the total number of tanker berths in the harbor to three.

Of the other two lines, the Associated Oil Company operates one which is submerged to a point 2400 feet beyond the surf zone, and the Union Oil Company has the other which runs off the Ventura wharf.

The Associated line has a capacity of 5000 barrels an hour. The new pipe will double the Associated shipping capacity here.

The Union Oil line is a six-inch hose capable of carrying 4500 barrels an hour under pressure, it was said.

Associated Oil Company officials stated today that 50,000 barrels of oil were being sent out daily by tankers from all companies operating in the avenue field.

They said that the new line would give a much greater outlet by sea, but pointed out that the production limit of the field was at present restrained to the current volume by the State Conservation Act.

MOTORBIKE RIDER GOES OFF BRIDGE

Gerald Dunn Tossed Over Colorado-Street Viaduct but Grabs Tree and Lives

PASADENA, Dec. 8.—Movie thrillers fade into the realm of commonplace occurrence when compared to the experience of Gerald Dunn, Los Angeles messenger, who today became the third person to shoot into space over the railing of the Colorado-street bridge and live to tell about it.

Scores of motorists were horrified this morning when they saw Dunn's motorcycle shoot into the air as a front tire blew out and catapult the rider head-first over the bridge railing on the south side of the graceful span.

Stopping their automobiles and tying up traffic on the bridge, motorists rushed to the railing, expecting to see the boy's battered body lying on the rocks, more than sixty feet below, at the point where the tire blew out.

A shout from a tall eucalyptus tree, the top of which comes to within a few feet from the bridge railing, attracted the crowd's attention.

Through what amounts to a miracle, Dunn had managed to grasp the branches in the treetop. After sliding down the tree and climbing back the path to the bridge, he inspected his motorcycle and announced that he would equip it with new tires before essaying another bridge passage.

Three years ago, a youth, a tree trimmer by trade, jumped from the bridge to the tree, to prove his bravery in the presence of his fiancee. Three months ago an aged woman attempted to take her life by leaping from the railing, but due to the fact that she did not look before she leaped, she chose a place where the drop is only twenty-five feet and escaped with a broken leg. Thirty-three persons have taken their lives by leaping from the bridge, which, beautiful in its symmetry, has exerted a strange attraction for the melancholy.

Arcadia Fire Drill Done in Record Time

ARCADIA, Dec. 8.—When the fire bell was sounded at the First-avenue grammar school during recess this morning, students ceased their play and were in orderly lines within forty-five seconds, according to Fire Chief and Chief of Police Jack Richards.

Chief Richards gave the fire alarm as a surprise safety test for the children, which proved to be a record-breaking tryout.

"The alertness of the children during the time of an emergency and their excellent conduct shown while forming lines to march away from the school building, speaks well for the supervision of the teachers and executives of the school," Chief Richards stated.

The record made today by the children is the best in the history of local schools, it was declared.

C. E. Westerhouse is principal of the school and Homer F. Aker is superintendent of schools here.

Flood Control Plans Ready in Sixty Days

SANTA ANA, Dec. 8.—That the consulting board of engineers employed to prepare a plan of works for the Orange county flood-control district will have its report ready to file within about two months, was the information given newspaper men of the county today. This report will bear a general similarity to the earlier plan of Engineer Paul Bailey and the previous consulting board, was the impression gained.

This impression of similarity followed statements made by Chairman G. A. Elliott and Thomas Means of San Francisco, and Prof. B. A. Etcheverry of the State University at Berkeley, members of the engineering board, and their answer to questions asked by newspaper men regarding plans and problems of flood control.

PRICE RE-ELECTED ASSOCIATION HEAD

UPLAND, Dec. 8.—R. O. Price will continue to serve Upland Heights Orange Association as president for the ensuing year, having been re-elected to that office at the annual meeting of the membership held at the packing-house. Alois Podrasnik was re-elected vice-president, and E. C. Rosenberger, secretary-manager. On the board of directors are Price, Podrasnik, Frank Van Natta, Norman Lawson, Charles Coe. According to the annual report by Secretary Rosenberger, the grower members received more than $500,000 for 291 carloads of oranges shipped during the past year.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT

SOUTH GATE, Dec. 8.—E. M. Gartin has been elected Noble Grand of the Odd Fellows' Lodge of this city, and the other officers selected are C. B. Powell, Junior Past Grand; W. A. Harris, Vice-Grand; J. L. Coan, Recording Secretary; Wayne Powell, Financial Secretary; J. M. Lindsey, Treasurer, and M. E. Vasquez, Trustee.

Felix Mattei of Noted Inn Dies in Heart Attack

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 8.—Felix Mattei, another Santa Barbara county pioneer and famous up and down the coast as the keeper of Mattei's tavern, one of the few old-fashioned inns, died yesterday in the inn he built in the Santa Ynez Valley fifty miles north of here. He was seized with a heart attack and died in his room before medical aid could reach him. Two of his sons, Clarence, the artist, and Frank, were with him.

Mattei came to the United States from Switzerland when only a boy 18 years of age. He came across the plains on one of the first transcontinental trains. After living in Marin county for a year, he went to San Luis Obispo, where he married Lucy Fisher on October 26, 1879. Five sons were born to them, all now living. In addition to Fred and Clarence, there are Charles of Santa Barbara, Albert of San Francisco and Fred of San Luis Obispo.

Mattei's tavern was a noted inn for all Californians. Newspaper columnists have written much about it.

Funeral services probably will be conducted Tuesday morning.

WRITER GETS $100 FOR THREE-WORD TITLE

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 8.—Clara Mullhall Hagan, a local writer, is enjoying a good break. She has just received $100 for three words. This is the record here. Mrs. Hagan wrote and submitted a scenario to one of the leading motion-picture studios. For a time the purchase of the manuscript was seriously considered. Then it was declined. Officials of the studio, however, wrote Mrs. Hagan that the title of the scenario was just the thing they were looking for, and that they would write their own play to fit it. This title was of three words. The $100 check covered its purchase.

Clarence Swanberg

VAN NUYS, Dec. 8.—Clarence Swanberg has been elected by his classmates and members of the faculty of the Van Nuys High School to the Ephebian membership, the highest honor awarded in the Los Angeles public school system.

He will be given the gold ring of the society at the midwinter graduation exercises.

Young Swanberg will be graduated with one of the best records ever made at the school.

During his four years of study he served in almost every student activity, topping it all with being president of the Latin Club, captain of the football team and president of the student body when in his junior year.

Other honor students of the midwinter class are Genevieve Hewitt, Barbara Dunham, Emily Meinard, Lillie Kibble, Clarence Detterich and Malvena Neusbaum.

Man Wanted in Ticket Theft Gives Self Up

ALHAMBRA, Dec. 8.—Fred C. Walker, 25 years of age, of 1804 Front street, walked into police headquarters today and said he was ready to be locked up. Walker was wanted on a charge of obtaining by fraud four tickets to the U.S.C.-Notre Dame football game.

He had been sought by postoffice inspectors and police since Tuesday, last, when the theft was discovered. Walker was turned over to the Federal officers. He said he had been hiding in Los Angeles.

Walker, according to officers, signed for a registered letter containing the tickets belonging to Alex Crampton, a next-door neighbor. He disposed of the pasteboards but they were traced and recovered just in time to permit Crampton and his friends to attend the game.

Woman Beater Sent to Prison

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 8.—Found guilty in Superior Court of attacking a young local woman, Edward (Red) Dodge, Fillmore oil worker, today was en route to San Quentin to serve a sentence of from one to ten years given him by Judge S. E. Crow. In passing sentence on the oil-field worker, Judge Crow characterized the beating Dodge assertedly gave Eleanor Mehan, a local woman, "the most brutal" ever brought to his attention.

According to court testimony, Dodge, while intoxicated, beat the young woman unconscious as the pair were in a car nearly two months ago. So severe was the beating sustained by the woman, it was related by police, that she could not see from either eye for two weeks.

Dodge, who made no defense in court, was accompanied north to San Quentin by Undersheriff Jack Ross.

HANDBILL BAN IN FORCE

Redlands New City Ordinance Prohibiting Dodger Nuisance in That Community Now in Effect

REDLANDS, Dec. 8—Redlands' new city ordinance which makes it unlawful to distribute dodgers, handbills or commercial advertising in the city went into effect today. It prohibits passing out of handbills to people and the throwing of them in yards or in automobiles.

Section 1 of the ordinance makes it "unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to distribute or cause to be distributed, to circulate or to pass, to or among pedestrians along or upon any street, alley, park or other public place in the said city of Redlands, or to place in any automobile or other vehicle parked on or along any public street, park or alley of the said city of Redlands, any advertising samples, handbills, dodgers, circulars, booklets or other notice of commercial advertising."

The second section of the order makes it unlawful to distribute such material upon the streets, alleys, lawns, doorsteps or in the mail boxes. Exceptions to the order are newspapers, capable of being entered as second-class mail matter under the postal regulations, and regular mail matter delivered by carrier.

Violations of the ordinance are punishable by a fine not to exceed $300 or by imprisonment in the City Jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Adoption of the ordinance was made by the City Council on November 5, and the thirty-day period required before regular ordinances become effective expired yesterday. The need for such a measure has been brought to the attention of the City Council many times, because of the nuisance of printed advertising matter which has littered doorsteps and private yards.

TOM CLARK INJURED AS AUTO SKIDS

Supervisor of Ventura County Has Wrist Broken in Three Places in Crash

VENTURA, Dec. 8.—Tom Clark, member of a pioneer Ventura county family, brother of Sheriff Robert Clark and member of the Board of Supervisors from the Ojai district, is at the Big Sisters Hospital suffering from injuries received Saturday afternoon on the Matilija Road when his car skidded on loose dirt and crashed into a tree.

Clark's left arm was broken in three places, his right wrist was fractured, and he sustained minor injuries and bruises.

He was driving alone at the time, having just inspected some road work with the superintendent of the road gang.

As he turned off into Soper's ranch his car hit a loose section in the roadbed, dashed into the tree and came to a stop against a culvert. The steering wheel of the car was broken and the car was otherwise damaged.

Sheriff Clark said today that his brother was resting comfortably.

County Plans Propagation of Fish and Game

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 8.—Plans for one of the most comprehensive programs of fish and game propogation ever undertaken in this county, including the planting of some 200,000 trout in streams and the restocking of back areas with wild turkeys and pheasants, are being made by the Santa Barbara County Fish and Game Protective Association.

Frank Pelch, president, today, in announcing the association's plans, put emphasis on the purpose of the group as one for the benefit of sportamen and chiefly concerned with building up and maintaining of good hunting grounds and better fishing streams.

Propogation work will be started soon after the first of the year, Pelch announced, at the same time stating that within the next ten days this county will receive from the State approximately 90,000 fish for planting as part of the regular propagation plan. The additional 200,000 fish to be planted are exclusive of the State's quota of trout.

Fullerton Plans Yuletide Music on Its Streets

FULLERTON, Dec. 8.—Christmas music will be added to the holiday atmosphere in Fullerton during the Yuletide season, according to plans announced by the merchants' division of the Chamber of Commerce.

A public-address system of sufficient power to carry twenty loud speakers, to be located throughout the business district, will be installed.

A complete program daily during the morning, afternoon and evening hour, will be presented, largely by local talent, featuring Christmas music.

Formal opening of the system is scheduled for next Monday at 7:30 p.m., for which time a special program has been arranged.

Rosemead Man, Pioneer of That District, Dies

ROSEMEAD, Dec. 8.—Death has claimed a prominent pioneer in the person of Richard Guess, 64 years of age, who is dead at his home, 1620 Rio Hondo avenue, after a long illness.

He was born in the Savannah district, near here, and when he was 2 years of age the family moved to a ranch in what is now Rosemead.

Two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Guess gave part of their ranch property as a site for a Boy Scout hut.

Besides his widow he leaves two sons, Frank and Charles, both of Rosemead, and a daughter, Mrs. Thelma Brown of Monterey Park.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Shanel chapel in El Monte.

SCOUT EXECUTIVES COMING TO SEMINAR

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 8.—Boy Scout executives from all counties of Southern California will gather here for three days starting February 24 for their annual seminar, Calvin McCray, executive of the Mission Council, announced last night.

The conference will be featured by a series of addresses by noted educators and Scout leaders, many of whom will come from the East especially for the event.

In charge of the seminar are the following Scout officials: E. B. De Groot, Los Angeles; Calvin McCray, Santa Barbara; E. H. Trask, Pasadena, and Elwood Barley, San Diego.

Pelican Dives and 'Cracks Up' on Hidden Piling

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 7.—Pete, a pelican of unknown age but well-known habits, has become a ward of charity—for a few days at least.

It seems that Pete, while making one of his usually unerring dives into the ocean for a finny tid-bit, "cracked up" on an unseen piling. Rescued from what apparently was certain death, when his flying, and even his floating machinery, was damaged, Pete was hauled by a fisherman to a perch on Stearns's wharf.

Skeptical of his surroundings and friendly hands that feed him, but necessarily contented, Pete wobbles around on the wharf inspecting this and that, and taking plentiful nourishment offered him by young and old alike.

According to those who seem to know, Pete won't do much aerial navigating and marine submerging for at least a couple of weeks. His injuries consisted of a fractured wing-bone and a twisted neck, which results in Pete carrying his head at an angle not unlike that of a man with a sorely stiff neck.

Dr. Winey Heads Masonic Lodge

INGLEWOOD, Dec. 8. — Alpha Council, No. 39, of Royal and Select Masters have elected Dr. Elmer I. Winey of this city as Master, succeeding Joseph R. Hughes.

An open installation was held after the election, with Past Master Harvey Reed of Los Angeles Council, No. 11, acting as installing officer, assisted by Past Master Hughes.

The new officers are: Irving J. Custer of Los Angeles, Deputy Master; Karl F. Leitz of Los Angeles, Principal Conductor of Work; Dr. Edward O. Campbell of Inglewood, Treasurer; Edward A. Brown of Los Angeles, Recorder; William F. Revely of Redondo Beach, Captain of the Guard; Carl J. Johnson of Watts, Conductor of the Council; Ralph P. Zoeller of Santa Monica, Steward; Thomas Gray of Huntington Park, Chaplain, and George T. Crowley of Inglewood, Sentinel.

E. P. Spencer, Grand Principal Conductor of the Work of the Grand Council of the State of California, gave the address of the evening.

During the installation ceremonies, solos were sung by Hiram Christianson, accompanied by Dr. Eva I. Winey on the piano.

Preceding the meeting, a 6:30 p.m. dinner was attended by the members, their wives and friends.

Alpha Council, it was pointed out by the speaker, has the honor of being the only council to confer the superexcellent Master Degree while under dispensation, during the seventy years of the Grand Council's history in California.

LEMON SHIPPING AT ONTARIO IN PROGRESS

ONTARIO, Dec. 8.—Lemon shipping season is under full swing in the Ontario-Upland district, with 152 carloads having gone east thus far. For the week just closed local lemon houses shipped thirty-four carloads of lemons. Only one of the thirty-four carloads was shipped from a plant other than the Ontario-Cucamonga Exchange, known better as the O.K. The one carload was shipped through Upland Mutual Groves, Inc., affiliated with the Mutual Orange Distributors.

ELKS IN MEMORIAL RITES

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 8.—Annual memorial services were held by the Huntington Park lodge of Elks at their clubhouse in this city last night, which were largely attended by members and friends of the order. The memorial address was delivered by Rev. John B. Osborn, Past Exalted Ruler of the Elks' lodge at San Diego. A. Deeks, pipe organist of the local lodge, rendered two numbers on the instrument and Louis Dreyer sang "The Lord is My Light." During the past year six members of the order have died.

SEVEN CRASHES HURT THIRTEEN

Orange County Reports Many Week-end Traffic Mishaps

Three Cars Pile Up; Driver of One Machine Sought

No One Seriously Injured in Series of Accidents

SANTA ANA, Dec. 8.—Thirteen persons were hurt in seven automobile accidents reported to police in Orange county over the week-end. No one was believed seriously hurt.

Sheriff's officers are seeking the driver of an automobile registered to Albino Cedello of 603 East Chartres street, Anaheim, following an accident on Stanton Road in which three automobiles piled up. The driver of the offending car is said to have fled. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McKee of Buena Park, occupants of one car, were injured.

According to a report on the accident, the Cedello machine struck the McKee car, causing it to collide with a car registered to B. H. Stewart of Huntington Beach.

WOMAN BACKS CAR

Mrs. C. F. Lay of Huntington Beach, and a man whose name was not learned, were injured Sunday near Talbert when the car Mrs. Lay was driving was backed into by one operated by Tom Roberts of Los Angeles, according to a report made at the Sheriff's office.

D. Cozad of 1522 Bush street suffered cuts and bruises when the machine he was driving collided with a car driven by David Burgh, bearing a Washington State license, at Seventeenth street and the Santa Ana River bridge.

H. A. Riley and Mrs. A. Rameris were reported injured when the Riley car collided with a machine in which Mrs. Rameris was a passenger at Garden Grove last night.

Scott Greer and R. V. Seeman, both of Santa Ana, suffered injuries today when the car in which they were riding collided with another car at Trask and Buaro roads.

SHOULDER INJURED

William Doughty, Santa Ana, received injuries about the shoulder when the car he was driving collided with a machine operated by B. R. Cole of Santa Ana.

Three persons were injured when a car driven by Virgil Brewer, 612 San Julian street, Los Angeles, overturned three times on Euclid avenue, Garden Grove, when the front wheels of the car struck soft dirt at the side of the road. Brewer and two passengers, Clara Lee of 108 North Grand avenue, Los Angeles, and W. C. Hammond, also of Los Angeles, were injured. The girl suffered serious cuts about the head and on the right arm.

All were taken to the Orange County Hospital, where it was said today their injuries were not serious and they would be in the hospital only a few days.

Petitions Out Objecting to School Survey

FULLERTON, Dec. 8.—More than a dozen Fullerton and Northern Orange county men are circulating petitions objecting to the survey proposed by the County Supervisors in the junior college situation in Orange county. Excessive cost is asserted by the opponents. Action of the directors of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce July 3, last, in which a resolution opposing the survey was approved, is being recalled by circulators of the petition.

Various groups in the county in the last six months have recommended that the County Supervisors make a survey to determine whether the county should retain the present two junior colleges or form one county junior college.

The resolution of the Fullerton directors points out that the last census showed a sufficient number of students desiring junior college opportunities in the northern part of the county to justify maintenance of a separate institution.

OLD ROUNDHOUSE IS SOON TO PASS

SAN FERNANDO, Dec. 8.—Time for the actual abandonment of the Southern Pacific roundhouse here is at hand. With the operation of several huge Mallet type locomotives between Los Angeles and Bakersfield, the "helper" engines here will be sent to Saugus and the roundhouse closed.

The more powerful freight locomotives now being used are capable of pulling the heavy trains and the railroad company will have no further need of the roundhouse, which was erected years ago. Since then three crews and six locomotives have been maintained as helpers to pull long trains over steep grades in this railroad division.

The Mallet type of locomotive is actually two locomotives in one. They were designed to do away with helper engines in mountain regions. Several months ago the railroad company denied that the roundhouse would be abandoned here. Employees, however, stated that the new engines would be introduced in time, which, they said, meant the end of the roundhouse here.

POSTOFFICE SOON TO RANK AS FIRST CLASS

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 8.—Judging from the steady increase in postal receipts at the local postoffice, there is no doubt now but that the postoffice will reach its first-class rate by the end of the present year, it is announced by Postmaster Charles Niblack. It is necessary that a postoffice show a business of $40,000 a year to achieve the rating. The year's business at the local office is now almost that amount.

VARIETY MARKS BROADCAST BILL

Diversified Programs to Be Presented Today

Copeland Scheduled for Talk From Washington

Dr. Frank McCoy to Speak on "Times" Torum

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Jennie Durkee, instrumentalist; Dr. Frank McCoy, editor of Diet and Health in The Times.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Radio of today is something like the old country store at Goshen Junction that has everything from a toothpick to a plow, with prizefights, United States Senators, tenors, sopranos and the rest of the wide assortment included in broadcast offerings.

If you want to hear a tapestry of music woven, tune in on KHJ at 8 tonight. An hour of Italian melody dating back to the year 1814, a musical continuity with Raymond Paige at the baton. "The story of Lorenzo Bartolini, painter, sculptor and musician"—and they say "On this great day His Imperial Highness, the Archduke Ferdinand—is about to enter the city."

If you are one who prefers the more serious note in broadcast, dial Senator Copeland on KECA at 3:15 p.m. He will speak from Washington on "The Protection of American Children."

They tell us that—

"All the world's a stage"—KHJ at 7 tonight—Joe and Vi have fallen for amateur theatricals—"Orange Blossoms" is the blooming title.

Paulie Walker and Mike Payan—

KFWB at 9:30 tonight. They say tonight's fracas should be full of "development"—a prize fight.

KHJ and KNX — 7:30 tonight. Paramount Publix Hour—a Columbia feature—Overture from Grofe's "Mississippi Suite" — "Kashmiri Song"—Hollywood gossip.

KFI—2 p.m. Here is an NBC matinee frolic—Scotty Mortland as master of ceremonies—an hour of radio stars, including an Irish soprano.

KECA—6:30 p.m. Back to the romance of the '90's. "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight"—if you remember the war with Spain.

KECA at 11:30 a.m. Have you listened to the new N.B.C. half-hour—announced as an organ recital?

KFWB at 8:30 tonight. Some liniment company must be sponsoring these programs, or perhaps a wheelchair foundry — "Old-time songs that will bring back memories—the time of the Gibson Girl." But Art Pabst promises excellent music.

KMPC—9 p.m. Mystery thriller—"The Great Kohner." After you're thrilled, the Happy Chappies at 9:30—"Sing Something Simple" and like that.

KMTR at 7:15 p.m. "The studio orchestra plays, without stopping, for the entire half-hour—popular melodies—fast music."

WHITE WIFE OF COLORED DOCTOR ILL

Ex-Stage Beauty Goes East and Professional Husband Denies They've Separated

Helen Lee Worthing, former stage and screen beauty who declared following her marriage to Dr. Eugene C. Nelson, colored physician, that "no racial or social barrier can ever separate us" has left her home and is now in a hospital in New York City.

DR. EUGENE C. NELSON

Last night Dr. Nelson emphatically denied, however, that her absence presages a permanent separation or divorce.

"What of it?" he asked at his home yesterday, in reply to a question concerning the rumored divorce. "Even if true, it is my affair, but it is not true. My wife has been suffering from a form of neurosis and insomnia for a period of years and recently it reached a stage where adequate treatment could not be found here.

"Her condition made her very unhappy and by mutual consent and on the advice of specialists she went first to live at the Langham Apartments here, I agreed later to send her to the Neurological Institute, New York, and communicated with Dr. Thomas K. Davis there who assured me that my wife will receive the best of treatment."

In discussing the trip to New York, which he said is with his "full consent and knowledge," Dr. Nelson took occasion to deny some rumors that he contends he had heard regarding his wife's condition.

"I received recently a telegram from her in which she thanked me for what I had done for her," the physician said, "and asked me not to forget her in the same message. I have heard some ugly rumors pertaining, to her condition, but I promise to take legal action if anyone spreads the report that her breakdown was caused by any malady other than I have mentioned. Any such report is false and a reflection on me and my business."

Dr. Nelson, who numbers among his patients many Hollywood personages, was married to the stage actress in Tia Juana in 1927, and the matter of his negro blood became public at the time of a temporary estrangement with his wife in December of last year.

Suit Filed for Injunction by Union Paper

To restrain police officers from arresting newsboys selling copies of the Los Angeles Citizen, a union-labor newspaper, Harvey E. Garman, publisher, yesterday filed suit for an injunction.

It was asserted that William F. Hynes, police lieutenant in charge of the Red squad, and his officers ordered sale of the newspaper at Eighth and Broadway stopped. Headlines on a copy of the paper, made part of the complaint, proclaimed that a film theater in the vicinity is "unfair to organized labor" and the article over which the headlines appeared urged citizens to withhold their patronage on that account.

Detective Lieutenant Hynes declared the sale of the paper constituted a violation of the antipicketing ordinance. He said that newsboys selling the paper walked up and down shouting loudly "Read about the —— theater, unfair to organized labor."

Sierra Madre's Former Deputy Wins Acquittal

Mrs. Marie MacArthur, former deputy City Clerk of Sierra Madre, yesterday was acquitted of a charge of having misappropriated a small sum of money from the city water department funds after the prosecution had concluded its case in Superior Judge Hardy's court.

The acquittal was given by Judge Hardy upon the motion of George A. Glover, defense attorney, who requested that a verdict of acquittal be ordered at once, charging that the District Attorney had failed to establish the fact that the defendant had committed a crime.

Mrs. MacArthur was tried without a jury. George Kemp of the District Attorney's office prosecuted the case.
